DARK HORSE LOOMS AS REAL NOMINEE AT DEM. CONVENTION

Political Captains Appear to Be Shaping Things to Dump Both McAdoo and Smith.

CLANS GATHERING

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

New York, June 17.—The Democratic National Convention that meets in Madison Square Garden one week from today will be a "battle of the second choice" if the talk among the leaders now here can be accepted as an accurate indication of what the average Democratic mind is thinking.

While public discussion of candidates and their chances naturally revolves about the trio presented by McAdoo—Smith—Underwood it is of second choice that the leaders speak when the discussion gets down to the private stage.

The plain and unvarnished reason therefore is that comparatively few of the leaders believe that McAdoo, Smith or Underwood can be nominated.

They envision a long drawn out battle between McAdoo and Smith. They see a deadlock at the Garden comparable to the Clark-Wilson deadlock in Baltimore, the Cox-McAdoo deadlock at San Francisco, and in the end they see a dark horse come galloping from some middle western box stall and get the oats, just as Harding at Chicago four years ago, came forth and captured the Republican nomination after Lowden, Wood and Johnson had figuratively kicked each other to death for ballot after ballot.

"It might be pointed out that in other famous Democratic deadlocks, one of the leaders has come through—Wilson at Baltimore for instance, or Cox at San Francisco. But it is also pointed out that issues and conditions govern this contest which were completely lacking in other conventions—religion and Ku Klux Klanism, wet and dry, the League of Nations and a score of lesser issues that spawn rigid beliefs and unyielding positions.

This belief in the destiny of a second choice—it amounts almost to conviction on the part of the many shrewd party prophets—constitutes the sole stock in hope of the Ralston managers, the John W. Davis Boosters, the Glass People, the Cummins crowd, the Copeland forces, every one, in fact, whose name has been drawn into this Democratic melting pot.

Their representatives and friends are already on the ground here. They ask the new arrival with obvious casualness concerning his predilections towards the leading triumvirate, and then almost beat their first question with their second:

"And who is your second choice?"

The McAdoo managers, led by Judge David Ladd Rockwell, and the Smith Managers, whose spokesman is Franklin D. Roosevelt, are apprehensively cognizant of this situation.

Pre-Convention activities began to pick up today. Governor Smith took personal charge of his headquarters in Madison Avenue and greeted newcomers.

Tomorrow McAdoo headquarters in the Vandervilt Hotel will be taken over by McAdoo in person. He will be accorded a demonstration upon his arrival here from Los Angeles.

MRS. J. L. CONKLIN DIES

Mrs. J. L. Conklin, a respected and long-time resident of the Third Ward, passed away at the Rowles hospital about 11 o'clock last evening after an illness of long continued duration.

Funeral notice tomorrow.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chase has returned from Ann Arbor, Mich., where she attended the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. Her daughter, Miss Mary Chase, received her bachelor's degree from the Literary College of the University.

FRANCE'S PROBLEMS EASY TO SOLVE, SAYS PRESIDENT HERRIOT

By FRANK E. MASON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Paris, June 17—"France nourishes no dangerous ambition, but aspires only to obtain payment of reparations and guarantees for security which were solemnly promised to her," said President Doumergue in his first message to Parliament this afternoon.

The message on Government policy was read simultaneously in the Chamber of Deputies and Senate shortly after 3 o'clock.

"France's problem would be easy to solve," continued the President, "if there were a pure atmosphere of peace everywhere. It is not France's fault that conditions are what they are."

President Doumergue praised the Dawes Reparation plan saying:

"Since the international experts' Reparation report has been prepared, the reparations question seems to be on the road to a solution. The debtor, however, must prove his good faith by precise acts, not by simple agreements."

President Doumergue, in conclusion said "France cannot give up right for supervision of the vanquished enemy, who seems to be preparing revenge."

Following the presidential message, Premier Herriot read the new cabinet's declaration of policy.

BIG AMERICAN 'PEEG' DOWNS 'SPIC' CHAMP

New York, June 17 (INS.)—Andreas Balsa, Champion heavyweight of Spain, won't do—he will never fight Jack Dempsey. Upon that all experts today were agreed.

Balsa, a bull necked, heavy bodied individual, was given his first chance here last night to show what he could do against American fighters. He was pitted against the fast, clean cut Iowa heavyweight, Floyd Johnson. He was beaten almost to a pulp, beaten so badly, in fact, that the referee stopped the bout in the third round.

It was a sickening, bloody battle. Balsa, with his arms wrapped about his chin, and crouching like a wrestler that he is said to be, rushed at Johnson when the bell sounded for the opening round. Johnson put out his left, stopped the onrushing Spaniard and then let fly with a terrific right uppercut. Balsa careened against the ropes and blood poured from his nose.

Spank! went Johnson's fist into Balsa's face as the fight progressed. It was spank blood. Spank blood, Spank, Blood. Balsa was a novic, game but untutored. Johnson kept standing back and smashing him.

Blood was all over the ring, all over Balsa's face and smeared across Johnson's body as a result of clinching with the blindly battling Balsa.

In the second round Johnson hit Balsa so often and so hard he was fagged when the gong rang.

Johnson started to slaughter Balsa in the third. He belted him time and again, finally opening a deep gash over the left eyebrow. Blood spurted out.

"Stot it!" cried the six thousand spectators. Referee Tommy Sheridan did.

Money Available For Rockview Construction

Harrisburg, June 17. (INS.)—The $300,000 appropriated by the 1921 legislature is available for use in construction of the western penitentiary at Rockview, the attorney general's office declared in an opinion today. The opinion is contrary to the belief of Auditor General S. S. Lewis who some time ago said the money was not available.

The decision hinged on one of names. The legislature appropriated the money for the board of inspectors, which was abolished by the administrative code. The opinion holds that the money is available to the board of trustees—the new ruling body provided for by the code.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffot, Mrs. Bosch, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Merrits, of Altoona spent Saturday with Mrs. G. W. Thomas South 4th street.

LT. MAUGHAN READY FOR THIRD CROSS COUNTRY FLIGHT

Mitchell Fiedl, New York, June 17. (INS.)—Lieut. Russel L. Maughan and the fastest airplane in the world were ready today for the third attempt on a "dawn to dusk" flight across the United States. Two previous efforts by Maughan failed, but with a much faster ship improved in many details from experiences of the two failures, he was confident he would reach San Francisco 17½ hours after the hop off from Mitchell field.

The start may be made at 4 o'clock New York daylight saving time tomorrow, but indications were the flight would not get under way until Thursday morning. Maughan is awaiting for word from four mechanics who left Friday for the immediate landing fields where the stops will be made to re-fuel.

The schedule calls for 15½ hours flying time and an hour and 20 minutes for stops on the 2,600 mile flight.

The first stop will be at Dayton, Ohio, 570 miles from New York flying field. The second stop will be at St. Joseph, Mo., another hop of 570 miles. Cheyenne, Wyo., will be the third stop a hop of 490 miles, and Salduro, Utah, a 480-mile leap, the last stop before San Francisco. He expects to cover the first two laps in 2½ hours flying time and the last three in 3½ hours each.

The plane, an army pursuit ship, has a maximum speed of 176 miles an hour and Lieutenant Maughan said today he expected to make an average of 168 miles an hour.

His first flight ended at Rock Springs, Wyo., about a year ago, and the second last July was halted at St. Joseph, Mo., by engine trouble.

New York, June 17. (INS.)—If atmospheric conditions are favorable—and it doesn't rain—Lieut. Russel L Maughan, army flier, will attempt his dawn to dusk trans-continental airplane flight next Thursday, he said today.

Maughan plans to start at 3:22 a. m., daylight saving time, in an army pursuit plane and to reach San Francisco inside of 17 hours, maintaining an average speed of 160 miles an hour.

BIDS FOR 40 MILES OF ROAD ARE OPENED

Harrisburg, June 16.—Action to make available for road construction part of the proceeds of the $50,000,000 highway bond issue approved by the voters last November was announced today by Governor Pinchot. The governor, in letters to Auditor General Lewis and State Treasurer Snyder, proposed the issuance of $15,000,000 in bonds, to bear 4¼ per cent interest, payable semi-annually, with the exception that the first payment would be for one year and be due May 1, 1925. The governor proposed that the sale of onds be held July 22.

The governor recommended the bonds be advertised in daily newspapers in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New York City, Harrisburg, Scranton and Erie, all to be chosen by the auditor general.

The $15,000,000 from the first sale would not be needed until August 1 of this year, it was announced, Federal aid payment and funds from the first program to that date. For replacement, the motor license fund is being used.

Huckleberries May Be Plenty This Year

Lansford, June 17 (United Press.) This will be a fine year for huckelberries, which usually abound in this region, according to information received lately from the mountains. Heavy rains were reported to have helped the berries along and incidentally helped the inhabitants to their well earned receipts for picking them. Forest fires have not been serious enough to destroy the supply this year and between now and July thousands of women and children will be active gathering the berries.

Rev. and Mrs. Granger and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Way, of Williamsport, are visiting at D. Gardlock's at Curwensville.

5 BANDITS HOLD UP STREET CAR; MONDAY MASTER OF RUSSELL COAL CO., CLYMER, OF $28,000, SEMI-MONTHLY PAYROLL

Punxsutawney, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Police from every county in northwestern Pennsylvania this afternoon are searching for the band of five bandits who held up Alex Caldwell, of the Rupsell Coal Company of Clymer, Pa., today and escaped with $28,000 in cash being brought to Clymer for the semi-monthly pay.

Caldwell and George Askey, a guard, were bringing the payroll from the bank at Indiana, Pa., to Clymer on an interurban car when the five robbers boarded the car six miles from Indiana. A few minutes after they had placed themselves in different parts of the car, the men pulled revolvers at a signal and held up the few passengers and the coal company employes.

Caldwell said the men looked like Italians and probably were former employes at the company's mines.

Grabbing the money, the men jumped from the car and disappeared in the woods.

No trace of them has been found.

Another registered mail pouch also carried on the car was reported stolen, but the contents of this pouch have not been determined.

Padlock Injunctions In State Courts Are Urged

Washington, June 17 (INS.)—"Padlock" injunction suits in state as well as Federal courts to enforce the liquor laws will be employed through efforts of the Federal Prohibition unit, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes announced today.

Haynes said that briefs of law on the right to file injunction suits in the state courts nore being distributed to prosecuting attorneys in every state. Use of injunctions will take cases before judges instead of juries and therefore save time.

LOST LIFE WHEN HOME BURNED

Charleston, W. Va., June 15 (INS.)—Bennie Ehman, 18, son of Henry Ehman, prominent farmer, was burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Ehman home here today.

The youth was trapped when he went back into the blazing house from which the family had fled to get a wrap for his mother, who was thinly clad. The charred body was recovered several hours later.

OSCEOLA MAN HAS SKULL FRACTURE

Norman O'Brien, 20 years old, of Osceola Mills, suffered a possible fracture of the skull late Sunday afternoon when his automobile was struck by a Tyrone street car near Washington avenue and First street, Tyrone.

He was taken into Tyrone by a passing motorist and was later removed to the Altoona hospital where he was admitted and X-ray pictures of his injuries taken. His condition is reported to be fairly good.

According to the report of Motorman Mays, who operated the street car, O'Briren had backed his automobile directly into the path of the street car, O'Brien had backed his automobile car was almost abreast of the automobile.

Three New Witnesses Testify At Ebensburg

Eensburg, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Three new witnesses—two of them women—were injected today into the trial of William Monahan, Lilly, Pa., resident indicted on murder charges in conneceion with the fighting between Lilly men and Ku Klux Klansmen at Lilly during a klan demonstration there.

Esther Hanna and her sister Anna, young Lilly women, told how they were attarked by unmasked men after cheering the marching klansmen, and the younger girl, Anna, said she had received a broken ankle in the melee.

Formal testimony was offered mainly at today's court session, most of it being a recounting of previous testimony at the trial of Samuel Evans, a klansman who was acquitted of the murder charges in connection with three deaths during the riroting.

Rev. Alban, wife and daughter attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Thomas, Saturday, June 14.

SEEKING ALLEGED SLAYER OF BRIDE

Milwaukee, June 17. (INS.)—While George Cummings, who is sought in connection with the slaying of his bride of a week in the tourist camp at Wittenberg, was endeavoring to reach the Canadian border today, radio messages giving the most minute description of the man and pleading with authorities to "get him dead or alive" were being broadcast hourly from Minneapolis and Stevens Point, Wis.

And while the net to capture Cummings was being spread, the body of the slain, romantic woman of 60, who bobbed her hair and said she was 30, was prepared for shipment to her middle aged daughter, in Grand Rapids.

All last night, investigators combed and recombed the tourists camping grounds for additional clues which might lead to the solution of one of Wisconsin's strangest crimes. Near the place where the body of the woman lay, murdered some time Sunday, were also discovered her raincoat and other articles of feminine apparel.

The body was not in an actual grave. It had been pressed into a muddy ditch after being wrapped in a robe and army blanket. Stout cords bound it, in a sitting, cramped position.

No trace has been found of the 39-year-old husband who married the 62-year-old woman. Since he had a complete camping outfit with plenty of supplies, it is believed he will long remain in hiding. It is even believed that he will remain in the northern Wisconsin woods for several months until the "hysteria" dies down before making his dash for the Canadian border.

The "Elusive Lamb" Follows Mary Again

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 17 (INS.)—Thomas Lamb, with a record of many escapes from police stations and arresting officers, slipped thru a cordon of police at Center avenue, police station here today just before he was called for a hearing on a charge of larceny, and despite the efforts of the entire city police and detective forces, there is no single clue to his whereabouts.

The escaped prisoner who is known as "the elusive Lamb", was arrested at Steubenville, O., his alleged home yesterday, and brought here last night by City detective James Hoey. When arrested at Steubenville, Lamb broke away from the arresting officer, and ran two blocks for liberty before a pedestrian stopped him.

He was turned over to Detective headquarters last night, strapped to a chair and guarded by three men. Later in the night, he was taken to the Center Ave., station, but is believed to have walked out of the cell room when drunken prisoners were arraigned this morning.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Orcutt have announced the marriage of their daughter, Nathalie Ernestine, to Charles B. Davis, Jr., of Danville, Pa., on May 12. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home in Danville after July 1.

COUNCIL HELPS TO MAKE CLEARFIELD BUSIEST OF TOWNS

Three Street Paving Projects Are Under Way; Sewers and River Wall Ordered Built.

WANT SIDEWALKS

There is more building and general improvement, both private and public, under way in Clearfield at the present time than in any other town anyway near our size in central or western Pennsyvania. The borough council, judging by the reports of its officers and the action taken at last evening's meeting, is going to continue its full share of improving for all summer long.

Chairman Beahan of the highway committee reported Cherry street paving about completed and that the work of paving Front street would be taken up tomorrow. He also recommended that Locust street be paved from Third to Fourth and council directed that an ordinance be prepared providing for this work.

Chairman Adams of the sewer committee announced that he was ready to start his sewer building crew on the big 24-inch surface water sewer on Market street and recommended the re-laying of Walnut street sewer between Third and Fourth.

Bids were also opened for the building of the stone retaining wall along the river bank from Walnut street south, a distance of 800 feet or as much of that as could be provided for this year, at least half the distance. This work will be under the personal direction of President of Council Roser.

Much General Improvement.

In addition to these new construction propositions, much general repairs and improvements are also being made by Street Commissioner Graham under the direction of the highway department. These projects were touched upon in the report of Engineer Hess, who reported much activity in sidewalk building throughout the town, induced by council's campaign, with Councilman Poorman in charge, to compel the building of sidewalk wherever the need for same exists.

New Walks Asked For.

Notices to build sidewalks were ordered served on the following property owners:

Bigler avenue:—Charles Canlian, James Pellente, Joe Marino, John Sample, Lawrence Holt, Joe Cologi, Tony Cassamenta, John Molic, Walter Welch, Frank Vreviana, Harry Nearhood, John Mudoskey, Guy Resante, Joseph Ortassic, Charles Gardner.

West Third avenue:—E. Russell Williams, Ed. L. Shirey.

South Second street:—Cecil F. Wilson, W. L. Dethloff.

Witmer street:—John M. Bain.

Want Route Changed.

The State Highway Department asked permission to paint telephone poles through the town to denote Lakes-to-the-Sea highway route and permission was given. The Highway Department was notified that council would like to have the highway routed down Cherry from Second to Third, now that that block has been concreted, as such a change would do away with traffic congestion at the corner of Second and Market and Market and Third streets, and be a most decided advantage.

Recommend Annexation.

Chairman McKee, of the committee to report on proposed annexation to the borough of several blocks of lots adjoining the Fargo and Thompson properties on Turnpike avenue, made a report and recommended that the property be annexed to the borough. This will be done at next meeting of Council.

West Third Avenue Sewer.

Alex Black presented petition of property owners asking for a sanitary sewer on West Third avenue. The matter of sewer extension permits was discussed and Borough Solicitor Urey directed to take the matter up with State Health Commissioner by telephone in order to get some action, as permit for Linden street sewer, asked for more than one year ago, has never been acted upon.

Want Licenses Collected.

Chairman Gulich of Finance Committee reported that licenses for jitney and other passenger carrying buses operating in town had not been collected as provided for and the burgess was directed to proceed at once with such collection.

STATE HEALTH CAMP AT MONT ALTO OPENS MONDAY, JUNE 23D

Public Health Workers From Every County In State Will Be Among Those Present.

IT IS EDUCATIONAL

Harrisburg, June 17.—Three hundred public health workers, representing every county in the state, will attend the annual health camp conducted under the auspices of the state health department which will open at the Mont Alto Sanitarium next Monday morning. County medical inspectors, health officers, members of boards of health, nurses and lay health workers will be included in the delegation that will attend this years's camp.

Speakers of national and state wide reputation—authorities upon tuberculosis, sanitation and child health measures—will school the 300 delegates to the camp in the task of safeguarding the health of the people of their county. Every phase of health activity will be discussed during the stay of the health workers at the camp with particular stress being placed upon tuberculosis prevention, protection of the health of children and the county health administration.

Dr. Charles H. Miner, secretary of health, will be in charge of the camp and he will place before the assembled health workers plans of the department for legislative changes in the present field health activities of the state.

A small tented city has already [illegible] the invading army of health workers. An entire week will be devoted to the task of better fitting the health workers in the tasks allotted to them. Two camps, each of three days' duration, will be conducted. The first camp, attended by 150 health workers will open on Monday, June 23 and will close two days later. The second detachment of the health workers will then arrive and the early week program will be repeated for their benefit.

One of the features of the health camp will be practical clinics conducted by experts that will serve to demonstrate to the health officers certain lessons in the care of the public health. The clinics for the most part will be conducted in the afternoons with the mornings and evenings being devoted to speeches, lectures and motion picture demonstrations.

Governor Pinchot will address the health camp on June 25. The outstanding speaker at the camp will be Dr. John H. Ferrell, director of the United States Rockefeller Foundation. Dr. Wilmer Krusen, director of health in Philadelphia; Dr. A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Hand, of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Stengel, of Philadelphia; Dr. Samuel Haythorn, of the University of Pittsburgh; Dr. George Norris, of Philadelphia; a representative of State College; Dr. H. T. Price, professor of pediatrics at the University of Pittsburgh and a number of other medical experts are included in the list of speakers.

In addition, the members of the state health department staff will participate in the week's program. The progress made in the betterment of health conditions in the state will be presented in a series of charts and tables prepared by Dr. Wilmer Bl[illegible] chief of the statistical bureau of the state department of health.

President Coolidge Will Be In Attendance

Philadelphia, June 17 (United Press)—President Coolidge and other high officials will be in Philadelphia September 25, to attend the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first meeting of the Continental Congress in Carpenter's Hall. A parade is planned for the day with the First City Troop acting as escort for the President.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Nelly, a little black and white dog, the pet of Billy Link, early today saved thousands of dollars worth of property here from almost certain destruction by fire.

The dog awakened his master who followed the animal to a spot where a small blaze had started. Close by was a large building in which turpentine and other highly inflammable material was stored.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

A regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of Mrs. Bumgardner on Friday evening. Meeting was led by Mrs. Runk, who distributed small flags in honor of Flag Day. Meeting opened with singing. Quotations from Scripture were read by the members, after which the Lord's Prayer was said in unison.

A letter on Enforcement, from Mrs. Marion was read by the President, and one by Mrs. Chorpening, from the County Secretary, thanking her for flowers sent.

A poem, "The Flag", including 1812, 1845, 1861, 1898, evidently written before the late War, was read by Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Hile read some excerpts from arguments presented by State President Mrs. George at the Beer Bill hearing. She said among many things, "We heard the cry of the children, who were only half fed and half clothed. We heard the cry of the mothers who were suffering untold anguish because husbands were exercising their so-called 'personal liberty' by trampling on the rights of their families by carrying most of their earnings to saloons."

"Make Our Home Town Dry," was read by Mrs. Edmiston, the author asking the question, "Won't You Work for Law Enforcement to Make Your Home Town Dry?" Then more pathetically exclaiming—"You are your brother's keeper," etc.

Articles of interest by Mrs. Upton St. Clair, and Mrs. Catherine Davis were read by Mrs. Runk.

Mrs. Smith read testimony from the Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers who said, among other things, that ten years before the church began fighting liquor, the necessity of it was seen, to safely run the trains, that liquor drinking by employees must cease; and steps were taken in that direction.

During the social time excellent refreshments were served, and during discussion of the habits of the girls of this favored land, much wonder and regret was expressed at the too common habits of cigarette-smoking and drinking.

The July meeting will be a picnic, at which all members are requested to be present.

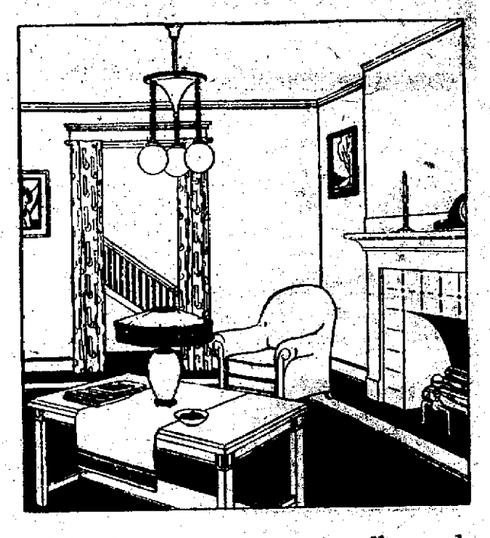
Wonderful Walls of Worth

SHEETROCK
The FIREPROOF WALLBOARD



You can build solid, permanent walls and ceilings at low cost with Sheetrock, the different wallboard.

Sheetrock is made of pure gypsum, and its use assures dense, durable walls of exceptional quality. It is fireproof, non-warping—takes any form of wall decoration.

Sheetrock is extensively used in homes for new walls and ceilings. It withstands years of wear and tear. Its moderate cost and excellent quality make it standard wall material for the modern dwelling.

Sheetrock also lends itself admirably to alterations and remodeling. Its broad, standard size sheets—⅜-inch thick—are quickly and easily erected. It saws and nails like lumber. Once in place, Sheetrock is up to stay, and its life is as long as the building itself.

Come in and let us show you what Sheetrock is, how it differs from ordinary wallboard, and how it may be used in new construction or alterations.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Children between the ages of four and thirteen, both girls and boys, grow faster and better during August and the following three months than any other period of the year, according to results of careful study into the question of child nutrition by the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Boys make 5.2 per cent. and girls 5.8 per cent. of the total yearly growth between Aug. 1 and Dec. 1. The period of maximum gain is in the late summer and early fall, and the period of minimum advancement falls in the late spring and early summer.

While the same tendency holds for both boys and girls, it is most marked among the girls.

The Results Tabulated

	Boys		Girls
Months	Av. Gain in lbs	% of Annual Gain	Av. Gain in lbs	% of Annual Gain
Jan.	.67	9.9	.53	8.3
Feb.	.51	7.6	.43	6.7
March	.43	6.4	.36	5.6
April	.43	6.4	.34	5.3
May	.25	3.7	—.05	*—.8
June	.06	.9	.08	1.3
July	.26	3.9	.35	5.4
Aug.	.89	13.2	.79	12.3
Sept.	1.01	15 0	1.06	16.6
Oct.	1.00	14.8	1.00	15.6
Nov.	.83	12.3	.59	15.3
Dec.	.51	7.6	.53	8.4
Total yearly	6.74	100.	6.41	100.
Avg monthly	.56	8.3	.53	8.3

*In May the girls showed an average loss of .05 pounds. This is equivalent to 0.8% of the total gain.

The report says:

"The rate of growth in both height and weight over a given period of time is quite as important, in judging a child's state of development, as his attained stature and weight at any given period. Physicians, teachers, school nurses, and nutrition workers must rely on the gains made during short periods of from three to six months to determine whether the child is doing well, for obviously all healthy children must be expected to gain steadily in both height and weight.

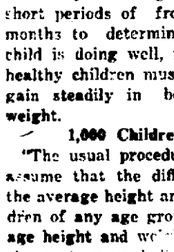
1,000 Children Tested

"The usual procedure has been to assume that the difference between the average height and weight of children of any age group and the average height and weight of children of the next group indicates the rate of gain which all children within the given age period may be expected to make. To determine the expected gain for any portion of the year, say for one month, the procedure is to take one-twelfth of the annual expected gain to determine the monthly expected gain. At best this method is very imperfect, for it leaves out of consideration retardation and acceleration, which largely determine the rate of gain."

To reach its conclusions the association made records of the successive weights of 1,000 children. This study is one of a series being carried on with funds given the association for the purpose of providing the basis of more effective public health and relief work by filling in the gaps in existing basic information. Whether climatic conditions affect this seasonal variation in growth is soon to be determined.

FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Mrs. Bradford Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound



Phoebus, Virginia.—"Having this opportunity I just cannot refrain from saying a word of praise for the Lydia E. Pinkham medicines. I have used them as occasion required for twenty years, and my three sisters have also used them, and always with the most gratifying results. During the Change of Life I had the usual distressing symptoms—hot flashes, insomnia, etc.,—and I am pleased to testify to the wonderful results I obtained from the Vegetable Compound. I heartily recommend it to any woman and I will be pleased to answer any inquiries that might be sent to me through the publication of my testimonial."—Mrs. H. L. BRADFORD, 109 Armstead Street, Phoebus, Virginia.

Consider carefully Mrs. Bradford's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She mentions the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, or if other annoying symptoms appear and you are blue at times, you should give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Mussolini Offers His Resignation To King

Rome, June 17 (INS.)—Following a lengthy conference between Premier Mussolini and King Victor Emmanuel at the Quirinal today it was rumored that Mussolini had offered his resignation as a result of political scandal over the kidnapping and slaying of the socialist deputy Giacomo Matteotti.

Al lthe members of the ministry offered their resignations to Premier Mussolini.

ALICE ELNORA McLAUGHLIN

Alice Elnora Morrison McLaughlin daughter of the late James and Rebecca Morrison, was born May 10, 1862; in Goshen Township, and died May 25, 1924; aged 62 years and 15 days.

She was preceded to the grave by an infant brother and an adopted daughter, Mrs. J. E. Edwards, also a sister Mrs. Lillian Haney who died March, 14, 1924.

She leaves to mourn her death one son, Jas. A. McLaughlin, of Park Street, four sisters; Mrs. William Arthurs, Mrs. Hannah H. Shimmel, Mrs. Ben Dale and Mrs. Laura Gearhart, also two brothers Harvey and Ed Morrison.

Eleven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren also survive.

The services were held at the home of her son, May 29. The services were conducted by Rev. Armstrong with Leavy orciating.

MRS. McLAUGHLIN RECOVERS

Mrs. Clara McLaughlin of Fisher, Clarion County, who has been seriously ill at the home of her nephew, Jas A. McLaughlin of Park street, toured to her home on Sunday last.

The following children, who were called to her bedside during her illness have returned to their respective homes: Arthur of Sanhurst, N. C.; Floyd, of Pittsburgh, Chester of Ellet, Ohio; Harvey of Kane, Pa.; Mrs. Ed. Ransom and Mrs. Chas. Greyhil of Fisher.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. McLaughlin and family wish to thank the friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses during the sickness and death of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Alice McLaughlin.

Huge Sawfish Got Away

It is said that the largest ever caught in the Gulf of Florida was a sawfish twenty-six feet long, eight feet in fore-part just back of the gills, weighed 800 pounds. The original name for the fish is a misnomer. The only explanation advanced gives the fisherman, in the 17th century, the credit. The fish is rarely good fish, and is called by the English because of its saw and fins therefore a discredit by the Levitical law.

Bricks Burn Horse

A small earthquake known as a phailad, has been reported to have caused an extensive injury to the brickwork at the entrance to one of the dry docks at Calcutta. The creature's path is into the bricks where the surface glaze has been destroyed. In this particular case they were destroyed after having penetrated to about half an inch, but scientists believe that, except for that they would have destroyed all the brickwork.

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:

After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation . . . for more than twenty years . . . after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a specific for constipation.

I deem it only justice that you should know what your product is doing for me, and what it is able of doing for others."

The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and crumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.

For those long summer runs

LONG non-stop runs subject the oil in your crank-case to a terrific punishment—a constant battering at high motor temperature. Low-heat-resisting oils change their physical characteristics under such conditions; they lose their "body"—their capacity to maintain a separating film between the friction surfaces of bearings, cylinders and pistons.

You know what that means!

Put your motor under the protection of high-heat-resisting Atlantic Motor Oil. It has the highest resistance to heat, pressure and impact—the greatest body-holding capacity—of any line of motor oils that has ever come from the Atlantic refineries.

Atlantic dealers have a chart carrying The Atlantic Refining Company's official recommendations as to the correct type of oil for your car or truck—Atlantic Medium, Heavy, Special Heavy or Polarine.

THE CANCER CURE

Hope was stirred in millions of despairing hearts when it was first announced that a Canadian physician had isolated the "cancer germ" and had developed a serum with which many cures had been made. The account of his work, published in a Philadelphia newspaper, has been challenged. It is said that the Journal of the American Medical Association in 1921 told of the investigation of an alleged cancer cure, claimed by a physician of the same name, and the conclusion that there was no value in it.

American physicians doubt whether any progress has been made since along the line in question. Dr. James Ewing of the Cornell Laboratory, New York City, addressing a group of the American Medical Association, says:

"Cancer is not a germ disease, and so a serum treatment would be worthless. The effective treatment of cancer is accomplished by surgery, the X-ray and radium in combination."

The public may safely take the word of the medical profession on this point until absolutely convincing evidence is shown to the contrary. Much progress has been made in cancer treatment along the lines mentioned, in recent years, and it is definitely stated by reputable physicians that most cases of cancer are curable by the knife, radium or X-ray if recognized and taken in time.

The thing for a patient to do in any case of suspicion is to go to his family physician and take that physician's advice. The medical profession is doubtless "getting warm" in its search for the basic cause of cancer, and sooner or later will announce it, and adopt preventive as well as remedial measures, but it will not do to anticipate that time with false hopes.

"MORAL INSANITY"

The defense of two bright young murderers in Chicago is to be "moral insanity". That is an interesting variation.

The boys evidently knew exactly what they were doing, planning it long in advance, carefully rehearsing their program and carrying it out with incredible coolness and precision. And during the whole period preceding and following the actual deed, they seem to have gone through all their normal activities, college work, family and social life, etc., without any evidence of mental or emotional aberration.

The defense will insist that this very fact proves the boys did not know right from wrong. Their brains may have been clear but their moral sense was not. Wherefore, it will be argued, they should not be punished for murder but merely be placed in some corrective institution.

This is a plausible theory. The boys' moral sense was certainly very dull. But a moralist, if not a lawyer, will want to ask how it happened to be so—whether the conscience of these lads was dull from birth, or whether they made it dull by deliberate, long-continued acts of selfish indulgence and brutality, steadily increasing in wickedness. Also whether, if escaping the gallows and going to some public institution, they will be released as morally "cured" after a year or two, to continue their experiments in sin.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL STAGE PICNIC

The Clearfield Commercial Club met last evening with Mine Host Jordan and a livey meeting was staged from the first rap of President Shillingford's impromptu gavel.

Following the committee reports it was decided to have a picnic to which the wives, sisters, daughters and friends of the members would be invited. The time, place and other details were put up to the entertainment committee.

It was decided to accept the invitation of the Rotary Club to meet with them in the near future to hear Supt. A. K. Johnson, of the Tyrone Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad who will speak on railroad matters pertaining to this region.

Three new members were elected to membership in the club, Albert F. Scheutte, manager of the A. W. Leonardson Co., Ralph A. Hunter, owner of the drug store formerly operated by Woodward & McPherson and Frank "Passy" Passmore, proprietor of the Leonard House.

Mr McGarry, Manager of the Dimeling Hotel, gave the club some interesting information relative to the amount of travel which will pass thru this city on the Lakes-toSea Highway, stating that he already had reservations booked far into the summer by tourists who would make Clearfield their over-night stopping place. And in this connection, the Publicity Committee of the Club has arranged to send to each one of these parties a list of the industries, the fraternal organizations and their meeting nights, the churches and the locations thereof so that these people passing thru our city will know that we are a friendly city and are glad to have the folks here.

Rev. A. Roy Hauser, pastor of the Lutheran church, gave the club a stirring talk on the example set by the older men for the younger generation and pleaded that the members of the club set such an honorable example for the youth of this city that the influences growing out of such examples would be for the betterment of the rising generation.

Antonio Moreno Gorman, newly elected Sargeant at arms was duly inducted into office with fitting ceremonies after which the club adjourned.

"OLD TIMER" HOME AGAIN

Dave Adams, an old-time Clearfield boy, who has been located at Los Angeles, California, for several years, but who first shook the dust of old Clearfield from his brogans nearly 20 years ago, is back home on a visit to his brothers Tommy and Bill and other relatives in this section.

Time has dealt gently with Dave and Dame Fortune also patted his head as she tilted her famous cornucopia of plenty and he is both looking and has a right to feel prosperous. He is being kept quite busy greeting old time friends and is enjoying his visit.

Dave has the Pacific coast perspective and before he had got through telling us how much improved and how much he enjoyed coming back to Clearfield, he was telling us just how much Los Angeles had increased since he went there and how much bigger his home city was than her rival San Francisco.

He also told us, and gloried in the telling, that he had helped carry California for Wilson in 1916, but cautioned us against telling brother Tommy about it until after he left Clearfield and was at least six miles away on his return journey. We promised.

WHERE SCIENCE STOPS

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"Science finds cancer germ!"

This is the startling news published last week in the newspapers.

One by one the strongholds of disease are being broken down.

The outlook for long life and happiness ought to grow better and better It won't be long before the last of the deadly diseases will be conquered by men of science and only the phenomenon of old age will baffle us. Even that secret, the scientists are claiming to have solved, and one investigator after another offers his rule for the prolongation of life.

And yet, though we baffle the enemies which attack our bodies, we cannot discover the magic serum of peace and happiness.

Wise men have failed to teach us that it is small gain to vanquish the enemies of disease, if we nurture the still more devastating enemies of greed and hatred and selfishness.

Finding the deadly cancer germ and learning the secret of vanquishing it spares a few lives from horrible suffering and lengthens the average span of life by just that much. But as long as hatieds thrive and wars threaten, the world moves but imperceptibly forward.

True enough, the scentists have done their bit. Small-pox and diptheria and typhoid fever, and malaria, and now even diabetes once thought incurable have been mastered. Scientists even talk of a cure for that ages-ld scourge of leprosy.

The chances of life seem to grow yearly better, but the chance for happiness and security somehow fail to increase proportionately.

The trouble for that is beyond the reach of doctors.

Perhaps it is instead, a job for mothers whose business it is to teach their children honesty and fair play, generosity and unselfishness.

Even with the ravages of cancer stopped, with tuberculosis almost conquered by the healing rays of the sun, with every lurking streptococci germ traced to its source of supply in some broken down tonsil or decrepit tooth, the human race only muddles along achieving little solid increase in happiness, except to the insurance companies, who like to see the life span lengthen.

But what boots it to live longer, if we may not live more happily?

It won't be long now before the last of the dread disease germs will have been isolated and conquered by the scientists.

But that won't help the human race such a lot, as long as no one isolates the selfishness germ, and finds a cure for national greed and ancient hatreds

In the Courts

While enroute to their stations at DuBois and Ridgway early Sunday morning, Corporals Barker and Pierce of the state police are said to have encountered Charles Lansberry, of Curwensville, in a car about the Drauckker's woods section, under the influence of liquor.

Lansberry was arrested by the state police and held in $1,000 bail for violation of the motor law by driving a car while intoxicated. Lansberry denies the charge and furnished the required bail for court.

Law and orderly proceedure must maintain even over in Huston township, where a factional quarrel has divided the school board into two warring factions. Several weeks ago the dominant faction on the board sought to ignore the election laws of the state, which provide for the election of certain officers, and decided to appoint one of their friends as collector of school taxes regardless of the fact that John Horning, one of the township's most substantial citizens, had been elected to the position, given the required bond and had acted most efficiently in the office for two years.

Mr. Horning got an injunction to restrain the "big three" on the school board from turning the duplicate over to their collector and Judge Chase fixed Monday morning for a hearing on the injunction application. It did not take long to convince the would-be law-makers of the error of their ways and all hands quickly agreed that Collector Horning under the law was entitled to and would receive the school tax duplicate for collection.

The hearing was then continued until July 21, at which time the matter of who is liable for the costs of the proceeding will be determined. Mr. Horning says he will not pay them, and contends that it is not an obligation of the taxpayers of the district but that the directors who sought to usurp his place are wholly to blame and should be made to pay the costs out of their own pocket.

Told of John Burroughs.

John Burroughs, the naturalist, was not interested in nature's larger aspects. Geysers and volcanoes bored him. His one exception was the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, which he called "the Divine Abyss." Despite his intentness on study when a boy, Burroughs was fond of girls and kept a systematic record of his engagements with them, writers on his life say.

Curwensville's Own Column

Mrs. Harshey Sharp, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Verne Wall, South Walnut street, for several weeks will return to her Philadelphia home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Robert McClure, Mrs. S. J. McKenrick and Mrs. Ed Moore are spending the week in Bellefonte with their sister, Mrs. J. L. Rankin.

The body of Alfred Berlin was brot to Curwensville yesterday from Jamestown, N. Y., where he died on Sunday. Undertaker Doverspike received the body and took it to Bloomington, where it will be interred this afternoon. He was a former resident of Glen Richey and conducted a butcher shop there at one time.

Word has been received by relatives announcing the marriage of Miss Pearl Berger and her brother Pus Berger, the ceremony being a double one. The marriages took place at Detroit, Mich., Rev. A. E. Gordon, a Methodist minister officiating. The lady was united with Willemere Stewart, of New Glasgow Nova Scotia, and the brother to Genevieve Hansen of Milwaukee, Wis. The bridal pair are a brother and sister of Roy Berger of Curwensville.

Al Mumma suffered a dislocated shoulder Sunday by falling from a high porch backwards.

Three cars met in a smash-up on Bloomington hill Sunday night. None of the occupants of which three were some half dozen, was injured to any extent, but two of the cars are good material for a junk pile.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams after a week's visit with relatives have returned to their New Bethlehem home.

Roy Strickland who moved to Curwensville about a year ago to take care of a high-bred dog farm, will return to Curwensville shortly, he having had enough dog training to last him a life time.

Rolly Knepp is carrying his right arm in a sling all on account of having a hand under a car wheel. The hand and fingers were badly crushed and lacerated.

Guy Strickland, South Side, is nursing a smashed fore finger and it is not a very friendly pet at that.

Do not forget the fact that on next Friday evening the American Legion auxiliary will hold a carnival and dance in the Pattelle garage. There will be amusement and fun galore for everybody, to say nothing of the fine refreshments that are going to be on hand and dispensed at a small profit to the hungry. Proceeds for benefit of the Tablet Fund.

Funny, but true nevertheless, that no one has inaugurated a term of summer school in Curwensville this year. Usually some interested person in school affairs holds a private two or three weeks session to better prepare the small student for advancement in the winter term. Perhaps it is because that people entertain an idea that a nine months term is sufficient for one year and the kiddies ought to have a few months of play and frolih. "All work and no play, makes Jack a dull boy."

STATE ORGANIZERS HERE

Edwin Charles and A. D. Miller, state organizers of the P. O. S. of A., were in Clearfield today on business in connection with their duties in this patriotic American order.

Mr. Charles is an old-time newspaper man, having been editor of the Middleburg (Pa.) Post for a number of years. He also served as register and recorder of Snyder county for two or three terms, and is a very genial gentleman. Both officials expressed themselves as being well pleased with the condition of the order in Clearfield county.

Camp "Cedar Pines" To Open June 26th

Camp "Cedar-Pines," the summer camp conducted by the Y. M. C. A. of Jersey Shore, Pa., is the open gate to the out-of-door life. The place for the boy and the girl to spend their vacation, living in the fresh air, near the woods, the creek and the fields. Place a boy and girl in this closeness to nature, among agreeable companions, good influence and under the care of capable leaders, and they will grow in body, mind and spirit.

This is the surrounding "Cedar-Pines" offers and upon which its success has been built during the past eight years. Careful attention is given to all activities of the boys and girls. This camp is an exclusive one where boys and girls are given individual attention.

Character training, combined with physical and mental developement is the chief aim of this popular camp.

The councilors at "Cedar-Pines" are keenly alive to their responsibilities for the safety and hapiness of the boys and girls entrusted to their care, and it is the kind of camp that parents may feel safe in sending their children to.

Every boy and girl has dreamed of the wonderful pleasures of camping and imagined living out under the blue skies by day and night sleeping under a coverlet of silent, twinkling stars. All have pictured the continuous moments of joy—hiking, cooking, breakfast, of the crackling fire—baseball, tennis, woodcraft, fishing, swimming, basketball, volleyball, minstrel, circus, stunt nights, camp emblem tests and swapping stories around the evening camp fire after dark.

A typical day's program at camp "Cedar-Pines":

6:15	Reveille
6:50	Flag raising, setting-up exercises, morning dip.
7:30	Breakfast
7:45	Bungalows in order
7:50	Bungalow inspection
8:00	Bible study, morning assembly
8:30	Camp duties
9:15	Special institute groups
10:00	Sports, coached by leaders
10:45	Beginner's swimming lesson
11:00	Morning swim
1:00	Rest, letter writing, reading
2:00	Athletics, ball games, boating, hiking, etc.

Every Day a Happy Day

There will be at least one hundred girls entering camp on Thursday, June 26, when the girl's camp begins. The girls' camp will continue for a period of three weeks. The boys' camp will open on July 24, and a capacity crowd is expected during this season which is the ninth consecutive season for this popular camp. Boys and girls were entered last season from five different states.

A camp booklet is issued and those interested may obtain one by communication with the Y. M. C. A. at Jersey Shore, Pa.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the sessions of this convention. It is becoming more and more apparent that it is of supreme importance to strongly support the greatest agency in modern times for the religious training of children and youth, and to keep our Sunday schools up to the highest standard.

Each one of the 19 schools of the district will elect two delegates. All pastors, Sunday school superintendents and teachers in the district are earnestly urged to be in attendance at the convention, as well as all Sunday school workers in the district.

Pastors and superintendents are requested to announce the convention and urge a large attendance from their respective congregation and schools.

Singing, conducted by H. L. Caldwell, will enliven all the sessions. Delegates will be entertained.

District No. 2 includes the Sunday schools of the following places: Curwensville, Grampian, Glen Richey, Lumber City, Pike township, and Penn Township.

PHILIPSBURG NOTES

The State Centre Game Fish and Forestry Association has been organized in Philipsburg, the object of which is to conserve the forests and streams and the wild life therein. Its purpose is to see that Centre and Clearfield counties get their allotment of fish and game from state and federal game reserves and hatcheries, and to see that the same is distributed in all sections of said counties where the association is represented.

Among other things the association is in favor of the hunter's license law; the dog law; of a state hatchery and game preserve for this section; the building of dams and lakes on our streams for the further protection of fish and game. The organization opposes the stocking of private waters and fisheries from publicly owned hatcheries with state owned fish, and to private hunting or fishing grounds where state game or fish is found. The members of the association promise to co-operate with the fire wardens to reduce the fire hazards.

The association is anxious to increase its membership and thereby aid in making hunting and fishing in this section more appealing and the streams and hunting grounds better places to spend their leisure hours. Applications for membership can be secured from A. G. Ericson, J. W. Beals, J. Frank Kephart, of Philipsburg, and Game Protector Wm. J. Davis, of Clearfield.

Philipsburg Children Lose Sight of Eye

Within the past four weeks three children residing in this section—two boys and a girl—through injuries have lost the sight of one of their eyes. The three were admitted to the Philipsburg State hospital, one having been struck in the eye from a burning coal from the stove; another received a blow in the eye from a stick while playing and the other received injuries during the explosion of a dynamite cap. The children, all youths, will never have to go through this world [illegible] a great handicap, but with the use of the other eye may be able to succeed.

Died At Hospital Following Operation

Mrs. Joseph Graham, aged 40, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Chester Hill, passed away at the local State hospital following an operation for goitre. She had been admitted to the institution but 48 hrs. before, when her condition was critical. Her health had been failing for more than a year. Death relieved her of her sufferings early Friday morning.

Royal Bride

Princess Kuni, the lovely sister of the Princess Regent of Japan, recently married in Tokyo to the son of the abbott of a temple at Kyoto.

A Calico War.

One of the first Indian wars in the history of early Kansas is said to have originated because an agent sold some Indians a piece of calico with the stripes running the wrong way.

CALUMET
THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

Wholesome—Clean—Dependable

Wholesome—because it contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Food Authorities.

Clean—because it is manufactured in the most sanitary baking powder factories in the world, equipped with specially designed machinery to prevent exposure and contamination. The materials in it are untouched by human hands from the start to the finish in the sealed can.

Dependable—because every possible precaution known to Baking Powder scientists—the combined knowledge of a staff of Baking Powder experts—35 years of practical experience in the manufacture of Baking Powder—is used in our efforts to make its keeping qualities perfect.

Dependable—because Calumet is the Baking Powder that contains a small amount of dried white of egg—the ingredient that makes possible the "Water Glass Test." This test is a simple but important and positive method that enables you or anyone to easily prove that Calumet has preserved its remarkable leavening power.

Our salesmen frequently test the Calumet Baking Powder they find on the grocers' shelves to make sure that it is up to the Calumet standard. That's why it reaches you in the same perfect condition as it leaves the factory.

The test is not a comparative test of the strength of different kinds of Baking Powders. The "Water Glass Test" does not show the strength of a Baking Powder that does not contain white of egg. It does, however, show the superiority of Calumet in other respects.

The "Water Glass Test" furnishes a guarantee of reliability. It is Baking Powder Insurance.

Let us send you free a "Big Story in a Little Book," which describes the Water Glass Test.

Calumet Baking Powder is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every particular, and to be as represented in every respect.

Truly the elephant has been named "The Children's Favorite", and not only do the kiddies love the big hulks but the grown-ups feed them peanuts and admire them also. Three immense herds of elephants are carried by the HAGENBECK-WALLACE Circus, which will exhibit in Clearfield on Monday, June 23d. Besides performing in the arenas the elephants work around the lot, hauling wagons to and from the lot.

Original Water Heater

The first water heater known dates back some two thousand years. This was the "athenum" of the Romans, a crude bronze kettle with a handle for swinging over an open fire. The "focus," an apparently later device, was a metal container into which hot stones were put to heat the water surrounding them. This seems to have been the best water heater the early Romans were able to devise.

Woman

If a man is in grief, who cheers him? In trouble, who consoles him? In wrath, who soothes him? In joy, who makes him doubly happy? In prosperity, who rejoices? In disgrace, who backs him against the world, and dresses with gentle unguents and warm poultices the rankling wounds made by the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune? Who, but woman, if you please.—William Makepeace Thackeray.

Cat Mothers Fox Pups.

An Ontario reader writes that her cat fostered three fox pups since they were two weeks old. The pups were taken from the mother because it was feared they might visit. The cat had five kittens which were disposed of, and the foxes were promptly adopted in their place. The foxes are now over three months old and although larger than their foster mother, are still fond of her. They are kept now in a wire pen and kitty is quite content to remain with them all day long, enjoying an occasional frolic.

COMMUNISTS SHOW THIRD PARTY HEADS HOW TO RUN THINGS

By KENNETH CLARK

Convention Hall, St. Paul, June 17.—The bitter-show down fight that is brewing between the Communists and the more conservative Farm-Labor elements over the question of immediately forming a new independent third party was temporarily averted under an arrangement reached among the leaders shortly after the Farmer-Labor Progressive convention got break out openly on the floor at the off-set, the convention managers, by strategic movements, succeeded in having the fight referred again to committees, where the Communists are outranked.

Instead of permitting the battle to under way here today.

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

St. Paul, June 17.—A little band of ten men, all admitted dyed-in-the-wool Communists, today threatened to disrupt completely the Farmer-Labor-Progressive third party convention which met here in opening session.

Three days' work behind closed doors, during which the leaders of the new third party movement thought they had succeeded in curbing the Communists, the thorn in the side of this convention, was rendered virtually useless when the radical element, maneuvering for controlling position, pressed vigorously on the floor for full recognition and equal representation with all other groups in the meeting.

The Communists demanded not only official recognition of their party, but complete acceptance of their platform and plans for the immediate formation of a third party headed by an Independent ticket of candidates from which Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin, would be excluded.

Seldom has a political convention entered upon its work with such confusing problems and with so many cross currents of opinion.

With the single exception of routine organization not a major problem was settled when William Mahoney, temporary chairman, rapped the convention in order.

Until twelve hours ago it seemed that everything had been worked out satisfactorily. The program was to ignore the Communists in the make-up of the convention and then proceed immediately to endorse LaFollette for the Presidency, if he decides to run.

The leaders, confident that LaFollette's formal announcement was imminent, planned to have the convention to select an executive committee of 96 members two from each state, with power to confer endorsement of this Farmer-Labor group upon the militant Wisconsin progressive. Upon this committee the Communists demanded representation.

Then came the overnight change. Its suddenness was as dramatic as it was sensational.

Back of it all were the Communist delegates, ten men, five from the Workers party and five from the Federated Farmer-Labor party.

As the first step, the party managers, with Mahoney at the helm, receded from their previous stand to keep the Communists as a party organization out of the convention. It was first decided that they should come in as representatives of trade unions but not as members of the Communist party.

The Radicals, under the leadership of W. Z. Foster, C. E. Ruthenberg and Joseph Manley, claimed that when the call for the convention was sent out last November the Communists were included. So the managers relented, Mahoney announcing when the switch in plans was made that "it would be a breach of the Faith now not to admit the Communist party."

But this did not satisfy the Communists. They threatened even to balk the plans for the formation of the national executive committee of 96 members.

The Communists said flatly that they did not want any executive committee but demanded to proceed at once with the launching of an independent party with candidates of its own chosing and selection. This was aimed as a direct slap at LaFollette, who savagely attacked the Radicals in his recent letter to Herman Ekern, Attorney General of Wisconsin.

Mahoney and Lieutenants particularly Thomas Ayres, Farmer-Labor candidate for the senate in South Dakota and Walter Mills of the Farmer-Labor party of California, opposed the immediate formation of a third party, prefering first to perfect the State Famer-Labor parties and indorse LaFollette as the only step in national politics this year. They commanded a majority of the delegates, but even so their hands were tied by the Communists.

So completely, in fact, were Mahoney and his followers bound by the Communists that not a single committee was ready to report to the convention at the opening today, although all the major committees, platform, nominations and organization have been in almost constant session for three days.

Unless the Communists lines can be broken it seemed that the convention will be dragged out for the three day period that it was scheduled.

Though Mahoney claimed the largest following, the Communists went into the convention "holding the balance of power," for it was they, and they alone, who threatened to smash the plans that the party managers had so carefully laid, indorse LaFollette and deter the launching of a strongly centralized national third party of Farmers and Labors.

Want Col. Asher Miner To Head Disabled Vets

Wilkes Barre, June 17 (United Press)—The executive commitee of District No. 3, Disabled Veterans of the World War, comprising the states of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland, has decided to nominate General Ashur Miner, of Wilkes Barre for National Commander at their convention in Salt Lake City, starting June 23, Bernard Delinski, state commander anounced here

A strong fight will be made for Miner as it is felt that a man from the East should be the next national commander, Delinski said. General Miner, who was wounded overseas during the world war, has long been prominent in affairs of the Pennsylvania National Guard. He is thoroughly familiar with the needs of the disabled war veterans.

A strong delegation from Pennsylvania will attend the national convention at which many important questions relating to the welfare of disabled soldiers will come up.

VARICOSE VEINS ARE QUICKLY REDUCED

No sensible person will continue to suffer from dangerous swollen veins or bunches when the new powerful, yet harmless germicide called Emerald Oil can readily be obtained at any well stocked drug store.

Ask for a two-ounce original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse substitutes. Use as directed and in a few days improvement will be noticed, then continue until the swollen veins are reduced to normal. It is guaranteed and is so powerful that it also reduces enlarged glands, goitres and wens.

UNDER THE DOME OF THE CAPITOL

Harrisburg, Pa., June 17 (INS)—The State Board of Pardons will start its June session on Tuesday afternoon June 24, when Philadelphia cases will be heard, and the following day will hear the other cases listed for the last hearings prior to the summer recess of the Board.

Two hundred and seventy salary increases were shown on the June 15 payrolls submitted to the State Treasury by the Game, Highway, Agriculture, Insurance, Labor and Industry, and Forestry Departments, running the total number of employes who have been granted more money to approximately 1,000 for the month.

The State Highway Department has filed a complaint with the Public Service Commission against the Reading Company, Carrol township and York county, alleging the dangerous condition of a bridge on State Highway Route 128 between Harrisburg and asking the commission to order replacement of the bridge.

The State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy, now a home for delinquent girls, may become a state reformatory for women prisoners of all kinds from the central counties under a plan discussed by boards of the trustees with Dr. Ellen C. Potter, secretary of Welfare. Dr. Potter, who has been making a special study of the general conditions under which women prisoners are kept, is very favorable to the plan, declaring that such an institution is very much needed.

Forty superintendents of dependent and delinquent children's institutions in the state are attending the summer institute which opened today at Thorn Hill School, Allegheny County.

The conference which will continue until Thursday June 19, is designed to enable the various institution managers to acquaint themselves with approved methods of handling the children entrusted to their care. A permanent organization to be known as the Pennsylvania Association of Institutional Workers will be formed before the meetings end.

To formulate a definite policy for handling the crippled children of the state, a special committee appointed by the Welfare Department, will meet here June 23. Members of the committee include:—Mrs. William Jennings, Dr. C. G. Turnbull, Dr. Francis H. Maxfield, Mrs. Mary S. Lownee, F. E. Brooks of Harrisburg, Mrs. Robert Mackintosh and Miss Rita Lord Sculler of Philadelphia, Miss Aluda Winkelman of Pittsburg, A. H. Standish of Williamsport, Allen F. Smith of Allentown, and Dr. E. E. Shifferstine of Coaldale.

Under authority of the latest legislature, Dr. Potter has issued an order defining the type of mental patients which the various State hospitals for mental diseases may accept, and the territory each will serve. The hospitals affected are those at Danville, Fairview, Harrisburg, Norristown, Warren, Warnersville, and Torrance.

WAR HAPPY EVENT

A day ever to be remembered was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Thomas, South 4th street, Saturday, June 14, when friends from the Trainmen's Auxiliary, Altoona, and Dames of Malta, Clearfield met in honor of Mrs. Thomas' (?) birthday.

The friends from Altoona (a jolly bunch) were as much surprised as the Host and Hostess, when the Dames with their well filled baskets, came in at the noon hour.

The chicken dinner with all the trimmings was soon disposed of, and the afternoon was spent in music and jollification, not saying much about getting our faces "took" by Shull, the photographer.

One lady from Altoona made the remark that she was a Hair Dresser, and was kept busy making older ones look younger. The day soon drew to a close, the friends departing wishing Mrs. Thomas many more happy birthdays.

There were more than thirty present.

WILL OF MRS B. J. HAYWOOD

An estate estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Haywood, widow of the former State Treasurer Benjamin J. Haywood, who died at Sharon last week, is devised to charitable purposes. This will, drawn in November, 1920, was offered for probate at Mercer. The will provides a gift of $25,000 to the American Sunday School Union, an undenominational society. The spacious Haywood home in Sharon, together with its furnishings, is devised to the Presbyterian Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation as a home for superannuated ministers, and all of the remainder of the estate is given to support and maintain the institution.

Mrs. Curtis Brooks and son Curtis Brooks Jr. of Akron, Ohio, are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Nightingale on Nichols St.

LOCAL MARINE ON DUTY IN HAITI

Washington, June 17.—Starting on a period of duty in the tropics, Charles Edward Hale, nephew of Mrs. Jessie McCracken of Tyler, Clearfield County, Pa., is now on duty with the U. S. Marines in Haiti, according to the official reports at Marine Corps headquarters here. He will proably remain in the West Indies a year or longer before returning to the United States.

A small force of Marines have been stationed in Haiti since 1915, when the soldiers of the sea landed in that country to restore order during a revolution. During their occupation of Haiti, the Marines have established school systems, aided in the building of roads and public works, and have encouraged agriculture and thrift among the natives.

Charles joined the Marine Corps at Pittsburgh in October, 1922, and spent several weeks at Parris Island, S. C., where he learned the various duties performed by marines. He left that station recently with a detachment of marines bound for Port au Prince, the picturesque capital of Haiti.

HAD FINE TIME

The neighbors and friends of Mrs. P. E. McDowell, of Bradford township to the number of 50 gathered at their home on Saturday evening last and treated Mrs. McDowell to an old-fashioned surprise party. Saturday happened to be Mrs. McDowell's birthday and the good ladies of the neighborhood, enlisting the aid of her husband, had Perry bring her to town and keep her here until late in the evening.

When they arrived home at 8 p. m. they found the house filled with their friends and a real surprise and a very pleasant evening was the result. Delicious eats were served and Mrs. McDowell was handsomely remembered.

DARK HORSE LOOMS AS REAL NOMINEE AT DEM. CONVENTION

Political Captains Appear to Be Shaping Things to Dump Both McAdoo and Smith.

CLANS GATHERING

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

New York, June 17.—The Democratic National Convention that meets in Madison Square Garden one week from today will be a "battle of the second choice" if the talk among the leaders now here can be accepted as an accurate indication of what the average Democratic mind is thinking.

While public discussion of candidates and their chances naturally revolves about the trio presented by McAdoo—Smith—Underwood it is of second choice that the leaders speak when the discussion gets down to the private stage.

The plain and unvarnished reason therefore is that comparatively few of the leaders believe that McAdoo, Smith or Underwood can be nominated.

They envision a long drawn out battle between McAdoo and Smith. They see a deadlock at the Garden comparable to the Clark-Wilson deadlock in Baltimore, the Cox-McAdoo deadlock at San Francisco, and in the end they see a dark horse come galloping from some middle western box stall and get the oats, just as Harding at Chicago four years ago, came forth and captured the Republican nomination after Lowden, Wood and Johnson had figuratively kicked each other to death for ballot after ballot.

It might be pointed out that in other famous Democratic deadlocks, one of the leaders has come through—Wilson at Baltimore for instance, or Cox at San Francisco. But it is also pointed out that issues and conditions govern this contest which were completely lacking in other conventions—religion and Ku Klux Klanism, wet and dry, the League of Nations and a score of lesser issues that spawn rigid beliefs and unyielding positions.

This belief in the destiny of a second choice—it amounts almost to conviction on the part of the many shrewd party prophets—constitutes the sole stock in hope of the Ralston managers, the John W. Davis Boosters, the Glass People, the Cummins crowd, the Copeland forces, every one, in fact, whose name has been drawn into this Democratic melting pot.

Their representatives and friends are already on the ground here. They ask the new arrival with obvious casualness concerning his predilections towards the leading triumvirate, and then almost beat their first question with their second:

"And who is your second choice?"

The McAdoo managers, led by Judge David Ladd Rockwell, and the Smith Managers, whose spokesman is Franklin D. Roosevelt, are apprehensively cognizant of this situation.

Pre-Convention activities began to pick up today. Governor Smith took personal charge of his headquarters in Madison Avenue and greeted newcomers.

Tomorrow McAdoo headquarters in the Vandervilt Hotel will be taken over by McAdoo in person. He will be accorded a demonstration upon his arrival here from Los Angeles.

MRS. J. L. CONKLIN DIES

Mrs. J. L. Conklin, a respected and long-time resident of the Third Ward, passed away at the Rowles hospital about 11 o'clock last evening after an illness of long continued duration.

Funeral notice tomorrow.

Mrs. John F. Leitzinger, of East Market street, is recovering at her home from a badly sprained ankle or wrenched ligaments, received when she made a misstep in the yard at her home on Thursday last.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chase has returned from Ann Arbor, Mich., where she attended the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. Her daughter, Miss Mary Chase, received her bachelor's degree from the Literary College of the University.

FRANCE'S PROBLEMS EASY TO SOLVE, SAYS PRESIDENT HERRIOT

By FRANK E. MASON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Paris, June 17—"France nourishes no dangerous ambition, but aspires only to obtain payment of reparations and guarantees for security which were solemnly promised to her," said President Doumergue in his first message to Parliament this afternoon.

The mesage on Government policy was read simultaneously in the Chamber of Deputies and Senate shortly after 3 o'clock.

"France's problem would be easy to solve," continued the President, "if there were a pure atmosphere of peace everywhere. It is not France's fault that conditions are what they are."

President Doumergue praised the Dawes Reparation plan saying:

"Since the international experts' Reparation report has been prepared, the reparations question seems to be on the road to a solution The debtor however must prove his good faith by precise acts, not by simple agreements."

President Doumergue, in conclusion said "France cannot give up right for supervision of the vanquished enemy, who seems to be preparing revenge."

Following the presidential message, Premier Herriot read the new cabinet's declaration of policy.

BIG AMERICAN 'PEEG' DOWNS 'SPIC' CHAMP

New York, June 17 (INS.)—Andreas Balsa, Champion heavyweight of Spain, won't do—he will never fight Jack Dempsey. Upon that all experts today were agreed.

Balsa, a bull necked, heavy bodied individual, was given his first chance here last night to show what he could do against American fighters. He was pitted agains the fast, clean cut Iowa heavyweight, Floyd Johnson. He was beaten almost to a pulp, beaten so badly, in fact, that the referee stopped the bout in the third round.

It was a sickening, bloody battle. Balsa, with his arms wrapped about his chin, and crouching like a wrestler that he is said to be, rushed at Johnson when the bell sounded for the opening round. Johnson put out his left, stopped the onrushing Spaniard and then let fly with a terrific right uppercut. Balsa careened against the ropes and blood poured from his nose.

Spank! went Johnson's fist into Balsa's face as the fight progressed. It was spank blood. Spank blood. Spank, Blood. Balsa was a novic, game but untutored. Johnson kept standing back and smashing him.

Blood was all over the ring, all over Balsa's face and smeared across Johnson's body as a result of clinching with the blindly battling Balsa.

In the second round Johnson hit Balsa so often and so hard he was fagged when the gong rang.

Johnson started to slaughter Balsa in the third. He belted him time and again, finally opening a deep gash over the left eyebrow. Blood spurted out

"Stot it!" cried the six thousand spectators. Referee Tommy Sheridan did.

Money Available For Rockview Construction

Harrisburg, June 17. (INS.)—The $300,000 appropriated by the 1921 legislature is available for use in construction of the western penitentiary at Rockview, the attorney general's office declared in an opinion today. The opinion is contrary to the belief of Auditor General S. S. Lewis who some time ago said the money was not available.

The decision hinged on one of names. The legislature appropriated the money for the board of inspectors, which was abolished by the administrative code. The opinion holds that the money is available to the board of trustees—the new ruling body provided for by the code.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffot, Mrs. Bouch, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Merrits, of Altoona spent Saturday with Mrs. G. W. Thomas South 4th street.

LT. MAUGHAN READY FOR THIRD CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHT

Mitchell Fiedl, New York, June 17. (INS.)—Lieut. Russel L. Maughan and the fastest airplane in the world were ready today for the third attempt on a "dawn to dusk" flight across the United States. Two previous efforts by Maughan failed, but with a much faster ship improved in many details from experiences of the two failures, he was confident he would reach San Francisco 17½ hours after the hop off from Mitchell field.

The start may be made at 4 o'clock New York daylight saving time tomorrow, but indications were the flight would not get under way until Thursday morning. Maughan is awaiting for word from four mechanics who left Friday for the immediate landfields where the stops will be made to re-fuel.

The schedule calls for 15½ hours flying time and an hour and 20 minutes for stops on the 2,606 mile flight.

The first stop will be at Dayton, Ohio, 570 miles from New York flying field. The second stop will be at St. Joseph, Mo., another hop of 570 miles. Cheyenne, Wyo., will be the third stop a hop of 490 miles, and Salduro, Utah, a 480-mile leap, the last stop before San Francisco. He expects to cover the first two laps in 2½ hours flying time and the last three in 3½ hours each.

The plane, an army pursuit ship, has a maximum speed of 170 miles an hour and Lieutenant Maughan said today he expected to make an average of 163 miles an hour.

His first flight ended at Rock Springs, Wyo., about a year ago, and the second last July was halted at St. Joseph, Mo., by engine trouble.

New York, June 17. (INS.)—If atmospheric conditions are favorable—and it doesn't rain—Lieut. Russel L. Maughan, army flier, will attempt his dawn to dusk trans-continental airplane flight next Thursday, he said today.

Maughan plans to start at 3:22 a. m., daylight saving time, in an army pursuit plane and to reach San Francisco inside of 17 hours, maintaining an average speed of 160 miles an hour.

BIDS FOR 40 MILES OF ROAD ARE OPENED

Harrisburg, June 16.—Action to make available for road construction part of the proceeds of the $50,000,000 highway bond issue approved by the voters last November was announced today by Governor Pinchot. The governor, in letters to Auditor General Lewis and State Treasurer Snyder, proposed the issuance of $15,000,000 in bonds, to bear 4¼ per cent interest, payable semi-annually, with the exception that the first payment would be for one year and before May 1, 1925. The governor proposed that the sale of onds be held July 22.

The governor recommended the bonds be advertised in daily newspapers in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New York City, Harrisburg, Scranton and Erie, all to be chosen by the auditor general.

The $15,000,000 from the first sale would not be needed until August 1 of this year, it was announced, Federal aid payment and funds from the first program to that date. For replacement, the motor license fund is being used.

Huckleberries May Be Plenty This Year

Lansford, June 17 (United Press.) This will be a fine year for huckelberries, which usually abound in this region, according to information received lately from the mountains. Heavy rains were reported to have helped the berries along and incidentally helped the inhabitants to their well earned receipts for picking them. Forest fires have not been serious enough to destroy the supply this year and between now and July thousands of women and children will be active gathering the berries.

Rev. and Mrs. Granger and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Way, of Williamsport, are visiting at D. Gardlock's at Curwensville.

5 BANDITS HOLD UP STREET CAR; ROB PAY MASTER OF RUSSELL COAL CO., CLYMER, OF $28,000, SEMI-MONTHLY PAYROLL

Punxsutawney, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Police from every county in northwestern Pennsylvania this afternoon are searching for the band of five bandits who held up Alec Caldwell, of the Russell Coal Company of Clymer, Pa., today and escaped with $28,000 in cash being brought to Clymer for the semi-monthly pay.

Caldwell and George Askey, a guard, were bringing the payroll from the bank at Indiana, Pa., to Clymer on an interurban car when the five robbers boarded the car six miles from Indiana. A few minutes after they had placed themselves in different parts of the car, the men pulled revolvers at a signal and held up the few passengers and the coal company employes.

Caldwell said the men looked like Italians and probably were former employes at the company's mines.

Grabbing the money, the men jumped from the car and disappeared in the woods.

No trace of them has been found.

Another registered mail pouch also carried on the car was reported stolen, but the contents of this pouch have not been determined.

Padlock Injunctions In State Courts Are Urged

Washington, June 17 (INS.)—"Padlock" injunction suits in state as well as Federal courts to enforce the liquor laws will be employed through efforts of the Federal Prohibition unit, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes announced today.

Haynes said that briefs of law on the right to file injunction suits in the state courts aore being distributed to prosecuting attorneys in every state. Use of injunctions will take cases before judges instead of juries and therefore save time.

LOST LIFE WHEN HOME BURNED

Charleston, W. Va., June 15 (INS.)—Bennie Ehman, 18, son of Henry Ehman, prominent farmer, was burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Ehman home here today.

The youth was trapped when he went back into the blazing house from which the family had fled to get a wrap for his mother, who was thinly clad. The charred body was recovered several hours later.

OSCEOLA MAN HAS SKULL FRACTURE

Norman O'Brien, 20 years old, of Osceola Mills, suffered a possible fracture of the skull late Sunday afternoon when his automobile was struck by a Tyrone street car near Washington avenue and First street, Tyrone.

He was taken into Tyrone by a passing motorist and was later removed to the Altoona hospital where he was admitted and X-ray pictures of his injuries taken. His condition is reported to be fairly good.

According to the report of Motorman Mays, who operated the street car, O'Briren had backed his automobile directly into the path of the street car, O'Brien had backed his automocar was almost abreast of the automobile.

Three New Witnesses Testify At Ebensburg

Eensburg, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Three new witnesses—two of them women—were injected today into the trial of William Monahan, Lilly, Pa., resident indicted on murder charges in conneceion with the fighting between Lilly men and Ku Klux Klansmen at Lilly during a klan demonstration there.

Esther Hanna and her sister Anna, young Lilly women, told how they were attarked by unmasked men after cheering the marching klansmen, and the yonuger girl, Anna, said she had received a broken ankle in the melee.

Formal testimony was offered mainly at today's court session, most of it being a recounting of previous testimony at the trial of Samuel Evans, a klansman who was acquitted of the murder charges in connection with three deaths during the riroting.

Rev. Alban, wife and daughter attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Thomas, Saturday, June 14.

SEEKING ALLEGED SLAYER OF BRIDE

Milwaukee, June 17. (INS.)—While George Cummings, who is sought in connection with the slaying of his bride of a week in the tourist camp at Wittenberg, was endeavoring to reach the Canadian border today, radio messages giving the most minute description of the man and pleading with authorities to "get him dead or alive" were being broadcast hourly from Minneapolis and Stevens Point, Wis.

And while the net to capture Cummings was being spread, the body of the vain, romantic woman of 62, who bobbed her hair and said she was 39, was prepared for shipment to her middle aged daughter, in Grand Rapids.

All last night, investigators combed and recombed the tourists camping grounds for additional clues which might lead to the solution of one of Wisconsin's strangest crimes. Near the place where the body of the woman lay, murdered some time Sunday, were also discovered her raincoat and other articles of feminine apparel.

The body was not in an actual grave. It had been pressed into a muddy ditch after being wrapped in a robe and army blanket. Stout cords bound it, in a sitting, cramped position.

No trace has been found of the 39-year-old husband who married the 62-year-old woman. Since he had a complete camping outfit with plenty of supplies, it is believed he will long remain in hiding. It is even believed that he will remain in the northern Wisconsin woods for several months until the "hysteria" dies down before making his dash for the Canadian border.

The "Elusive Lamb" Follows Mary Again

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 17 (INS.)—Thomas Lamb, with a record of many escapes from police stations and arresting officers, slipped thru a cordon of police at Center avenue, police station here today just before he was called for a hearing on a charge of larceny, and despite the efforts of the entire city police and detective forces, there is no single clue to his whereabouts.

The escaped prisoner who is known as "the elusive Lamb", was arrested at Steubenville, O., his alleged home yesterday, and brought here last night by City detective James Hoey. When arrested at Steubenville, Lamb broke away from the arresting officer, and ran two blocks for liberty before a pedestrian stopped him.

He was turned over to Detective headquarters last night, strapped to a chair and guarded by three men. Later in the night he was taken to the Center Ave., station, but is believed to have walked out of the cell room when drunken prisoners were arraigned this morning.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Orcutt have announced the marriage of their daughter, Nathalia Ernestine, to Charles B. Davis, Jr., of Danville, Pa., on May 12. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home in Danville after July 1.

COUNCIL HELPS TO MAKE CLEARFIELD BUSIEST OF TOWNS

Three Street Paving Projects Are Under Way; Sewers and River Wall Ordered Built.

WANT SIDEWALKS

There is more building and general improvement, both private and public, under way in Clearfield at the present time than in any other town anyway near our size in central or western Pennsyvania. The borough council, judging by the reports of its officers and the action taken at last evening's meeting, is going to continue its full share of improving for all summer long.

Chairman Beahan of the highway committee reported Cherry street paving about completed and that the work of paving Front street would be taken up tomorrow. He also recommended that Locust street be paved from Third to Fourth and council directed that an ordinance be prepared providing for this work.

Chairman Adams of the sewer committee announced that he was ready to start his sewer building crew on the big 24-inch surface water sewer on Market street and recommended the re-laying of Walnut street sewer between Third and Fourth.

Bids were also opened for the building of the stone retaining wall along the river bank from Walnut street south, a distance of 800 feet or as much of that as could be provided for this year, at least half the distance. This work will be under the personal direction of President of Council Rosser.

Much General Improvement.

In addition to these new construction propositions, much general repairs and improvements are also being made by Street Commissioner Graham under the direction of the highway department. These projects were touched upon in the report of Engineer Hess, who reported much activity in sidewalk building throughout the town, induced by council's campaign, with Councilman Poorman in charge, to compel the building of sidewalk wherever the need for same exists.

New Walks Asked For.

Notices to build sidewalks were ordered served on the following property owners:

Bigler avenue:—Charles Canlian, James Pellente, Joe Marino, John Sample, Lawrence Holt, Joe Cologi, Tony Cassamenta, John Molic, Walter Welch, Frank Vreviana, Harry Nearhood, John Mudoskey, Guy Resanic, Joseph Ortassic, Charles Gardner.

West Third avenue:—E. Russell Williams, Ed. L. Shirey.

South Second street:—Cecil F. Wilson, W. L. Dethloff.

Witmer street:—John M. Bain.

Want Route Changed.

The State Highway Department asked permission to paint telephone poles through the town to denote Lakes-to-the-Sea highway route and permission was given. The Highway Department was notified that council would like to have the highway routed down Cherry from Second to Third, now that that block has been concreted, as such a change would do away with traffic congestion at the corner of Second and Market and Market and Third streets, and be a most decided advantage.

Recommend Annexation.

Chairman McKee, of the committee to report on proposed annexation to the borough of several blocks of lots adjoining the Fargo and Thompson properties on Turnpike avenue, made a report and recommended that the property be annexed to the borough. This well be done at next meeting of Council.

West Third Avenue Sewer.

Alex Black presented petition of property owners asking for a sanitary sewer on West Third avenue. The matter of sewer extension permits was discussed and Borough Solicitor Urey directed to take the matter up with State Health Commissioner by telephone in order to get some action, as permit for Linden street sewer, asked for more than one year ago, has never been acted upon.

Want Licenses Collected.

Chairman Gulich of Finance Committee reported that licenses for jitney and other passenger carrying buses operating in town had not been collected as provided for and the burgess was directed to proceed at once with such collection.

STATE HEALTH CAMP AT MONT ALTO OPENS MONDAY, JUNE 23D

Public Health Workers From Every County In State Will Be Among Those Present.

IT IS EDUCATIONAL

Harrisburg, June 17.—Three hundred public health workers, representing every county in the state, will attend the annual health camp conducted under the auspices of the state health department which will open at the Mont Alto Sanitarium next Monday morning. County medical inspectors, health officers, memebrs of boards of health, nurses and lay health workers will be included in the delegation that will attend this years's camp.

Speakers of national and state wide reputation—authorities upon tuberculosis, sanitation and child health measures—will school the 300 delegates to the camp in the task of safeguarding the health of the people of their county. Every phase of health activity will be discussed during the stay of the health workers at the camp with particular stress being placed upon tuberculosis prevention, protection of the health of children and the county health administration.

Dr. Charles H. Miner, secretary of health, will be in charge of the camp and he will place before the assembled health workers plans of the department for legislative changes in the present field health activities of the state.

A small tented city has already been erected at Mont Alto to house the invading army of health workers. An entire week will be devoted to the task of better fitting the health workers in the tasks allotted to them. Two camps, each of three days' duration, will be conducted The first camp, attended by 150 health workers will open on Monday, June 23 and will close two days later. The second detachment of the health workers will then arrive and the early work program will be repeated for their benefit.

One of the features of the health camp will be practical clinics conducted by experts that will serve to demonstrate to the health officers certain lessons in the care of the public health. The clinics for the most part will be conducted in the afternoons with the mornings and evenings being devoted to speeches, lectures and motion picture demonstrations.

Governor Pinchot will address the health camp on June 25. The outstanding speaker at the camp will be Dr. John H. Ferrell, director of the United States Rockefeller Foundation. Dr. Wilmer Krusen, director of health in Philadelphia; Dr. A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Hand, of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Stengel, of Philadelphia; Dr. Samuel Haythorn, of the University of Pittsburgh; Dr. George Norris, of Philadelphia; a representative of State College; Dr. H. T. Price, professor of pediatrics at the University of Pittsburgh and a number of other medical experts are included in the list of speakers.

In addition, the members of the state health department staff will participate in the week's program. The progress made in the betterment of health conditions in the state will be presented in a series of charts and tables prepared by Dr. Wilmer B[illegible], chief of the statistical bureau of the state department of health.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Punxsutawney—Walter Bird, 18 who had a splinter of a bone removed from his heart at the Adrain Hospital is said to have a good chance to recover, by hospital authorities today. Bird fell, and the revolver he was said to have been carrying was discharged the bullet entering his left breast driving a piece of bone into his heart. He was operated on yesterday.

Erie—Morgan Caryl, 12, is in the St. Vincent Hospital here today in a serious condition having been accidentally shot at a picnic, through a lung.

Pittsburgh—Thomas Savers, 48, a Spanish war veteran and partially blind is in the AlleghenyGeneral Hospital today suffering from heat prostration, the first of its kind this year in Pittsburgh. Sayers collapsed yesterday enroute to a bank.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Mrs Marie Soudern, taken into custody by police last night in connection with the finding of the body of a three year old boy in a suit case here recently which was identified as that of her son, was released today when she produced her son, alive and well.

Fernwood—Joseph Vance, of Philadelphia, was near death today from injuries suffered when a Gulf Refining Company Gasoline filling station tank exploded here. He was making an inspection on the lower levels of the station when the explosion occurred.

Philadelphia income tax returns for the second quarter in 23 counties of Pennsylvania amounted to $18,000,000 Collector of Internal Revenue McCaughan announced today.

Mauch Chunk—Three boys were injured and an automobile was completely wrecked when it rolled over a bank on the Pocono Mountain here early today. Frank Binder, driver of the car, was the only one seriously hurt.

Chambersburg, Pa., June 17 (INS.)—When his car plunged 10 feet down the side of McConnellsburg Mountain, S. Marshall Jackson, a Fulton county farmer, was instantly killed. His daughter, Margaret and two school mates, Gladys Walter and Lulu Fletcher, escaped with minor injuries. Jackson was taking the girls to the Shippensburg State Normal for Commencement exercises.

Harrisburg, Pa.—A Coroner's inquest to formally fix the cause of Mrs Manbeck's death, an attractive widow, found dead in the office of Dr. C. M. Dadley, prominent physician on June 1, when the doctor himself was shot through the shoulder. He has been charged with the woman's murder.

Lancaster—A panic was narrowly averted here last night when the floor of an auditorium collapsed while 400 men and women were attending a meeting. The people filed out and the meeting was continued in a nearby grove.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Forty persons narrowly escaped serious injury and traffic was tied up for several hours when a car attached to a south-bound train on the New York Philadelphia and Norfolk division of the Pensylvania railroad was derailed in a tunnel west of here today.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Nelly, a little black and white dog, the pet of Billy Link, early today saved thousands of dollars worth of property here from almost certain destruction by fire.

The dog awakened his master who followed the animal to a spot where a small blaze had started. Close by was a large building in which turpentine and other highly inflammable material was stored.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

A regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of Mrs. Baumgardner on Friday evening. Meeting was led by Mrs. Runk, who distributed small flags in honor of Flag Day. Meeting opened with singing. Quotations from Scripture were read by the members, after which the Lord's Prayer was said in unison.

A letter on Enforcement, from Mrs. Marion was read by the President, and one by Mrs. Chorpening, from the County Secretary, thanking her for flowers sent.

A poem, "The Flag", including 1812, 1845, 1861, 1898, evidently written before the late War, was read by Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Hile read some excerpts from arguments presented by State President Mrs. George at the Beer Bill hearing. She said among many things, "We heard the cry of the children, who were only half fed and half clothed. We heard the cry of the mothers who were suffering untold anguish because husbands were exercising their so-called 'personal liberty' by trampling on the rights of their families by carrying most of their earnings to saloons."

"Make Our Home Town Dry," was read by Mrs. Edmiston, the author asking the question, "Won't You Work for Law Enforcement to Make Your Home Town Dry?" Then more pathetically exclaiming—"You are your brother's keeper," etc.

Articles of interest by Mrs. Upton St. Clair, and Mrs. Catherine Davis were read by Mrs. Runk.

Mrs. Smith read testimony from the Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers who said, among other things, that ten years before the church began fighting liquor, the necessity of it was seen, to safely run the trains, that liquor drinking by employees must cease; and steps were taken in that direction.

During the social time excellent refreshments were served, and during discussion of the habits of the girls of this favored land, much wonder and regret was expressed at the too common habits of cigarette-smoking and drinking.

The July meeting will be a picnic, at which all members are requested to be present.

OFF FOR CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stine and two daughters left today for Sacramento, California, where they will spend the coming eight or nine weeks visiting relatives. SHEETROCK

The FIREPROOF WALLBOARD

US

You can build solid, permanent walls and ceilings at low cost with Sheetrock, the different wallboard.

Sheetrock is made of pure gypsum, and its use assures dense, durable walls of exceptional quality. It is fireproof, non-warping—takes any form of wall decoration.

Sheetrock is extensively used in homes for new walls and ceilings. It withstands years of wear and tear. Its moderate cost and excellent quality make it standard wall material for the modern dwelling.

Sheetrock also lends itself admirably to alterations and remodeling. Its broad, standard size sheets—⅜-inch thick—are quickly and easily erected. It saws and nails like lumber. Once in place, Sheetrock is up to stay, and its life is as long as the building itself.

Come in and let us show you what Sheetrock is, how it differs from ordinary wallboard, and how it may be used in new construction or alterations.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Children between the ages of four and thirteen, both girls and boys, grow faster and better during August and the following three months than any other period of the year, according to results of careful study into the question of child nutrition by the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Boys make 55.3 per cent. and girls 59.8 per cent. of the total yearly growth between Aug. 1 and Dec. 1. The period of maximum gain is in the late summer and early fall, and the period of minimum advancement falls in the late spring and early summer.

While the same tendency holds for both boys and girls, it is most marked among the girls.

The Results Tabulated

	Boys		Girls
Months	Av. Gain in lbs	% of Annual Gain	Av. Gain in lbs	% of Annual Gain
Jan	.67	9.9	.53	8.3
Feb.	.51	7.6	.43	6.7
March	.43	6.4	.36	5.6
April	.43	6.4	.34	5.3
May	.25	3.7	—.05	*—.8
June	.06	.9	.08	1.3
July	.26	3.9	.35	5.4
Aug.	.89	13.2	.79	12.3
Sept.	1.01	15.0	1.06	16.6
Oct.	1.00	14.8	1.00	15.6
Nov.	.83	12.3	.99	15.3
Dec.	.51	7.6	.53	8.4
Total yearly	6.71	100.	6.41	100.
Avg monthly	.55	8.3	.53	8.3

*In May the girls showed an average loss of .05 pounds. This is equivalent to 0.8% of the total gain.

The report says:

"The rate of growth in both height and weight over a given period of time is quite as important, in judging a child's state of development, as his attained stature and weight at any given period. Physicians, teachers, school nurses, and nutrition workers must rely on the gains made during short periods of from three to six months to determine whether the child is doing well, for obviously all healthy children must be expected to gain steadily in both height and weight.

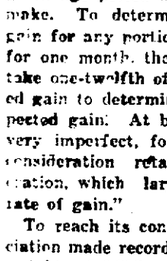
1,000 Children Tested

"The usual procedure has been to assume that the difference between the average height and weight of children of any age group and the average height and weight of children of the next group indicates the rate of gain which all children within the given age period may be expected to make. To determine the expected gain for any portion of the year, say for one month, the procedure is to take one-twelfth of the annual expected gain to determine the monthly expected gain. At best this method is very imperfect, for it leaves out of consideration retardation and acceleration, which largely determine the rate of gain."

To reach its conclusions the association made records of the successive weights of 1,000 children. This study is one of a series being carried on with funds given the association for the purpose of providing the basis of more effective public health and relief work by filling in the gaps in existing basic information. Whether climatic conditions affect this seasonal variation in growth is soon to be determined.

FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Mrs. Bradford Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound



Phoebus, Virginia.—"Having this opportunity I just cannot refrain from saying a word of praise for the Lydia E. Pinkham medicines. I have used them as occasion required for twenty years, and my three sisters have also used them, and always with the most gratifying results. During the Change of Life I had the usual distressing symptoms—hot flashes, insomnia, etc.,—and I am pleased to testify to the wonderful results I obtained from the Vegetable Compound. I heartily recommend it to any woman and I will be pleased to answer any inquiries that might be sent to me through the publication of my testimonial."—Mrs. H. L. BRADFORD, 169 Armistead Street, Phoebus, Virginia.

Consider carefully Mrs. Bradford's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She mentions the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, or if other annoying symptoms appear and you are blue at times, you should give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

How Jewfish Got Name

It is said that the largest ever caught in the Gulf of Mexico was five feet long, eight feet in circumference just back of the gills, and weighed 348 pounds. The principle jewfish is somewhat rare. The only explanation ever given by Dampier in his "Voyages," written in 1729. He wrote: "This fish is a very good fish, and is called by the English because it has scales and fins, therefore is reckoned by the Levitical law."

Mollusk Does Harm

A small mollusk known as a gribble has been reported to have caused extensive injury to the brickwork at the entrance to one of the dry docks at Calcutta. The creature eats its way into the bricks where the surface glaze has been destroyed. In this particular case they were destroyed after having penetrated to about half an inch, but scientists believe that except for that they would have destroyed all the brickwork.

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:

After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation . . . for more than twenty years . . . after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a specific for constipation.

. . . I deem it only justice that you should know what your product has done for me, and what it is able of doing for others."

The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestines in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.

If eaten regularly Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and krumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.

For those long summer runs

LONG non-stop runs subject the oil in your crank-case to a terrific punishment—a constant battering at high motor temperature. Low-heat-resisting oils change their physical characteristics under such conditions; they lose their "body"—their capacity to maintain a separating film between the friction surfaces of bearings, cylinders and pistons.

You know what that means!

Put your motor under the protection of high-heat-resisting Atlantic Motor Oil. It has the highest resistance to heat, pressure and impact—the greatest body-holding capacity—of any line of motor oils that has ever come from the Atlantic refineries.

Atlantic dealers have a chart carrying The Atlantic Refining Company's official recommendations as to the correct type of oil for your car or truck—Atlantic Medium, Heavy, Special Heavy or Polarine.

THE CANCER CURE

Hope was stirred in millions of despairing hearts when it was first announced that a Canadian physician had isolated the "cancer germ" and had developed a serum with which many cures had been made. The account of his work, published in a Philadelphia newspaper, has been challenged. It is said that the Journal of the American Medical Association in 1921 told of the investigation of an alleged cancer cure, claimed by a physician of the same name, and the conclusion that there was no value in it.

American physicians doubt whether any progress has been made since along the line in question. Dr. James Ewing of the Cornell Laboratory, New York City, addressing a group of the American Medical Association, says:

"Cancer is not a germ disease, and so a serum treatment would be worthless. The effective treatment of cancer is accomplished by surgery, the X-ray and radium in combination."

The public may safely take the word of the medical profession on this point until absolutely convincing evidence is shown to the contrary. Much progress has been made in cancer treatment along the lines mentioned, in recent years, and it is definitely stated by reputable physicians that most cases of cancer are curable by the knife, radium or X-ray if recognized and taken in time.

The thing for a patient to do in any case of suspicion is to go to his family physician and take that physician's advice. The medical profession is doubtless "getting warm" in its search for the basic cause of cancer, and sooner or later will announce it, and adopt preventive as well as remedial measures, but it will not do to anticipate that time with false hopes.

"MORAL INSANITY"

The defense of two bright young murderers in Chicago is to be "moral insanity". That is an interesting variation.

The boys evidently knew exactly what they were doing, planning it long in advance, carefully rehearsing their program and carrying it out with incredible coolness and precision. And during the whole period preceding and following the actual deed, they seem to have gone through all their normal activities, college work, family and social life, etc., without any evidence of mental or emotional aberration.

The defense will insist that this very fact proves the boys did not know right from wrong. Their brains may have been clear but their moral sense was not. Wherefore, it will be argued, they should not be punished for murder but merely be placed in some corrective institution.

This is a plausible theory. The boys' moral sense was certainly very dull. But a moralist, if not a lawyer, will want to ask how it happened to be so—whether the conscience of these lads was dull from birth, or whether they made it dull by deliberate, long-continued acts of selfish indulgence and brutality, steadily increasing in wickedness. Also whether, if escaping the gallows and going to some public institution, they will be released as morally "cured" after a year or two, to continue their experiments in sin.

"I BEQUEATH—"

ABOUT THIS TIME O' YEAR!

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL STAGE PICNIC

The Clearfield Commercial Club met last evening with Mine Host Jordan and a livey meeting was staged from the first rap of President Shillingford's impromptu gavel.

Following the committee reports it was decided to have a picnic to which the wives, sisters, daughters and friends of the members would be invited. The time, place and other details were put up to the entertainment committee.

It was decided to accept the invitation of the Rotary Club to meet with them in the near future to hear Supt. A. K. Johnson, of the Tyrone Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad who will speak on railroad matters pertaining to this region.

Three new members were elected to membership in the club, Albert F. Scheutte, manager of the A. W. Leonardson Co., Ralph A. Hunter, owner of the drug store formerly operated by Woodward & McPherson and Frank "Passy" Passmore, proprietor of the Leonard House.

Mr McGarry, Manager of the Dimeling Hotel, gave the club some interesting information relative to the amount of travel which will pass thru this city on the Lakes-toSea Highway, stating that he already had reservations booked far into the summer by tourists who would make Clearfield their over-night stopping place. And in this connection, the Publicity Committee of the Club has arranged to send to each one of these parties a list of the industries, the fraternal organizations and their meeting nights, the churches and the locations thereof so that these people passing thru our city will know that we are a friendly city and are glad to have the folks here.

Rev. A. Roy Hauser, pastor of the Lutheran church, gave the club a stirring talk on the example set by the older men for the younger generation and pleaded that the members of the club set such an honorable example for the youth of this city that the influences growing out of such examples would be for the betterment of the rising generation.

Antonio Moreno Gorman, newly elected Sargeant at arms was duly inducted into office with fitting ceremonies after which the club adjourned.

"OLD TIMER" HOME AGAIN

Dave Adams, an old-time Clearfield boy, who has been located at Los Angeles, California, for several years, but who first shook the dust of old Clearfield from his brogans nearly 20 years ago, is back home on a visit to his brothers Tommy and Bill and other relatives in this section.

Time has dealt gently with Dave and Dame Fortune also patted his head as she tilted her famous cornucopia of plenty and he is both looking and has a right to feel prosperous. He is being kept quite busy greeting old time friends and is enjoying his visit.

Dave has the Pacific coast perspective and before he had got through telling us how much improved and how much he enjoyed coming back to Clearfield, he was telling us just how much Los Angeles had increased since he went there and how much bigger his home city was than her rival San Francisco.

He also told us, and gloried in the telling, that he had helped carry California for Wilson in 1916, but cautioned us against telling brother Tommy about it until after he left Clearfield and was at least six miles away on his return journey. We promised.

WHERE SCIENCE STOPS

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"Science finds cancer germ!"

This is the startling news published last week in the newspapers.

One by one the strongholds of disease are being broken down.

The outlook for long life and happiness ought to grow better and better It won't be long before the last of the deadly diseases will be conquered by men of science and only the phenomenon of old age will baffle us. Even that secret, the scientists are claiming to have solved, and one investigator after another offers his rule for the prolongation of life.

And yet, though we baffle the enemies which attack our bodies, we cannot discover the magic serum of peace and happiness.

Wise men have failed to teach us that it is small gain to vanquish the enemies of disease, if we nurture the still more devastating enemies of greed and hatred and selfishness.

Finding the deadly cancer germ and learning the secret of vanquishing it spares a few lives from horrible suffering and lengthens the average span of life by just that much. But as long as hatieds thrive and wars threaten, the world moves but imperceptibly forward.

True enough, the scentists have done their bit. Small-pox and diphtheria and typhoid fever, and malaria, and now even diabetes were thought incurable have been mastered. Scientists even talk of a cure for that ages-old scourge of leprosy.

The riches of life seem to grow yearly better, but the chance for happiness and security somehow fail to increase proportionately.

The trouble for that is beyond the reach of doctors.

Perhaps it is instead, a job for mothers whose business it is to teach their children honesty and fair play, generosity and unselfishness.

Even with the ravages of cancer stopped, with tuberculosis almost conquered by the healing rays of the sun, with every lurking streptococci germ traced to its source of supply in some broken down tonsil or decrepit tooth, the human race only muddles along achieving little solid increase in happiness, except to the insurance companies, who like to see the life span lengthen.

But what boots it to live longer, if we may not live more happily?

It won't be long now before the last of the dread disease germs will have been isolated and conquered by the scientists.

But that won't help the human race such a lot, as long as no one isolates the selfishness germ, and finds a cure for national greed and ancient hatreds

In the Courts

While enroute to their stations at DuBois and Ridgway early Sunday morning, Corporals Barker and Pierce of the state police are said to have encountered Charles Lansberry, of Curwensville, in a car about the Drauckker's woods section, under the influence of liquor.

Lansberry was arrested by the state police and held in $1,000 bail for violation of the motor law by driving a car while intoxicated. Lansberry denies the charge and furnished the required bail for court.

Law and orderly proceedure must maintain even over in Huston township, where a factional quarrel has divided the school board into two warring factions. Several weeks ago the dominant faction on the board sought to ignore the election laws of the state, which provide for the election of certain officers, and decided to appoint one of their friends as collector of school taxes regardless of the fact that John Horning, one of the township's most substantial citizens, had been elected to the position, given the required bond and had acted most efficiently in the office for two years.

Mr. Horning got an injunction to restrain the "big three" on the school board from turning the duplicate over to their collector and Judge Chase fixed Monday morning for a hearing on the injunction application. It did not take long to convince the would-be law-makers of the error of their ways and all hands quickly agreed that Collector Horning under the law was entitled to and would receive the school tax duplicate for collection.

The hearing was then continued until July 21, at which time the matter of who is liable for the costs of the proceeding will be determined. Mr. Horning says he will not pay them, and contends that it is not an obligation of the taxpayers of the district but that the directors who sought to usurp his place are wholly to blame and should be made to pay the costs out of their own pocket.

Marriage Licenses

Sherman L. Horn and Hannah Harris, both of DuBois.

Howard F. Keefer and Elizabeth P. London, both of DuBois.

Jackson W. Wisner, Jr., of Baltimore, and Sadie Ida McKenzie, of Houtzdale.

Anthony Wazmak and Matilda Luluwitzky, both of Winburne.

Amos Bennehoof and Iva Crain, both of Clearfield.

Told of John Burroughs.

John Burroughs, the naturalist, was not interested in nature's larger aspects. Geysers and volcanoes bored him. His one exception was the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, which he called "the Divine Abyss." Despite his intentness on study when a boy, Burroughs was fond of girls and kept a systematic record of his engagements with them, writers on his life say.

Curwensville's Own Column

Mrs. Hurebrt Sharp, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Verne Wall, South Walnut street, for several weeks will return to her Philadelphia home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Robert McClure, Mrs. S. J. McKenrick and Mrs. Ed Moore are spending the week in Bellefonte with their neice, Mrs. J. L. Runkle.

The body of Alfred Borlin was brot to Curwensville yesterday from Jamestown, N. Y., where he died on Sunday. Undertaker Doverspike received the body and took it to Bloomington, where it will be interred this afternoon. He was a former resident of Glen Richey and conducted a butcher shop there at one time.

Word has been received by relatives announcing the marriage of Miss Pearl Borger, and her brother Pus Boroger, the ceremony being a double one. The marriages took place at Detroit, Mich., Rev. A. E. Gordon, a Methodist minister officiating. The lady was united with Willemore Stewart, of Nov Glasgow, Nova Scotia, and the brother to Genevieve Hansen of Milwaukee, Wis. The bridal pair are a brother and sister of Roy Borger of Curwensville.

Ai Mumma suffered a dislocated shoulder Sunday by falling from a high porch backwards.

Three cars met in a smashup on Bloomington hill Sunday night. None of the occupants, of which there were some half dozen, was injured to any extent, but two of the machines are good material for a junk pile.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams after a week's visit with relatives in [illegible] have returned to their New Bethlehem home.

Roy Strickland who moved to Curwensville about a year ago to take charge of a high-bred dog farm, will return to Curwensville shortly, he having had enough dog training to last him a life time.

Rolly Knepp is carrying his right arm in a sling all on account of having a hand underna car wheel. The hand and fingers were badly crushed and lacerated.

Guy Strickland, South Side, is nursing a smashed fore finger and it is not a very friendly pet at that.

Do not forget the fact that on next Friday evening the American Legion auxiliary will hold a carnival and dance in the Bartelle garage. There will be amusement and fun galore for everybody, to say nothing of the fine refreshments that are going to be on hand and dispensed at a small profit to the hungry. Proceeds for benefit of the Tablet Fund.

Funny, but true nevertheless, that no one has inaugurated a term of summer school in Curwensville this year. Usually some interested person in school affairs holds a private two or three week's session to better prepare the small student for advancement in the winter term. Perhaps it is because that people entertain an idea that a nine months term is sufficient for one year and the kiddies ought to have a few months of play and frolic. "All work and no play, makes Jack a dull boy."

STATE ORGANIZERS HERE

Edwin Charles and A. D. Miller, state organizers of the P. O. S. of A., were in Clearfield today on business in connection with their duties in this patriotic American order.

Mr. Charles is an old-time newspaper man, having been editor of the Middleburg (Pa.) Post for a number of years. He also served as register and recorder of Snyder county for two or three terms, and is a very genial gentleman. Both officials expressed themselves as being well pleased with the condition of the order in Clearfield county.

Camp "Cedar Pines" To Open June 26th

Camp "Cedar-Pines," the summer camp conducted by the Y. M. C. A. of Jersey Shore, Pa., is the open gate to the out-of-door life. The place for the boy and the girl to spend their vacation, living in the fresh air, near the woods, the creek and the fields. Place a boy and girl in this closeness to nature, among agreeable companions, good influence and under the care of capable leaders, and they will grow in body, mind and spirit.

This is the surrounding "Cedar-Pines" offers and upon which its success has been built during the past eight years. Careful attention is given to all activities of the boys and girls. This camp is an exclusive one where boys and girls are given individual attention.

Character training, combined with physical and mental developement is the chief aim of this popular camp.

The councilors at "Cedar-Pines" are keenly alive to their responsibilities for the safety and hapiness of the boys and girls entrusted to their care, and it is the kind of camp that parents may feel safe in sending their children to.

Every boy and girl has dreamed of the wonderful pleasures of camping and imagined living out under the blue skies by day and night sleeping under a coverlet of silent, twinkling stars. All have pictured the continuous moments of joy—hiking, cooking, breakfast, of the crackling fire—baseball, tennis, woodcraft, fishing, swimming, basketball, volleyball, minstrel, circus, stunt nights, camp emblem tests and swapping stories around the evening camp fire after dark.

A typical day's program at camp Cedar-Pines":

6:15	Reveille
6:50	Flag raising, setting-up exercises, morning dip.
7:30	Breakfast
7:45	Bungalows in order
7:50	Bungalow inspection
8:00	Bible study, morning assembly
8:30	Camp duties
9:15	Special institute groups
10:00	Sports, coached by leaders
10:45	Beginner's swimming lesson
11:00	Morning swim
1:00	Rest, letter writing, reading
2:00	Athletics, ball games, boating, hiking, etc.
4:15	Beginner's swim
4:30	Afternoon swim
6:00	Supper
7:00	Campus games, etc.
8:00	Camp fire, talks, special entertainments.
9:30	Tattoo
9:45	Taps, lights out, quiet

Every Day a Happy Day

There will be at least one hundred girls entering camp on Thursday, June 26, when the girl's camp begins. The girls' camp will continue for a period of three weeks. The boys' camp will open on July 24, and a capacity crowd is expected during this season which is the ninth consecutive season for this popular camp. Boys and girls were entered last season from five different states.

A camp booklet is issued and those interested may obtain one by communication with the Y. M. C. A. at Jersey Shore, Pa.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the sessions of this convention. It is becoming more and more apparent that it is of supreme importance to strongly support the greatest agency in modern times for the religious training of children and youth, and to keep our Sunday schools up to the highest standard.

Each one of the 19 schools of the district will elect two delegates. All pastors, Sunday school superintendents and teachers in the district are earnestly urged to be in attendance at the convention, as well as all Sunday school workers in the district.

Pastors and superintendents are requested to announce the convention and urge a large attendance from their respective congregation and schools.

Singing, conducted by H. L. Caldwell, will enliven all the sessions. Delegates will be entertained.

District No. 2 includes the Sunday schools of the following places: Curwensville, Grampian, Glen Richey, Lumber City, Pike township, and Penn Township.

PHILIPSBURG NOTES

The State Centre Game Fish and Forestry Association has been organized in Philipsburg, the object of which is to conserve the forests and streams and the wild life therein. Its purpose is to see that Centre and Clearfield counties get their allotment of fish and game from state and federal game reserves and hatcheries, and to see that the same is distributed in all sections of said counties where the association is represented.

Among other things the association is in favor of the hunter's license law; the dog law; of a state hatchery and game preserve for this section; the building of dams and lakes on our streams for the further protection of fish and game. The organization opposes the stocking of private waters and fisheries from publicly owned hatcheries with state owned fish, and to private hunting or fishing grounds where state game or fish is found. The members of the association promise to co-operate with the fire wardens to reduce the fire hazards.

The association is anxious to increase its membership and thereby aid in making hunting and fishing in this section more appealing and the streams and hunting grounds better places to spend their leisure hours. Applications for membership can be secured from A. G. Ericson, J. W. Beals, J. Frank Lephart, of Philipsburg, and Game Protector Wm. J. Davis, of Curwensville.

Philipsburg Children Lose Sight of Eye

Within the past four weeks three children residing in this section—two boys and a girl—through injuries have lost the sight of one of their eyes. The three were admitted to the Philipsburg State hospital, one having been struck in the eye from a burning coal from the stove; another received a blow in the eye from a stick while playing and the other received injuries during the explosion of a dynamite cap. The children, all youths, will now have to go through this world with a great handicap, but with the use of the other eye may be able to succeeed.

Died At Hospital Following Operation

Mrs. Joseph Graham, aged 40, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Chester Hill, passed away at the local State hospital following an operation for goitre. She had been admitted to the institution but 48 hrs. before, when her condition was critical. Her health had been failing for more than a year. Death relieved her of her sufferings early Friday morning.

CALUMET

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

Wholesome—Clean—Dependable

Wholesome—because it contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Food Authorities.

Clean—because it is manufactured in the most sanitary baking powder factories in the world, equipped with specially designed machinery to prevent exposure and contamination. The materials in it are untouched by human hands from the start to the finish in the sealed can.

Dependable—because every possible precaution known to Baking Powder scientists—the combined knowledge of a staff of Baking Powder experts—35 years of practical experience in the manufacture of Baking Powder—is used in our efforts to make its keeping qualities perfect.

Dependable—because Calumet is the Baking Powder that contains a small amount of dried white of egg—the ingredient that makes possible the "Water Glass Test." This test is a simple but important and positive method that enables you or anyone to easily prove that Calumet has preserved its remarkable leavening power.

Our salesmen frequently test the Calumet Baking Powder they find on the grocers' shelves to make sure that it is up to the Calumet standard. That's why it reaches you in the same perfect condition as it leaves the factory.

The test is not a comparative test of the strength of different kinds of Baking Powders. The "Water Glass Test" does not show the strength of a Baking Powder that does not contain white of egg. It does, however, show the superiority of Calumet in other respects.

The "Water Glass Test" furnishes a guarantee of reliability. It is Baking Powder Insurance.

Let us send you free a "Big Story in a Little Book," which describes the Water Glass Test.

Calumet Baking Powder is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every particular, and to be as represented in every respect.

Truly the elephant has been named "The Children's Favorite", and not only do the kiddies love the big hulks but the grown-ups feed them peanuts and admire them also. Three immense herds of elephants are carried by the HAGENBECK-WALLACE Circus, which will exhibit in Clearfield on Monday, June 23d. Besides performing in the arenas the elephants work around the lot, hauling wagons to and from the lot.

Original Water Heater

The first water heater known dates back some two thousand years. This was the "abenum" of the Romans, a crude bronze kettle with a handle for swinging over an open fire. The "foculus," an apparently later device, was a metal container into which hot stones were put to heat the water surrounding them. This seems to have been the best water heater the early Romans were able to devise.

Woman

If a man is in grief, who cheers him? In trouble, who consoles him? In wrath, who soothes him? In joy, who makes him doubly happy? In prosperity, who rejoices? In disgrace, who backs him against the world, and dresses with gentle unguents and warm poultices the rankling wounds made by the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune? Who, but woman, if you please.—William Makepeace Thackeray.

COMMUNISTS SHOW THIRD PARTY HEADS HOW TO RUN THINGS

By KENNETH CLARK

Convention Hall, St. Paul, June 17.—The bitter-show down fight that is brewing between the Communists and the more conservative Farm-Labor elements over the question of immediately forming a new independent third party was temporarily averted under an arrangement reached among the leaders shortly after the Farmers-Labor Progressive convention got break out openly on the floor at the off-set, the convention managers, by strategic movements, succeeded in having the fight referred again to committees, where the Communists are outranked.

Instead of permitting the battle to under way here today.

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

St. Paul, June 17.—A little band of ten men, all admitted dyed-in-the-wool Communists, today threatened to disrupt completely the Farmer-Labor-Progressive third party convention which met here in opening session.

Three days' work behind closed doors, during which the leaders of the new third party movement thought they had succeeded in curbing the Communists, the thorn in the side of this convention, was rendered virtually useless when the radical element, maneuvering for controlling position, pressed vigorously on the floor for full recognition and equal representation with all other groups in the meeting.

The Communists demanded not only official recognition of their party, but complete acceptance of their platform and plans for the immediate formation of a third party headed by an Independent ticket of candidates from which Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin, would be excluded.

Seldom has a political convention entered upon its work with such confusing problems and with so many cross currents of opinion.

With the single exception of routine organization not a major problem was settled when William Mahoney, temporary chairman, rapped the convention in order.

Until twelve hours ago it seemed that everything had been worked out satisfactorily. The program was to ignore the Communists in the make-up of the convention and then proceed immediately to endorse LaFollette for the Presidency, if he decides to run.

The leaders, confident that LaFollette's formal announcement was imminent, planned to have the convention to select an executive committee of 96 members two from each state, with power to confer endorsement of this Farmer-Labor group upon the militant Wisconsin progressive. Upon this committee the Communists demanded representation.

Then came the overnight change. Its suddenness was as dramatic as it was sensational.

Back of it all were the Communist delegates, ten men, five from the Workers party and five from the Federated Farmer-Labor party.

As the first step, the party managers, with Mahoney at the helm, receded from their previous stand to keep the Communists as a party organization out of the convention. It was first decided that they should come in as representatives of trade unions but not as members of the Communist party.

The Radicals, under the leadership of W. Z. Foster, C. E. Ruthenberg and Joseph Manley, claimed that when the call for the convention was sent out last November the Communists were included. So the managers relented, Mahoney announcing when the switch in plans was made that "it would be a breach of the Faith now not to admit the Communist party."

But this did not satisfy the Communists. They threatened even to balk the plans for the formation of the national executive committee of 96 members.

The Communists said flatly that they did not want any executive committee but demanded to proceed at once with the launching of an independent party with candidates of its own chosing and selection. This was aimed as a direct slap at LaFollette, who savagely attacked the Radicals in his recent letter to Herman Ekern, Attorney General of Wisconsin.

Mahoney and Lieutenants particularly Thomas Ayres, Farmer-Labor candidate for the senate in South Dakota and Walter Mills of the Farmer-Labor party of California, opposed the immediate formation of a third party, prefering first to perfect the State Famer-Labor parties and indorse LaFollette as the only step in national politics this year. They commanded a majority of the delegates, but even so their hands were tied by the Communists.

So completely, in fact, were Mahoney and his followers bound by the Communists that not a single committee was ready to report to the convention at the opening today, although all the major committees, platform, nominations and organization have been in almost constant session for three days.

Unless the Communists lines can be broken it seemed that the convention will be dragged out for the three day period that it was scheduled.

Though Mahoney claimed the largest following, the Communists went into the convention "holding the balance of power," for it was they, and they alone, who threatened to smash the plans that the party managers had so carefully laid, indorse LaFollette and deter the launching of a strongly centralized national third party of Farmers and Labors.

Want Col. Asher Miner To Head Disabled Vets

Wilkes Barre, June 17 (United Press)—The executive commitee of District No. 3, Disabled Veterans of the World War, comprising the states of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland, has decided to nominate General Ashur Miner, of Wilkes Barre for National Commander at their convention in Salt Lake City, starting June 23, Bernard Delinski, state commander anounced here

A strong fight will be made for Miner as it is felt that a man from the East should be the next national commander, Delinski said. General Miner, who was wounded overseas during the world war, has long been prominent in affairs of the Pennsylvania National Guard. He is thoroughly familiar with the needs of the disabled war veterans.

A strong delegation from Pennsylvania will attend the national convention at which many important questions relating to the welfare of disabled soldiers will come up.

VARICOSE VEINS ARE QUICKLY REDUCED

No sensible person will continue to suffer from dangerous swollen veins or bunches when the new powerful, yet harmless germicide called Emerald Oil can readily be obtained at any well stocked drug store.

Ask for a two-ounce original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse substitutes. Use as directed and in a few days improvement will be noticed, then continue until the swollen veins are reduced to normal. It is guaranteed and is so powerful that it also reduces enlarged glands, goitres and wens.

UNDER THE DOME OF THE CAPITOL

Harrisburg, Pa., June 17 (INS)—The State Board of Pardons will start its June session on Tuesday afternoon June 24, when Philadelphia cases will be heard, and the following day will hear the other cases listed for the last hearings prior to the summer recess of the Board.

Two hundred and seventy salary increases were shown on the June 15 payrolls submitted to the State Treasury by the Game, Highway, Agriculture, Insurance, Labor and Industry, and Forestry Departments, running the total number of employes who have been granted more money to approximately 1,000 for the month.

The State Highway Department has filed a complaint with the Public Service Commission against the Reading Company, Carrol township and York county, alleging the dangerous condition of a bridge on State Highway Route 123 between Harrisburg and asking the commission to order replacement of the bridge.

The State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy, now a home for delinquent girls, may become a state reformatory for women prisoners of all kinds from the central counties under a plan discussed by boards of the trustees with Dr. Ellen C. Potter, secretary of Welfare. Dr. Potter, who has been making a special study of the general conditions under which women prisoners are kept, is very favorable to the plan, declaring that such an institution is very much needed.

Forty superintendents of dependent and delinquent children's institutions in the state are attending the summer institute which opened today at Thorn Hill School, Allegheny County.

The conference which will continue until Thursday June 19, is designed to enable the various institution managers to acquaint themselves with approved methods of handling the children entrusted to their care. A permanent organization to be known as the Pennsylvania Association of Institutional Workers will be formed before the meetings end.

To formulate a definite policy for handling the crippled children of the state, a special committee appointed by the Welfare Department, will meet here June 23. Members of the committee include:—Mrs. William Jennings, Dr. C. G. Turnbull, Dr. Francis H. Maxfield, Mrs. Mary S. Lownes, F. E. Brooks of Harrisburg, Mrs. Robert Mackintosh and Miss Rita Lord Sculler of Philadelphia, Miss Aluda Winkelman of Pittsburg, A. H. Standish of Williamsport, Allen F. Smith of Allentown, and Dr. E. E. Shifferstine of Coaldale.

Under authority of the latest legislature, Dr. Potter has issued an order defining the type of mental patients which the various State hospitals for mental diseases may accept, and the territory each will serve. The hospitals affected are those at Danville, Fairview, Harrisburg, Norristown, Warren, Wernersville, and Torrance.

America's Early Years

The story of the first years of American history was first told by Peter Martyr, in "The New World." Martyr was an Italian historian who went to Spain in 1487, and entered the service of Queen Isabella.

WAS HAPPY EVENT

A day ever to be remembered was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Thomas, South 4th street, Saturday, June 14, when friends from the Trainmen's Auxiliary, Altoona, and Dames of Malta, Clearfield met in honor of Mrs. Thomas' (?) birthday.

The friends from Altoona (a jolly bunch) were as much surprised as the Host and Hostess, when the Dames with their well filled baskets, came in at the noon hour.

The chicken dinner with all the trimmings was soon disposed of, and the afternoon was spent in music and jollification, not saying much about getting our faces "took" by Shull, the photographer.

One lady from Altoona made the remark that she was a Hair Dresser, and was kept busy making older ones look younger. The day soon drew to a close, the friends departing wishing Mrs. Thomas many more happy birthdays.

There were more than thirty present.

WILL OF MRS B. J. HAYWOOD

An estate estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Haywood, widow of the former State Treasurer Benjamin J. Haywood, who died at Sharon last week, is devised to charitable purposes. This will, drawn in November, 1920, was offered for probate at Mercer. The will provides a gift of $25,000 to the American Sunday School Union, an undenominational society. The spacious Haywood home in Sharon, together with its furnishings, is devised to the Presbyterian Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation as a home for superannuated ministers, and all of the remainder of the estate is given to support and maintain the institution.

Mrs. Curtis Brooks and son Curtis Brooks Jr. of Akron, Ohio, are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Nightingale on Nichols St.

HAD FINE TIME

The neighbors and friends of Mrs. P. E. McDowell, of Bradford township to the number of 21 gathered at their home on Saturday evening last and treated Mrs. McDowell to an old-fashioned surprise party. Saturday happened to be Mrs. McDowell's birthday and the good ladies of the neighborhood, enlisting the aid of her husband, had Perry bring her to town and keep her here until late in the evening.

When they arrived home at 8 p. m. they found the house filled with their friends and a real surprise and a very pleasant evening was the result. Delicious eats were served and Mrs. McDowell was handsomely remembered.

LOCAL MARINE ON DUTY IN HAITI

Washington, June 17.—Starting on a period of duty in the tropics, Charles Edward Hale, nephew of Mrs. Jessie McCracken of Tyler, Clearfield County, Pa., is now on duty with the U. S. Marines in Haiti, according to the official reports at Marine Corps headquarters here. He will proably remain in the West Indies a year or longer before returning to the United States.

A small force of Marines have been stationed in Haiti since 1915, when the soldiers of the sea landed in that country to restore order during a revolution. During their occupation of Haiti, the Marines have established school systems, aided in the building of roads and public works, and have encouraged agriculture and thrift among the natives.

Charles joined the Marine Corps at Pittsburgh in October, 1922, and spent several weeks at Parris Island, S. C., where he learned the various duties performed by marines. He left that station recently with a detachment of marines bound for Port au Prince, the picturesque capital of Haiti.

DARK HORSE LOOMS AS REAL NOMINEE AT DEM. CONVENTION

Political Captains Appear to Be Shaping Things to Dump Both McAdoo and Smith.

CLANS GATHERING

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

New York, June 17.—The Democratic National Convention that meets in Madison Square Garden one week from today will be a "battle of the second choice" if the talk among the leaders now here can be accepted as an accurate indication of what the average Democratic mind is thinking.

While public discussion of candidates and their chances naturally revolves about the trio presented by McAdoo—Smith—Underwood it is of second choice that the leaders speak when the discussion gets down to the private stage.

The plain and unvarnished reason therefore is that comparatively few of the leaders believe that McAdoo, Smith or Underwood can be nominated.

They envision a long drawn out battle between McAdoo and Smith. They see a deadlock at the Garden comparable to the Clark-Wilson deadlock in Baltimore, the Cox-McAdoo deadlock at San Francisco, and in the end they see a dark horse come galloping from some middle western box stall and get the oats, just as Harding at Chicago four years ago, came forth and captured the Republican nomination after Lowden, Wood and Johnson had figuratively kicked each other to death for ballot after ballot.

"It might be pointed out that in other famous Democratic deadlocks, one of the leaders has come through—Wilson at Baltimore for instance, or Cox at San Francisco. But it is also pointed out that issues and conditions govern this contest which were completely lacking in other conventions—religion and Ku Klux Klanism, wet and dry, the League of Nations and a score of lesser issues that spawn rigid beliefs and unyielding positions.

This belief in the destiny of a second choice—it amounts almost to conviction on the part of the many shrewd party prophets—constitutes the sole stock in hope of the Ralston managers, the John W. Davis Boosters, the Glass People, the Cummins crowd, the Copeland forces, every one, in fact, whose name has been drawn into this Democratic melting pot.

Their representatives and friends are already on the ground here. They ask the new arrival with obvious casualness concerning his predilections towards the leading triumvirate, and then almost beat their first question with their second:

"And who is your second choice?"

The McAdoo managers, led by Judge David Ladd Rockwell, and the Smith Managers, whose spokesman is Franklin D. Roosevelt, are apprehensively cognizant of this situation.

Pre-Convention activities began to pick up today. Governor Smith took personal charge of his headquarters in Madison Avenue and greeted newcomers.

Tomorrow McAdoo headquarters in the Vandervilt Hotel will be taken over by McAdoo in person. He will be accorded a demonstration upon his arrival here from Los Angeles.

MRS. J. L. CONKLIN DIES

Mrs. J. L. Conklin, a respected and long-time resident of the Third Ward, passed away at the Rowles hospital about 11 o'clock last evening after an illness of long continued duration.

Funeral notice tomorrow.

Mrs. John F. Leitzinger, of East Market street, is recovering at her home from a badly sprained ankle or wrenched ligaments, received when she made a misstep in the yard at her home on Thursday last.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chase has returned from Ann Arbor, Mich., where she attended the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. Her daughter, Miss Mary Chase, received her bachelor's degree from the Literary College of the University.

FRANCE'S PROBLEMS EASY TO SOLVE, SAYS PRESIDENT HERRIOT

By FRANK E. MASON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Paris, June 17—"France nourishes no dangerous ambition, but aspires only to obtain payment of reparations and guarantees for security which were solemnly promised to her," said President Doumergue in his first message to Parliament this afternoon.

The message on Government policy was read simultaneously in the Chamber of Deputies and Senate shortly after 3 o'clock.

"France's problem would be easy to solve," continued the President, "if there were a pure atmosphere of peace everywhere. It is not France's fault that conditions are what they are."

President Doumergue praised the Dawes Reparation plan saying:

"Since the international experts' Reparation report has been prepared, the reparations question seems to be on the road to a solution. The debtor, however, must prove his good faith by precise acts, not by simple agreements."

President Doumergue, in conclusion said "France cannot give up right for supervision of the vanquished enemy, who seems to be preparing revenge."

Following the presidential message, Premier Herriot read the new cabinet's declaration of policy.

BIG AMERICAN 'PEEG' DOWNS 'SPIC' CHAMP

New York, June 17 (INS.)—Andreas Balsa, Champion heavyweight of Spain, won't do—he will never fight Jack Dempsey. Upon that all experts today were agreed.

Balsa, a bull necked, heavy bodied individual, was given his first chance here last night to show what he could do against American fighters. He was pitted against the fast, clean cut Iowa heavyweight, Floyd Johnson. He was beaten almost to a pulp, beaten so badly, in fact, that the referee stopped the bout in the third round.

It was a sickening, bloody battle. Balsa, with his arms wrapped about his chin, and crouching like a wrestler that he is said to be, rushed at Johnson when the bell sounded for the opening round. Johnson put out his left, stopped the onrushing Spaniard and then let fly with a terrific right uppercut. Balsa careened against the ropes and blood poured from his nose.

Spank! went Johnson's fist into Balsa's face as the fight progressed. It was spank blood. Spank blood, Spank, Blood. Balsa was a novic, game but untutored. Johnson kept standing back and smashing him.

Blood was all over the ring, all over Balsa's face and smeared across Johnson's body as a result of clinching with the blindly battling Balsa.

In the second round Johnson hit Balsa so often and so hard he was fagged when the gong rang.

Johnson started to slaughter Balsa in the third. He belted him time and again, finally opening a deep gash over the left eyebrow. Blood spurted out.

"Stot it!" cried the six thousand spectators. Referee Tommy Sheridan did.

Money Available For Rockview Construction

Harrisburg, June 17. (INS.)—The $300,000 appropriated by the 1921 legislature is available for use in construction of the western penitentiary at Rockview, the attorney general's office declared in an opinion today. The opinion is contrary to the belief of Auditor General S. S. Lewis who some time ago said the money was not available.

The decision hinged on one of names. The legislature appropriated the money for the board of inspectors, which was abolished by the administrative code. The opinion holds that the money is available to the board of trustees—the new ruling body provided for by the code.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffot, Mrs. Bosch, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Merrits, of Altoona spent Saturday with Mrs. G. W. Thomas South 4th street.

LT. MAUGHAN READY FOR THIRD CROSS COUNTRY FLIGHT

Mitchell Fiedl, New York, June 17. (INS.)—Lieut. Russel L. Maughan and the fastest airplane in the world were ready today for the third attempt on a "dawn to dusk" flight across the United States. Two previous efforts by Maughan failed, but with a much faster ship improved in many details from experiences of the two failures, he was confident he would reach San Francisco 17½ hours after the hop off from Mitchell field.

The start may be made at 4 o'clock New York daylight saving time tomorrow, but indications were the flight would not get under way until Thursday morning. Maughan is awaiting for word from four mechanics who left Friday for the immediate landing fields where the stops will be made to re-fuel.

The schedule calls for 15½ hours flying time and an hour and 20 minutes for stops on the 2,600 mile flight.

The first stop will be at Dayton, Ohio, 570 miles from New York flying field. The second stop will be at St. Joseph, Mo., another hop of 570 miles. Cheyenne, Wyo., will be the third stop a hop of 490 miles, and Salduro, Utah, a 480-mile leap, the last stop before San Francisco. He expects to cover the first two laps in 2½ hours flying time and the last three in 3½ hours each.

The plane, an army pursuit ship, has a maximum speed of 176 miles an hour and Lieutenant Maughan said today he expected to make an average of 168 miles an hour.

His first flight ended at Rock Springs, Wyo., about a year ago, and the second last July was halted at St. Joseph, Mo., by engine trouble.

New York, June 17. (INS.)—If atmospheric conditions are favorable—and it doesn't rain—Lieut. Russel L Maughan, army flier, will attempt his dawn to dusk trans-continental airplane flight next Thursday, he said today.

Maughan plans to start at 3:22 a. m., daylight saving time, in an army pursuit plane and to reach San Francisco inside of 17 hours, maintaining an average speed of 160 miles an hour.

BIDS FOR 40 MILES OF ROAD ARE OPENED

Harrisburg, June 16.—Action to make available for road construction part of the proceeds of the $50,000,000 highway bond issue approved by the voters last November was announced today by Governor Pinchot. The governor, in letters to Auditor General Lewis and State Treasurer Snyder, proposed the issuance of $15,000,000 in bonds, to bear 4¼ per cent interest, payable semi-annually, with the exception that the first payment would be for one year and be due May 1, 1925. The governor proposed that the sale of onds be held July 22.

The governor recommended the bonds be advertised in daily newspapers in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New York City, Harrisburg, Scranton and Erie, all to be chosen by the auditor general.

The $15,000,000 from the first sale would not be needed until August 1 of this year, it was announced, Federal aid payment and funds from the first program to that date. For replacement, the motor license fund is being used.

Huckleberries May Be Plenty This Year

Lansford, June 17 (United Press.) This will be a fine year for huckelberries, which usually abound in this region, according to information received lately from the mountains. Heavy rains were reported to have helped the berries along and incidentally helped the inhabitants to their well earned receipts for picking them. Forest fires have not been serious enough to destroy the supply this year and between now and July thousands of women and children will be active gathering the berries.

Rev. and Mrs. Granger and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Way, of Williamsport, are visiting at D. Gardlock's at Curwensville.

5 BANDITS HOLD UP STREET CAR; MONDAY MASTER OF RUSSELL COAL CO., CLYMER, OF $28,000, SEMI-MONTHLY PAYROLL

Punxsutawney, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Police from every county in northwestern Pennsylvania this afternoon are searching for the band of five bandits who held up Alex Caldwell, of the Rupsell Coal Company of Clymer, Pa., today and escaped with $28,000 in cash being brought to Clymer for the semi-monthly pay.

Caldwell and George Askey, a guard, were bringing the payroll from the bank at Indiana, Pa., to Clymer on an interurban car when the five robbers boarded the car six miles from Indiana. A few minutes after they had placed themselves in different parts of the car, the men pulled revolvers at a signal and held up the few passengers and the coal company employes.

Caldwell said the men looked like Italians and probably were former employes at the company's mines.

Grabbing the money, the men jumped from the car and disappeared in the woods.

No trace of them has been found.

Another registered mail pouch also carried on the car was reported stolen, but the contents of this pouch have not been determined.

Padlock Injunctions In State Courts Are Urged

Washington, June 17 (INS.)—"Padlock" injunction suits in state as well as Federal courts to enforce the liquor laws will be employed through efforts of the Federal Prohibition unit, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes announced today.

Haynes said that briefs of law on the right to file injunction suits in the state courts nore being distributed to prosecuting attorneys in every state. Use of injunctions will take cases before judges instead of juries and therefore save time.

LOST LIFE WHEN HOME BURNED

Charleston, W. Va., June 15 (INS.)—Bennie Ehman, 18, son of Henry Ehman, prominent farmer, was burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Ehman home here today.

The youth was trapped when he went back into the blazing house from which the family had fled to get a wrap for his mother, who was thinly clad. The charred body was recovered several hours later.

OSCEOLA MAN HAS SKULL FRACTURE

Norman O'Brien, 20 years old, of Osceola Mills, suffered a possible fracture of the skull late Sunday afternoon when his automobile was struck by a Tyrone street car near Washington avenue and First street, Tyrone.

He was taken into Tyrone by a passing motorist and was later removed to the Altoona hospital where he was admitted and X-ray pictures of his injuries taken. His condition is reported to be fairly good.

According to the report of Motorman Mays, who operated the street car, O'Briren had backed his automobile directly into the path of the street car, O'Brien had backed his automobile car was almost abreast of the automobile.

Three New Witnesses Testify At Ebensburg

Eensburg, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Three new witnesses—two of them women—were injected today into the trial of William Monahan, Lilly, Pa., resident indicted on murder charges in conneceion with the fighting between Lilly men and Ku Klux Klansmen at Lilly during a klan demonstration there.

Esther Hanna and her sister Anna, young Lilly women, told how they were attarked by unmasked men after cheering the marching klansmen, and the younger girl, Anna, said she had received a broken ankle in the melee.

Formal testimony was offered mainly at today's court session, most of it being a recounting of previous testimony at the trial of Samuel Evans, a klansman who was acquitted of the murder charges in connection with three deaths during the riroting.

Rev. Alban, wife and daughter attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Thomas, Saturday, June 14.

SEEKING ALLEGED SLAYER OF BRIDE

Milwaukee, June 17. (INS.)—While George Cummings, who is sought in connection with the slaying of his bride of a week in the tourist camp at Wittenberg, was endeavoring to reach the Canadian border today, radio messages giving the most minute description of the man and pleading with authorities to "get him dead or alive" were being broadcast hourly from Minneapolis and Stevens Point, Wis.

And while the net to capture Cummings was being spread, the body of the slain, romantic woman of 60, who bobbed her hair and said she was 30, was prepared for shipment to her middle aged daughter, in Grand Rapids.

All last night, investigators combed and recombed the tourists camping grounds for additional clues which might lead to the solution of one of Wisconsin's strangest crimes. Near the place where the body of the woman lay, murdered some time Sunday, were also discovered her raincoat and other articles of feminine apparel.

The body was not in an actual grave. It had been pressed into a muddy ditch after being wrapped in a robe and army blanket. Stout cords bound it, in a sitting, cramped position.

No trace has been found of the 39-year-old husband who married the 62-year-old woman. Since he had a complete camping outfit with plenty of supplies, it is believed he will long remain in hiding. It is even believed that he will remain in the northern Wisconsin woods for several months until the "hysteria" dies down before making his dash for the Canadian border.

The "Elusive Lamb" Follows Mary Again

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 17 (INS.)—Thomas Lamb, with a record of many escapes from police stations and arresting officers, slipped thru a cordon of police at Center avenue, police station here today just before he was called for a hearing on a charge of larceny, and despite the efforts of the entire city police and detective forces, there is no single clue to his whereabouts.

The escaped prisoner who is known as "the elusive Lamb", was arrested at Steubenville, O., his alleged home yesterday, and brought here last night by City detective James Hoey. When arrested at Steubenville, Lamb broke away from the arresting officer, and ran two blocks for liberty before a pedestrian stopped him.

He was turned over to Detective headquarters last night, strapped to a chair and guarded by three men. Later in the night he was taken to the Center Ave., station, but is believed to have walked out of the cell room when drunken prisoners were arraigned this morning.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

COUNCIL HELPS TO MAKE CLEARFIELD BUSIEST OF TOWNS

WANT SIDEWALKS

There is more building and general improvement, both private and public, under way in Clearfield at the present time than in any other town anyway near our size in central or western Pennsyvania. The borough council, judging by the reports of its officers and the action taken at last evening's meeting, is going to continue its full share of improving for all summer long.

Chairman Beahan of the highway committee reported Cherry street paving about completed and that the work of paving Front street would be taken up tomorrow. He also recommended that Locust street be paved from Third to Fourth and council directed that an ordinance be prepared providing for this work.

Chairman Adams of the sewer committee announced that he was ready to start his sewer building crew on the big 24-inch surface water sewer on Market street and recommended the re-laying of Walnut street sewer between Third and Fourth.

Bids were also opened for the building of the stone retaining wall along the river bank from Walnut street south, a distance of 800 feet or as much of that as could be provided for this year, at least half the distance. This work will be under the personal direction of President of Council Roser.

Much General Improvement.

In addition to these new construction propositions, much general repairs and improvements are also being made by Street Commissioner Graham under the direction of the highway department. These projects were touched upon in the report of Engineer Hess, who reported much activity in sidewalk building throughout the town, induced by council's campaign, with Councilman Poorman in charge, to compel the building of sidewalk wherever the need for same exists.

New Walks Asked For.

Notices to build sidewalks were ordered served on the following property owners:

Bigler avenue:—Charles Canlian, James Pellente, Joe Marino, John Sample, Lawrence Holt, Joe Cologi, Tony Cassamenta, John Molic, Walter Welch, Frank Vreviana, Harry Nearhood, John Mudoskey, Guy Resante, Joseph Ortassic, Charles Gardner.

West Third avenue:—E. Russell Williams, Ed. L. Shirey.

South Second street:—Cecil F. Wilson, W. L. Dethloff.

Witmer street:—John M. Bain.

Want Route Changed.

The State Highway Department asked permission to paint telephone poles through the town to denote Lakes-to-the-Sea highway route and permission was given. The Highway Department was notified that council would like to have the highway routed down Cherry from Second to Third, now that that block has been concreted, as such a change would do away with traffic congestion at the corner of Second and Market and Market and Third streets, and be a most decided advantage.

Recommend Annexation.

Chairman McKee, of the committee to report on proposed annexation to the borough of several blocks of lots adjoining the Fargo and Thompson properties on Turnpike avenue, made a report and recommended that the property be annexed to the borough. This will be done at next meeting of Council.

West Third Avenue Sewer.

Alex Black presented petition of property owners asking for a sanitary sewer on West Third avenue. The matter of sewer extension permits was discussed and Borough Solicitor Urey directed to take the matter up with State Health Commissioner by telephone in order to get some action, as permit for Linden street sewer, asked for more than one year ago, has never been acted upon.

Want Licenses Collected.

Chairman Gulich of Finance Committee reported that licenses for jitney and other passenger carrying buses operating in town had not been collected as provided for and the burgess was directed to proceed at once with such collection.

STATE HEALTH CAMP AT MONT ALTO OPENS MONDAY, JUNE 23D

Public Health Workers From Every County In State Will Be Among Those Present.

IT IS EDUCATIONAL

Harrisburg, June 17.—Three hundred public health workers, representing every county in the state, will attend the annual health camp conducted under the auspices of the state health department which will open at the Mont Alto Sanitarium next Monday morning. County medical inspectors, health officers, members of boards of health, nurses and lay health workers will be included in the delegation that will attend this years's camp.

Speakers of national and state wide reputation—authorities upon tuberculosis, sanitation and child health measures—will school the 300 delegates to the camp in the task of safeguarding the health of the people of their county. Every phase of health activity will be discussed during the stay of the health workers at the camp with particular stress being placed upon tuberculosis prevention, protection of the health of children and the county health administration.

Dr. Charles H. Miner, secretary of health, will be in charge of the camp and he will place before the assembled health workers plans of the department for legislative changes in the present field health activities of the state.

A small tented city has already [illegible] the invading army of health workers. An entire week will be devoted to the task of better fitting the health workers in the tasks allotted to them. Two camps, each of three days' duration, will be conducted. The first camp, attended by 150 health workers will open on Monday, June 23 and will close two days later. The second detachment of the health workers will then arrive and the early week program will be repeated for their benefit.

One of the features of the health camp will be practical clinics conducted by experts that will serve to demonstrate to the health officers certain lessons in the care of the public health. The clinics for the most part will be conducted in the afternoons with the mornings and evenings being devoted to speeches, lectures and motion picture demonstrations.

Governor Pinchot will address the health camp on June 25. The outstanding speaker at the camp will be Dr. John H. Ferrell, director of the United States Rockefeller Foundation. Dr. Wilmer Krusen, director of health in Philadelphia; Dr. A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Hand, of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Stengel, of Philadelphia; Dr. Samuel Haythorn, of the University of Pittsburgh; Dr. George Norris, of Philadelphia; a representative of State College; Dr. H. T. Price, professor of pediatrics at the University of Pittsburgh and a number of other medical experts are included in the list of speakers.

In addition, the members of the state health department staff will participate in the week's program. The progress made in the betterment of health conditions in the state will be presented in a series of charts and tables prepared by Dr. Wilmer Bl[illegible] chief of the statistical bureau of the state department of health.

President Coolidge Will Be In Attendance

Philadelphia, June 17 (United Press)—President Coolidge and other high officials will be in Philadelphia September 25, to attend the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first meeting of the Continental Congress in Carpenter's Hall. A parade is planned for the day with the First City Troop acting as escort for the President.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Punxsutawney—Walter Bird, 18 who had a splinter of a bone removed from his heart at the Adrain Hospital is said to have a good chance to recover, by hospital authorities today. Bird fell, and the revolver he was said to have been carrying was discharged the bullet entering his left breast driving a piece of bone into his heart. He was operated on yesterday.

Erie—Morgan Caryl, 12, is in the St. Vincent Hospital here today in a serious condition having been accidentally shot at a picnic, through a lung.

Pittsburgh—Thomas Sayers, 48, a Spanish war veteran and partially blind is in the AlleghenyGeneral Hospital today suffering from heat prostration, the first of its kind this year in Pittsburgh.—Sayers collapsed yesterday enroute to a bank.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Mrs Marie Souders, taken into custody by police last night in connection with the finding of the body of a three year old boy in a suit case here recently which was identified as that of her son, was released today when she produced her son, alive and well.

Fernwood—Joseph Vanee, of Philadelphia, was near death today from injuries suffered when a Gulf Refining Company Gasoline filing station tank exploded here. He was making an inspection on the lower levels of the station when the explosion occurred.

Philadelphia—Income tax returns for the second quarter in 23 counties of Pennsylvania amounted to $18,000,000 Collector of Internal Revenue McCaughan announced today.

Mauch Chunk,—Three boys were injured and an automobile was completely wrecked when it rolled over a bank on the Pocono Mountain here early today. Frank Binder, driver of the car, was the only one seriously hurt.

Chambersburg, Pa., June 17 (INS.)—When his car plunged 10 feet down the side of McConnellsburg Mountain, S. Marshall Jackson, a Fulton county farmer, was instantly killed. His daughter, Margaret and two school mates, Gladys Walter and Lulu Fletcher, escaped with minor injuries. Jackson was taking the girls to the Shippensburg State Normal for Commencement exercises.

Harrisburg, Pa.,—A Coroner's inquest to formally fix the cause of Mrs Hanbeck's death, an attractive widow, found dead in the office of Dr. C. M. Dailey, prominent physician on June 1, when the doctor himself was shot through the shoulder. He has been charged with the woman's murder.

Lancaster—A panic was narrowly averted here last night when the floor of an auditorium collapsed while 400 men and women were attending a meeting. The people filed out and the meeting was continued in a nearby grove.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Forty persons narrowly escaped serious injury and traffic was tied up for several hours when a car attached to a south-bound train on the New York Philadelphia and Norfolk division of the Pennsylvania railroad was derailed in a tunnel west of here today.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Nelly, a little black and white dog, the pet of Billy Link, early today saved thousands of dollars worth of property here from almost certain destruction by fire.

The dog awakened his master who followed the animal to a spot where a small blaze had started. Close by was a large building in which turpentine and other highly inflammable material was stored.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

A regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of Mrs. Bumgardner on Friday evening. Meeting was led by Mrs. Runk, who distributed small flags in honor of Flag Day. Meeting opened with singing. Quotations from Scripture were read by the members, after which the Lord's Prayer was said in unison.

A letten on Enforcement, from Mrs. Marion was read by the President, and one by Mrs. Chorpening, from the County Secretary, thanking her for flowers sent.

A poem, "The Flag", including 1812, 1845, 1861, 1898, evidently written before the late War, was read by Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Hile read some excerpts from arguments presented by State President Mrs. George at the Beer Bill hearing. She said among many things, "We heard the cry of the children, who were only half fed and half clothed. We heard the cry of the mothers who were suffering untold anguish because husbands were exercising their so-called 'personal liberty' by trampling on the rights of their families by carrying most of their earnings to saloons."

"Make Our Home Town Dry," was read by Mrs. Edmiston, the author asking the question, "Won't You Work for Law Enforcement to Make Your Home Town Dry?" Then more pathetically exclaiming—"You are your brother's keeper," etc.

Articles of interest by Mrs. Upton St. Clair, and Mrs. Catherine Davis were read by Mrs. Runk.

Mrs. Smith read testimony from the Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers who said, among other things, that ten years before the church began fighting liquor, the necessity of it was seen, to safely run the trains, that liquor drinking by employees must cease; and steps were taken in that direction.

During the social time excellent refreshments were served, and during discussion of the habits of the girls of this favored land, much wonder and regret was expressed at the too common habits of cigarette-smoking and drinking.

The July meeting will be a picnic, at which all members are requested to be present.

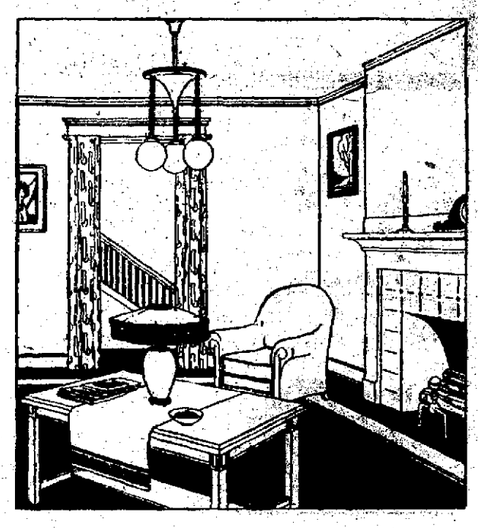
SHEETROCK

The FIREPROOF WALLBOARD

US



You can build solid, permanent walls and ceilings at low cost with Sheetrock, the different wallboard.

Sheetrock is made of pure gypsum, and its use assures dense, durable walls of exceptional quality. It is fireproof, non-warping—takes any form of wall decoration.

Sheetrock is extensively used in homes for new walls and ceilings. It withstands years of wear and tear. Its moderate cost and excellent quality make it standard wall material for the modern dwelling.

Sheetrock also lends itself admirably to alterations and remodeling. Its broad, standard size sheets—⅜-inch thick—are quickly and easily erected. It saws and nails like lumber. Once in place, Sheetrock is up to stay, and its life is as long as the building itself.

Come in and let us show you what Sheetrock is, how it differs from ordinary wallboard, and how it may be used in new construction or alterations.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Children between the ages of four and thirteen, both girls and boys, grow faster and better during August and the following three months than any other period of the year, according to results of careful study into the question of child nutrition by the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Boys make 59.3 per cent. and girls 59.8 per cent. of the total yearly growth between Aug. 1 and Dec. 1. The period of maximum gain is in the late summer and early fall, and the period of minimum advancement falls in the late spring and early summer.

While the same tendency holds for both boys and girls, it is most marked among the girls.

The Results Tabulated

	Boys		Girls
Months	Av. Gain in lbs	% of Annual Gain	Av. in lbs	% of Annual Gain
Jan	.67	9.9	.53	8.3
Feb.	.51	7.6	.43	6.7
March	.43	6.4	.36	5.6
April	.43	6.4	.34	5.3
May	.25	3.7	—.05	*—.8
June	.06	.9	.08	1.3
July	.26	3.9	.35	5.4
Aug.	.89	13.2	.79	12.3
Sept. 1.01		15.0	1.06	16.6
Oct. 1.00		14.8	1.00	15.6
Nov.	.83	12.3	.99	15.3
Dec.	.51	7.6	.53	8.4
Total yearly	6.74	100.	6.41	100.
Avg monthly	.56	8.2	.53	8.3

*In May the girls showed an average loss of .05 pounds. This is equivalent to 0.8% of the total gain.

The report says:

"The rate of growth in both height and weight over a given period of time is quite as important, in judging a child's state of development, as his attained stature and weight at any given period. Physicians, teachers, school nurses, and nutrition workers must rely on the gains made during short periods of from three to six months to determine whether the child is doing well, for obviously all healthy children must be expected to gain steadily in both height and weight.

1,000 Children Tested

"The usual procedure has been to assume that the difference between the average height and weight of children of any age group and the average height and weight of children of the next group indicates the rate of gain which all children within the given age period may be expected to make. To determine the expected gain for any portion of the year, say for one month, the procedure is to take one-twelfth of the annual expected gain to determine the monthly expected gain. At best this method is very imperfect, for it leaves out of consideration retardation and acceleration, which largely determine the rate of gain."

To reach its conclusions the association made records of the successive weights of 1,000 children. This study is one of a series being carried on with funds given the association for the purpose of providing the basis of more effective public health and relief work by filling in the gaps in existing basic information. Whether climatic conditions affect this seasonal variation in growth is soon to be determined.

FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Mrs. Bradford Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Phoebus, Virginia.—"Having this opportunity I just cannot refrain from saying a word of praise for the Lydia E. Pinkham medicines. I have used them as occasion required for twenty years, and my three sisters have also used them, and always with the most gratifying results. During the Change of Life I had the usual distressing symptoms—hot flashes, insomnia, etc.,—and I am pleased to testify to the wonderful results I obtained from the Vegetable Compound. I heartily recommend it to any woman and I will be pleased to answer any inquiries that might be sent to me through the publication of my testimonial."—Mrs. H. L. BRADFORD, 109 Armistead Street, Phoebus, Virginia.

Consider carefully Mrs. Bradford's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She mentions the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, or if other annoying symptoms appear and you are blue at times, you should give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:

After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation . . . for more than twenty years . . . after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a specific for constipation.

. . . I deem it only justice that you should know what your product has done for me, and what it is able of doing for others."

The original of this letter is on file (The Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and krumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.

For those long summer runs

LONG non-stop runs subject the oil in your crank-case to a terrific punishment—a constant battering at high motor temperature. Low-heat-resisting oils change their physical characteristics under such conditions; they lose their "body"—their capacity to maintain a separating film between the friction surfaces of bearings, cylinders and pistons.

You know what that means!

Put your motor under the protection of high-heat-resisting Atlantic Motor Oil. It has the highest resistance to heat, pressure and impact—the greatest body-holding capacity—of any line of motor oils that has ever come from the Atlantic refineries.

Atlantic dealers have a chart carrying The Atlantic Refining Company's official recommendations as to the correct type of oil for your car or truck—Atlantic Medium, Heavy, Special Heavy or Polarine.

THE CANCER CURE

Hope was stirred in millions of despairing hearts when it was first announced that a Canadian physician had isolated the "cancer germ" and had developed a serum with which many cures had been made. The account of his work, published in a Philadelphia newspaper, has been challenged. It is said that the Journal of the American Medical Association in 1921 told of the investigation of an alleged cancer cure, claimed by a physician of the same name, and the conclusion that there was no value in it.

American physicians doubt whether any progress has been made since along the line in question. Dr. James Ewing of the Cornell Laboratory, New York City, addressing a group of the American Medical Association, says:

"Cancer is not a germ disease, and so a serum treatment would be worthless. The effective treatment of cancer is accomplished by surgery, the X-ray and radium in combination."

The public may safely take the word of the medical profession on this point until absolutely convincing evidence is shown to the contrary. Much progress has been made in cancer treatment along the lines mentioned, in recent years, and it is definitely stated by reputable physicians that most cases of cancer are curable by the knife, radium or X-ray if recognized and taken in time.

The thing for a patient to do in any case of suspicion is to go to his family physician and take that physician's advice. The medical profession is doubtless "getting warm" in its search for the basic cause of cancer, and sooner or later will announce it, and adopt preventive as well as remedial measures, but it will not do to anticipate that time with false hopes.

"MORAL INSANITY"

The defense of two bright young murderers in Chicago is to be "moral insanity". That is an interesting variation.

The boys evidently knew exactly what they were doing, planning it long in advance, carefully rehearsing their program and carrying it out with incredible coolness and precision. And during the whole period preceding and following the actual deed, they seem to have gone through all their normal activities, college work, family and social life, etc., without any evidence of mental or emotional aberration.

The defense will insist that this very fact proves the boys did not know right from wrong. Their brains may have been clear but their moral sense was not. Wherefore, it will be argued, they should not be punished for murder but merely be placed in some corrective institution.

This is a plausible theory. The boys' moral sense was certainly very dull. But a moralist, if not a lawyer, will want to ask how it happened to be so—whether the conscience of these lads was dull from birth, or whether they made it dull by deliberate, long-continued acts of selfish indulgence and brutality, steadily increasing in wickedness. Also whether, if escaping the gallows and going to some public institution, they will be released as morally "cured" after a year or two, to continue their experiments in sin.

"I BEQUEATH—"

Your full duty to those who look to you for financial protection is NOT done when you make your Will. Inherited money soon takes wings unless the way it is to be managed is also provided for.

Let this strong and responsible institution protect your dear ones when you no longer can. We will gladly advise with you as to ways and means.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL STAGE PICNIC

The Clearfield Commercial Club met last evening with Mine Host Jordan and a livey meeting was staged from the first rap of President Shillingford's impromptu gavel.

Following the commitee reports it was decided to have a picnic to which the wives, sisters, daughters and friends of the members would be invited. The time, place and other details were put up to the entertainment committee.

It was decided to accept the invitation of the Rotary Club to meet with them in the near future to hear Supt. A. K. Johnson, of the Tyrone Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad who will speak on railroad matters pertaining to this region.

Three new members were elected to membership in the club, Albert F. Scheutte, manager of the A. W. Leonardson Co., Ralph A. Hunter, owner of the drug store formerly operated by Woodward & McPherson and Frank "Passy" Passmore, proprietor of the Leonard House.

Mr McGarry, Manager of the Dimeling Hotel, gave the club some interesting information, relative to the amount of travel which will pass thru this city on the Lakes-to-Sea Highway, stating that he already had reservations booked far into the summer by tourists who would make Clearfield their over-night stopping place. And in this connection, the Publicity Committee of the Club has arranged to send to each one of these parties a list of the industries, the fraternal organizations and their meeting nights, the churches and the locations thereof so that these people passing thru our city will know that we are a friendly city and are glad to have the folks here.

Rev. A. Roy Hauser, pastor of the Lutheran church, gave the club a stirring talk on the example set by the older men for the younger generation and pleaded that the members of the club set such an honorable example for the youth of this city that the influences growing out of such examples would be for the betterment of the rising generation.

Antonio Moreno Gorman, newly elected Sargeant at arms was duly inducted into office with fitting ceremonies after which the club adjourned.

"OLD TIMER" HOME AGAIN

Dave Adams, an old-time Clearfield boy, who has been located at Los Angeles, California, for several years, but who first shook the dust of old Clearfield from his brogans nearly 20 years ago, is back home on a visit to his brothers Tommy and Bill and other relatives in this section.

Time has dealt gently with Dave and Dame Fortune also patted his head as she tilted her famous cornucopia of plenty and he is both looking and has a right to feel prosperous. He is being kept quite busy greeting old time friends and is enjoying his visit.

Dave has the Pacile coast perspective and before he had got through telling us how much improved and how much he enjoyed coming back to Clearfield, he was telling us just how much Los Angeles had increased since he went there and how much bigger his home city was than her rival San Francisco.

He also told us, and gloried in the telling, that he had helped carry California for Wilson in 1916, but cautioned us against elling brother Tommy about it until after he left Clearfield and was at least six miles away on his return journey. We promised.

Patching Wallpaper.

To match wallpaper successfully, instead of cutting the paper tear it across irregularly. The white edge made by the tearing will not be on the patch, but on the unused paper. By matching the design the patch will be almost invisible.

Make Funnel From Eggshell.

When it is desired to fill narrow-necked bottles and a funnel is unavailable, one can be improvised from an eggshell. The shell should be quite dry, and a small opening made at the bottom. Stand the shell so that the hole is well over the opening of the container to be filled, and proceed as with a regular funnel.

WHERE SCIENCE STOPS

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"Science finds cancer germ!"

This is the startling news published last week in the newspapers.

One by one the strongholds of disease are being broken down.

The outlook for long life and happiness ought to grow better and better It won't be long before the last of the deadly diseases will be conquered by men of science and only the phenomenon of old age will baffle us. Even that secret, the scientists are claiming to have solved, and one investigator after another offers his rule for the prolongation of life.

And yet, though we baffle the enemies which attack our bodies, we cannot discover the magic serum of peace and happiness.

Wise men have failed to teach us that it is small gain to vanquish the enemies of disease, if we nurture the still more devastating enemies of greed and hatred and selfishness.

Finding the deadly cancer germ and learning the secret of vanquishing it spares a few lives from horrible suffering and lengthens the average span of life by just that much. But as long as hatieds thrive and wars threaten, the world moves but imperceptibly forward.

True enough, the scentists have done their bit. Small-pox and diptheria and typhoid fever, and malaria, and now even diabetes once thought incurable have been mastered. Scientists even talk of a cure for that ages-ld scourge of leprosy.

The chances of life seem to grow yearly better, but the chance for happiness and security somehow fail to increase proportionately.

The trouble for that is beyond the reach of doctors.

Perhaps it is instead, a job for mothers whose business it is to teach their children honesty and fair play, generosity and unselfishness.

Even with the ravages of cancer stopped, with tuberculosis almost conquered by the healing rays of the sun, with every lurking streptococci germ traced to its source of supply in some broken down tonsil or decrepit tooth, the human race only muddles along achieving little solid increase in happiness, except to the insurance companies, who like to see the life span lengthen.

But what boots it to live longer, if we may not live more happily?

It won't be long now before the last of the dread disease germs will have been isolated and conquered by the scientists.

But that won't help the human race such a lot, as long as no one isolates the selfishness germ, and finds a cure for national greed and ancient hatreds and should be made to pay the costs out of their own pocket.

In the Courts

While enroute to their stations at DuBois and Ridgway early Sunday morning, Corporals Barker and Pierce of the state police are said to have encountered Charles Lansberry, of Curwensville, in a car about the Drauckker's woods section, under the influence of liquor.

Lansberry was arrested by the state police and held in $1,000 bail for violation of the motor law by driving a car while intoxicated. Lansberry denies the charge and furnished the required bail for court.

Law and orderly proceedure must maintain even over in Huston township, where a factional quarrel has divided the school board into two warring factions. Several weeks ago the dominant faction on the board sought to ignore the election laws of the state, which provide for the election of certain officers, and decided to appoint one of their friends as collector of school taxes regardless of the fact that John Horning, one of the township's most substantial citizens, had been elected to the position, given the required bond and had acted most efficiently in the office for two years.

Mr. Horning got an injunction to restrain the "big three" on the school board from turning the duplicate over to their collector and Judge Chase fixed Monday morning for a hearing on the injunction application. It did not take long to convince the would-be law-makers of the error of their ways and all hands quickly agreed that Collector Horning under the law was entitled to and would receive the school tax duplicate for collection.

The hearing was then continued until July 21, at which time the matter of who is liable for the costs of the proceeding will be determined. Mr. Horning says he will not pay them, and contends that it is not an obligation of the taxpayers of the district but that the directors who sought to usurp his place are wholly to blame

Told of John Burroughs.

John Burroughs, the naturalist, was not interested in nature's larger aspects. Geysers and volcanoes bored him. His one exception was the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, which he called "the Divine Abyss." Despite his intentness on study when a boy, Burroughs was fond of girls and kept a systematic record of his engagements with them, writers on his life say.

Curwensville's Own Column

Mrs. Herbert Sharp, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Verne Wall, South Walnut street, for several weeks will return to her Philadelphia home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Robert McClure, Mrs. S. J. McKenrick and Mrs. Ed Moore are spending the week in Bellefonte with their sister, Mrs. J. L. Rankin.

The body of Alfred Berlin was brot to Curwensville yesterday from Jamestown, N. Y., where he died on Sunday. Undertaker Doverspike received the body and took it to Bloomington, where it will be interred this afternoon. He was a former resident of Glen Richey and conducted a butcher shop there at one time.

Word has been received by relatives announcing the marriage of Miss Pearl Berger and her brother Pus Berger, the ceremony being a double one. The marriages took place at Detroit, Mich., Rev. A. E. Gordon, a Methodist minister officiating. The lady was united with Willemere Stewart, of New Glasgow Nova Scotia, and the brother to Genevieve Hanson of Milwaukee, Wis. The bridal pair are a brother and sister of Roy Berger of Curwensville.

Al Mumma suffered a dislocated shoulder Sunday by falling from a high porch backwards.

Three cars met in a smash-up on Bloomington hill Sunday night. None of the occupants of which three were some half dozen, was injured to any extent, but two of the cars are good material for a junk pile.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams after a week's visit with relatives have returned to their New Bethlehem home.

Roy Strickland who moved to Curwensville about a year ago to take care of a high-bred dog farm, will return to Curwensville shortly, he having had enough dog training to last him a life time.

Rolly Knepp is carrying his right arm in a sling all on account of having a hand under a car wheel. The hand and fingers were badly crushed and lacerated.

Guy Strickland, South Side, is nursing a smashed fore finger and it is not a very friendly pet at that.

Do not forget the fact that on next Friday evening the American Legion auxiliary will hold a carnival and dance in the Pattelle garage. There will be amusement and fun galore for everybody, to say nothing of the fine refreshments that are going to be on hand and dispensed at a small profit to the hungry. Proceeds for benefit of the Tablet Fund.

Funny, but true nevertheless, that no one has inaugurated a term of summer school in Curwensville this year. Usually some interested person in school affairs holds a private two or three weeks session to better prepare the small student for advancement in the winter term. Perhaps it is because that people entertain an idea that a nine months term is sufficient for one year and the kiddies ought to have a few months of play and frolih. "All work and no play, makes Jack a dull boy."

STATE ORGANIZERS HERE

Edwin Charles and A. D. Miller, state organizers of the P. O. S. of A., were in Clearfield today on business in connection with their duties in this patriotic American order.

Mr. Charles is an old-time newspaper man, having been editor of the Middleburg (Pa.) Post for a number of years. He also served as register and recorder of Snyder county for two or three terms, and is a very genial gentleman. Both officials expressed themselves as being well pleased with the condition of the order in Clearfield county.

Camp "Cedar Pines" To Open June 26th

Camp "Cedar-Pines," the summer camp conducted by the Y. M. C. A. of Jersey Shore, Pa., is the open gate to the out-of-door life. The place for the boy and the girl to spend their vacation, living in the fresh air, near the woods, the creek and the fields. Place a boy and girl in this closeness to nature, among agreeable companions, good influence and under the care of capable leaders, and they will grow in body, mind and spirit.

This is the surrounding "Cedar-Pines" offers and upon which its success has been built during the past eight years. Careful attention is given to all activities of the boys and girls. This camp is an exclusive one where boys and girls are given individual attention.

Character training, combined with physical and mental developement is the chief aim of this popular camp.

The councilors at "Cedar-Pines" are keenly alive to their responsibilities for the safety and hapiness of the boys and girls entrusted to their care, and it is the kind of camp that parents may feel safe in sending their children to.

Every boy and girl has dreamed of the wonderful pleasures of camping and imagined living out under the blue skies by day and night sleeping under a coverlet of silent, twinkling stars. All have pictured the continuous moments of joy—hiking, cooking, breakfast, of the crackling fire—baseball, tennis, woodcraft, fishing, swimming, basketball, volleyball, minstrel, circus, stunt nights, camp emblem tests and swapping stories around the evening camp fire after dark.

A typical day's program at camp "Cedar-Pines":

6:15	Reveille
6:50	Flag raising, setting-up exercises, morning dip.
7:30	Breakfast
7:45	Bungalows in order
7:50	Bungalow inspection
8:00	Bible study, morning assembly
8:30	Camp duties
9:15	Special institute groups
10:00	Sports, coached by leaders
10:45	Beginner's swimming lesson
11:00	Morning swim
1:00	Rest, letter writing, reading
2:00	Athletics, ball games, boating, hiking, etc.
4:15	Beginner's swim
4:30	Afternoon swim
6:00	Supper
7:00	Campus games, etc.
8:00	Camp fire, talks, special entertainments.
9:30	Tattoo
9:45	Taps, lights out, quiet

Every Day a Happy Day

There will be at least one hundred girls entering camp on Thursday, June 26, when the girl's camp begins. The girls' camp will continue for a period of three weeks. The boys' camp will open on July 24, and a capacity crowd is expected, during this season which is the ninth consecutive season for this popular camp. Boys and girls were entered last season from five different states.

A camp booklet is issued and those interested may obtain one by communication with the Y. M. C. A. at Jersey Shore, Pa.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the sessions of this convention. It is becoming more and more apparent that it is of supreme importance to strongly support the greatest agency in modern times for the religious training of children and youth, and to keep our Sunday schools up to the highest standard.

Each one of the 19 schools of the district will elect two delegates. All pastors, Sunday school superintendents and teachers in the district are earnestly urged to be in attendance at the convention, as well as all Sunday school workers in the district.

Pastors and superintendents are requested to announce the convention and urge a large attendance from their respective congregation and schools.

Singing, conducted by H. L. Caldwell, will enliven all the sessions. Delegates will be entertained.

District No. 2 includes the Sunday schools of the following places: Curwensville, Grampian, Glen Richey, Lumber City, Pike township, and Penn Township.

PHILIPSBURG NOTES

The State Centre Game Fish and Forestry Association has been organized in Philipsburg, the object of which is to conserve the forests and streams and the wild life therein. Its purpose is to see that Centre and Clearfield counties get their allotment of fish and game from state and federal game reserves and hatcheries, and to see that the same is distributed in all sections of said counties where the association is represented.

Among other things the association is in favor of the hunter's license law; the dog law; of a state hatchery and game preserve for this section; the building of dams and lakes on our streams for the further protection of fish and game. The organization opposes the stocking of private waters and fisheries from publicly owned hatcheries with state owned fish, and to private hunting or fishing grounds where state game or fish is found. The members of the association promise to co-operate with the fire wardens to reduce the fire hazards.

The association is anxious to increase its membership and thereby aid in making hunting and fishing in this section more appealing and the streams and hunting grounds better places to spend their leisure hours. Applications for membership can be secured from A. G. Ericson, J. W. Beals, J. Frank Kephart, of Philipsburg, and Game Protector Wm. J. Davis, of Clearfield.

Philipsburg Children Lose Sight of Eye

Within the past four weeks three children residing in this section—two boys and a girl—through injuries have lost the sight of one of their eyes. The three were admitted to the Philipsburg State hospital, one having been struck in the eye from a burning coal from the stove; another received a blow in the eye from a stick while playing and the other received injuries during the explosion of a dynamite cap. The children, all youths, will never have to go through this world [illegible] a great handicap, but with the use of the other eye may be able to succeed.

Died At Hospital Following Operation

Mrs. Joseph Graham, aged 40, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Chester Hill, passed away at the local State hospital following an operation for goitre. She had been admitted to the institution but 48 hrs. before, when her condition was critical. Her health had been failing for more than a year. Death relieved her of her sufferings early Friday morning.

CALUMET
THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

Wholesome—Clean—Dependable

Wholesome—because it contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Food Authorities.

Clean—because it is manufactured in the most sanitary baking powder factories in the world, equipped with specially designed machinery to prevent exposure and contamination. The materials in it are untouched by human hands from the start to the finish in the sealed can.

Dependable—because every possible precaution known to Baking Powder scientists—the combined knowledge of a staff of Baking Powder experts—35 years of practical experience in the manufacture of Baking Powder—is used in our efforts to make its keeping qualities perfect.

Dependable—because Calumet is the Baking Powder that contains a small amount of dried white of egg—the ingredient that makes possible the "Water Glass Test." This test is a simple but important and positive method that enables you or anyone to easily prove that Calumet has preserved its remarkable leavening power.

Our salesmen frequently test the Calumet Baking Powder they find on the grocers' shelves to make sure that it is up to the Calumet standard. That's why it reaches you in the same perfect condition as it leaves the factory.

The test is not a comparative test of the strength of different kinds of Baking Powders. The "Water Glass Test" does not show the strength of a Baking Powder that does not contain white of egg. It does, however, show the superiority of Calumet in other respects.

The "Water Glass Test" furnishes a guarantee of reliability. It is Baking Powder Insurance.

Let us send you free a "Big Story in a Little Book," which describes the Water Glass Test.

Calumet Baking Powder is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every particular, and to be as represented in every respect.

Original Water Heater

The first water heater known dates back some two thousand years. This was the "sheenum" of the Romans, a crude bronze kettle with a handle for swinging over an open fire. The "focus," an apparently later device, was a metal container into which hot stones were put to heat the water surrounding them. This seems to have been the best water heater the early Romans were able to devise.

Woman

If a man is in grief, who cheers him? In trouble, who consoles him? In wrath, who soothes him? In joy, who makes him doubly happy? In prosperity, who rejoices? In disgrace, who backs him against the world, and dresses with gentle unguents and warm poultices the rankling wounds made by the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune? Who, but woman, if you please.—William Makepeace Thackeray.

YOU'LL ENJOY YOUR LUNCHES IF YOU EAT THEM HERE

There are lunches and lunches. The one is the ordinary kind that is eaten without thought of enjoyment—simply a mechanical process. But the lunches you eat here are not only full of the keenest relish but the surroundings are so cozy and the service so good that you'll enjoy every minute you are here.

Cat Mothers Fox Pups.

An Ontario reader writes that her cat fostered three fox pups since they were two weeks old. The pups were taken from the mother because it was feared they might visit. The cat had five kittens which were disposed of, and the foxes were promptly adopted in their place. The foxes are now over three months old and although larger than their foster mother, are still fond of her. They are kept now in a wire pen and kitty is quite content to remain with them all day long, enjoying an occasional frolic.

COMMUNISTS SHOW THIRD PARTY HEADS HOW TO RUN THINGS

By KENNETH CLARK

Convention Hall, St. Paul, June 17.—The bitter-show down fight that is brewing between the Communists and the more conservative Farm-Labor elements over the question of immediately forming a new independent third party was temporarily averted under an arrangement reached among the leaders shortly after the Farmer-Labor Progressive convention got break out openly on the floor at the off-set, the convention managers, by strategic movements, succeeded in having the fight referred again to committees, where the Communists are outranked.

Instead of permitting the battle to under way here today.

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

St. Paul, June 17.—A little band of ten men, all admitted dyed-in-the-wool Communists, today threatened to disrupt completely the Farmer-Labor-Progressive third party convention which met here in opening session.

Three days' work behind closed doors, during which the leaders of the new third party movement thought they had succeeded in curbing the Communists, the thorn in the side of this convention, was rendered virtually useless when the radical element, maneuvering for controlling position, pressed vigorously on the floor for full recognition and equal representation with all other groups in the meeting.

The Communists demanded not only official recognition of their party, but complete acceptance of their platform and plans for the immediate formation of a third party headed by an Independent ticket of candidates from which Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin, would be excluded.

Seldom has a political convention entered upon its work with such confusing problems and with so many cross currents of opinion.

With the single exception of routine organization not a major problem was settled when William Mahoney, temporary chairman, rapped the convention in order.

Until twelve hours ago it seemed that everything had been worked out satisfactorily. The program was to ignore the Communists in the make-up of the convention and then proceed immediately to endorse LaFollette for the Presidency, if he decides to run.

The leaders, confident that LaFollette's formal announcement was imminent, planned to have the convention to select an executive committee of 96 members two from each state, with power to confer endorsement of this Farmer-Labor group upon the militant Wisconsin progressive. Upon this committee the Communists demanded representation.

Then came the overnight change. Its suddenness was as dramatic as it was sensational.

Back of it all were the Communist delegates, ten men, five from the Workers party and five from the Federated Farmer-Labor party.

As the first step, the party managers, with Mahoney at the helm, receded from their previous stand to keep the Communists as a party organization out of the convention. It was first decided that they should come in as representatives of trade unions but not as members of the Communist party.

The Radicals, under the leadership of W. Z. Foster, C. E. Ruthenberg and Joseph Manley, claimed that when the call for the convention was sent out last November the Communists were included. So the managers relented, Mahoney announcing when the switch in plans was made that "it would be a breach of the Faith now not to admit the Communist party."

But this did not satisfy the Communists. They threatened even to balk the plans for the formation of the national executive committee of 96 members.

The Communists said flatly that they did not want any executive committee but demanded to proceed at once with the launching of an independent party with candidates of its own chosing and selection. This was aimed as a direct slap at LaFollette, who savagely attacked the Radicals in his recent letter to Herman Ekern, Attorney General of Wisconsin.

Mahoney and Lieutenants particularly Thomas Ayres, Farmer-Labor candidate for the senate in South Dakota and Walter Mills of the Farmer-Labor party of California, opposed the immediate formation of a third party, prefering first to perfect the State Famer-Labor parties and indorse LaFollette as the only step in national politics this year. They commanded a majority of the delegates, but even so their hands were tied by the Communists.

So completely, in fact, were Mahoney and his followers bound by the Communists that not a single committee was ready to report to the convention at the opening today, although all the major committees, platform, nominations and organization have been in almost constant session for three days.

Unless the Communists lines can be broken it seemed that the convention will be dragged out for the three day period that it was scheduled.

Though Mahoney claimed the largest following, the Communists went into the convention "holding the balance of power," for it was they, and they alone, who threatened to smash the plans that the party managers had so carefully laid, indorse LaFollette and deter the launching of a strongly centralized national third party of Farmers and Labors.

Want Col. Asher Miner To Head Disabled Vets

Wilkes Barre, June 17 (United Press)—The executive commitee of District No. 3, Disabled Veterans of the World War, comprising the states of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland, has decided to nominate General Ashur Miner, of Wilkes Barre for National Commander at their convention in Salt Lake City, starting June 23, Bernard Delinski, state commander anounced here

A strong fight will be made for Miner as it is felt that a man from the East should be the next national commander, Delinski said. General Miner, who was wounded overseas during the world war, has long been prominent in affairs of the Pennsylvania National Guard. He is thoroughly familiar with the needs of the disabled war veterans.

A strong delegation from Pennsylvania will attend the national convention at which many important questions relating to the welfare of disabled soldiers will come up.

VARICOSE VEINS ARE QUICKLY REDUCED

No sensible person will continue to suffer from dangerous swollen veins or bunches when the new powerful, yet harmless germicide called Emerald Oil can readily be obtained at any well stocked drug store.

Ask for a two-ounce original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse substitutes. Use as directed and in a few days improvement will be noticed, then continue until the swollen veins are reduced to normal. It is guaranteed and is so powerful that it also reduces enlarged glands, goitres and wens.

UNDER THE DOME OF THE CAPITOL

Harrisburg, Pa., June 17 (INS)—The State Board of Pardons will start its June session on Tuesday afternoon June 24, when Philadelphia cases will be heard, and the following day will hear the other cases listed for the last hearings prior to the summer recess of the Board.

Two hundred and seventy salary increases were shown on the June 15 payrolls submitted to the State Treasury by the Game, Highway, Agriculture, Insurance, Labor and Industry, and Forestry Departments, running the total number of employes who have been granted more money to approximately 1,000 for the month.

The State Highway Department has filed a complaint with the Public Service Commission against the Reading Company, Carrol township and York county, alleging the dangerous condition of a bridge on State Highway Route 128 between Harrisburg and asking the commission to order replacement of the bridge.

The State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy, now a home for delinquent girls, may become a state reformatory for women prisoners of all kinds from the central counties under a plan discussed by boards of the trustees with Dr. Ellen C. Potter, secretary of Welfare. Dr. Potter, who has been making a special study of the general conditions under which women prisoners are kept, is very favorable to the plan, declaring that such an institution is very much needed.

Forty superintendents of dependent and delinquent children's institutions in the state are attending the summer institute which opened today at Thorn Hill School, Allegheny County.

The conference which will continue until Thursday June 19, is designed to enable the various institution managers to acquaint themselves with approved methods of handling the children entrusted to their care. A permanent organization to be known as the Pennsylvania Association of Institutional Workers will be formed before the meetings end.

To formulate a definite policy for handling the crippled children of the state, a special committee appointed by the Welfare Department, will meet here June 23. Members of the committee include:—Mrs. William Jennings, Dr. C. G. Turnbull, Dr. Francis H. Maxfield, Mrs. Mary S. Lownee, F. E. Brooks of Harrisburg, Mrs. Robert Mackintosh and Miss Rita Lord Sculler of Philadelphia, Miss Aluda Winkelman of Pittsburg, A. H. Standish of Williamsport, Allen F. Smith of Allentown, and Dr. E. E. Shifferstine of Coaldale.

Under authority of the latest legislature, Dr. Potter has issued an order defining the type of mental patients which the various State hospitals for mental diseases may accept, and the territory each will serve. The hospitals affected are those at Danville, Fairview, Harrisburg, Norristown, Warren, Warnersville, and Torrance.

WAR HAPPY EVENT

A day ever to be remembered was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Thomas, South 4th street, Saturday, June 14, when friends from the Trainmen's Auxiliary, Altoona, and Dames of Malta, Clearfield met in honor of Mrs. Thomas' (?) birthday.

The friends from Altoona (a jolly bunch) were as much surprised as the Host and Hostess, when the Dames with their well filled baskets, came in at the noon hour.

The chicken dinner with all the trimmings was soon disposed of, and the afternoon was spent in music and jollification, not saying much about getting our faces "took" by Shull, the photographer.

One lady from Altoona made the remark that she was a Hair Dresser, and was kept busy making older ones look younger. The day soon drew to a close, the friends departing wishing Mrs. Thomas many more happy birthdays.

There were more than thirty present.

WILL OF MRS B. J. HAYWOOD

An estate estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Haywood, widow of the former State Treasurer Benjamin J. Haywood, who died at Sharon last week, is devised to charitable purposes. This will, drawn in November, 1920, was offered for probate at Mercer. The will provides a gift of $25,000 to the American Sunday School Union, an undenominational society. The spacious Haywood home in Sharon, together with its furnishings, is devised to the Presbyterian Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation as a home for superannuated ministers, and all of the remainder of the estate is given to support and maintain the institution.

Mrs. Curtis Brooks and son Curtis Brooks Jr. of Akron, Ohio, are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Nightingale on Nichols St.

LOCAL MARINE ON DUTY IN HAITI

Washington, June 17.—Starting on a period of duty in the tropics, Charles Edward Hale, nephew of Mrs. Jessie McCracken of Tyler, Clearfield County, Pa., is now on duty with the U. S. Marines in Haiti, according to the official reports at Marine Corps headquarters here. He will proably remain in the West Indies a year or longer before returning to the United States.

A small force of Marines have been stationed in Haiti since 1915, when the soldiers of the sea landed in that country to restore order during a revolution. During their occupation of Haiti, the Marines have established school systems, aided in the building of roads and public works, and have encouraged agriculture and thrift among the natives.

Charles joined the Marine Corps at Pittsburgh in October, 1922, and spent several weeks at Parris Island, S. C., where he learned the various duties performed by marines. He left that station recently with a detachment of marines bound for Port au Prince, the picturesque capital of Haiti.

DARK HORSE LOOMS AS REAL NOMINEE AT DEM. CONVENTION

Political Captains Appear to Be Shaping Things to Dump Both McAdoo and Smith.

CLANS GATHERING

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

New York, June 17.—The Democratic National Convention that meets in Madison Square Garden one week from today will be a "battle of the second choice" if the talk among the leaders now here can be accepted as an accurate indication of what the average Democratic mind is thinking.

While public discussion of candidates and their chances naturally revolves about the trio presented by McAdoo—Smith—Underwood it is of second choice that the leaders speak when the discussion gets down to the private stage.

The plain and unvarnished reason therefore is that comparatively few of the leaders believe that McAdoo, Smith or Underwood can be nominated.

They envision a long drawn out battle between McAdoo and Smith. They see a deadlock at the Garden comparable to the Clark-Wilson deadlock in Baltimore, the Cox-McAdoo deadlock at San Francisco, and in the end they see a dark horse come galloping from some middle western box stall and get the oats, just as Harding at Chicago four years ago, came forth and captured the Republican nomination after Lowden, Wood and Johnson had figuratively kicked each other to death for ballot after ballot.

It might be pointed out that in other famous Democratic deadlocks, one of the leaders has come through—Wilson at Baltimore for instance, or Cox at San Francisco. But it is also pointed out that issues and conditions govern this contest which were completely lacking in other conventions—religion and Ku Klux Klanism, wet and dry, the League of Nations and a score of lesser issues that spawn rigid beliefs and unyielding positions.

This belief in the destiny of a second choice—it amounts almost to conviction on the part of the many shrewd party prophets—constitutes the sole stock in hope of the Ralston managers, the John W. Davis Boosters, the Glass People, the Cummins crowd, the Copeland forces, every one, in fact, whose name has been drawn into this Democratic melting pot.

Their representatives and friends are already on the ground here. They ask the new arrival with obvious casualness concerning his predilections towards the leading triumvirate, and then almost beat their first question with their second:

"And who is your second choice?"

The McAdoo managers, led by Judge David Ladd Rockwell, and the Smith Managers, whose spokesman is Franklin D. Roosevelt, are apprehensively cognizant of this situation.

Pre-Convention activities began to pick up today. Governor Smith took personal charge of his headquarters in Madison Avenue and greeted newcomers.

Tomorrow McAdoo headquarters in the Vandervilt Hotel will be taken over by McAdoo in person. He will be accorded a demonstration upon his arrival here from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chase has returned from Ann Arbor, Mich., where she attended the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. Her daughter, Miss Mary Chase, received her bachelor's degree from the Literary College of the University.

FRANCE'S PROBLEMS EASY TO SOLVE, SAYS PRESIDENT HERRIOT

By FRANK E. MASON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Paris, June 17—"France nourishes no dangerous ambition, but aspires only to obtain payment of reparations and guarantees for security which were solemnly promised to her," said President Doumergue in his first message to Parliament this afternoon.

The mesage on Government policy was read simultaneously in the Chamber of Deputies and Senate shortly after 3 o'clock.

"France's problem would be easy to solve," continued the President, "if there were a pure atmosphere of peace everywhere. It is not France's fault that conditions are what they are."

President Doumergue praised the Dawes Reparation plan saying:

"Since the international experts' Reparation report has been prepared, the reparations question seems to be on the road to a solution. The debtor however must prove his good faith by precise acts, not by simple agreements."

President Doumergue, in conclusion said "France cannot give up right for supervision of the vanquished enemy, who seems to be preparing revenge."

BIG AMERICAN 'PEEG' DOWNS 'SPIC' CHAMP

New York, June 17 (INS.)—Andreas Balsa, Champion heavyweight of Spain, won't do—he will never fight Jack Dempsey. Upon that all experts today were agreed.

Balsa, a bull necked, heavy bodied individual, was given his first chance here last night to show what he could do against American fighters. He was pitted agains the fast, clean cut Iowa heavyweight, Floyd Johnson. He was beaten almost to a pulp, beaten so badly, in fact, that the referee stopped the bout in the third round.

It was a sickening, bloody battle. Balsa, with his arms wrapped about his chin, and crouching like a wrestler that he is said to be, rushed at Johnson when the bell sounded for the opening round. Johnson put out his left, stopped the onrushing Spaniard and then let fly with a terrific right uppercut. Balsa careened against the ropes and blood poured from his nose.

Spank! went Johnson's fist into Balsa's face as the fight progressed. It was spank blood. Spank blood. Spank, Blood. Balsa was a novic, game but untutored. Johnson kept standing back and smashing him.

Blood was all over the ring, all over Balsa's face and smeared across Johnson's body as a result of clinching with the blindly battling Balsa.

In the second round Johnson hit Balsa so often and so hard he was fagged when the gong rang.

Johnson started to slaughter Balsa in the third. He belted him time and again, finally opening a deep gash over the left eyebrow. Blood spurted out.

"Stop it!" cried the six thousand spectators. Referee Tommy Sheridan did.

Money Available For Rockview Construction

Harrisburg, June 17. (INS.)—The $300,000 appropriated by the 1921 legislature is available for use in construction of the western penitentiary at Rockview, the attorney general's office declared in an opinion today. The opinion is contrary to the belief of Auditor General S. S. Lewis who some time ago said the money was not available.

The decision hinged on one of names. The legislature appropriated the money for the board of inspectors, which was abolished by the administrative code. The opinion holds that the money is available to the board of trustees—the new ruling body provided for by the code.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffot, Mrs. Bouch, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Merrits, of Altoona spent Saturday with Mrs. G. W. Thomas South 4th street.

LT. MAUGHAN READY FOR THIRD CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHT

Mitchell Fiedl, New York, June 17. (INS.)—Lieut. Russel L. Maughan and the fastest airplane in the world were ready today for the third attempt on a "dawn to dusk" flight across the United States. Two previous efforts by Maughan failed, but with a much faster ship improved in many details from experiences of the two failures, he was confident he would reach San Francisco 17½ hours after the hop off from Mitchell field.

The start may be made at 4 o'clock New York daylight saving time tomorrow, but indications were the flight would not get under way until Thursday morning. Maughan is awaiting for word from four mechanics who left Friday for the immediate landfields where the stops will be made to re-fuel.

The schedule calls for 15½ hours flying time and an hour and 20 minutes for stops on the 2,606 mile flight.

The first stop will be at Dayton, Ohio, 570 miles from New York flying field. The second stop will be at St. Joseph, Mo., another hop of 570 miles. Cheyenne, Wyo., will be the third stop a hop of 490 miles, and Salduro, Utah, a 480-mile leap, the last stop before San Francisco. He expects to cover the first two laps in 2½ hours flying time and the last three in 3½ hours each.

The plane, an army pursuit ship, has a maximum speed of 170 miles an hour and Lieutenant Maughan said today he expected to make an average of 163 miles an hour.

His first flight ended at Rock Springs, Wyo., about a year ago, and the second last July was halted at St. Joseph, Mo., by engine trouble.

New York, June 17. (INS.)—If atmospheric conditions are favorable—and it doesn't rain—Lieut. Russel L. Maughan, army flier, will attempt his dawn to dusk trans-continental airplane flight next Thursday, he said today.

Maughan plans to start at 3:22 a. m., daylight saving time, in an army pursuit plane and to reach San Francisco inside of 17 hours, maintaining an average speed of 160 miles an hour.

BIDS FOR 40 MILES OF ROAD ARE OPENED

Harrisburg, June 16.—Action to make available for road construction part of the proceeds of the $50,000,000 highway bond issue approved by the voters last November was announced today by Governor Pinchot. The governor, in letters to Auditor General Lewis and State Treasurer Snyder, proposed the issuance of $15,000,000 in bonds, to bear 4¼ per cent interest, payable semi-annually, with the exception that the first payment would be for one year and before May 1, 1925. The governor proposed that the sale of onds be held July 22.

The governor recommended the bonds be advertised in daily newspapers in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New York City, Harrisburg, Scranton and Erie, all to be chosen by the auditor general.

The $15,000,000 from the first sale would not be needed until August 1 of this year, it was announced, Federal aid payment and funds from the first program to that date. For replacement, the motor license fund is being used.

Huckleberries May Be Plenty This Year

Lansford, June 17 (United Press.) This will be a fine year for huckelberries, which usually abound in this region, according to information received lately from the mountains. Heavy rains were reported to have helped the berries along and incidentally helped the inhabitants to their well earned receipts for picking them. Forest fires have not been serious enough to destroy the supply this year and between now and July thousands of women and children will be active gathering the berries.

Rev. and Mrs. Granger and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Way, of Williamsport, are visiting at D. Gardlock's at Curwensville.

5 BANDITS HOLD UP STREET CAR; ROB PAY MASTER OF RUSSELL COAL CO., CLYMER, OF $28,000, SEMI-MONTHLY PAYROLL

Punxsutawney, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Police from every county in northwestern Pennsylvania this afternoon are searching for the band of five bandits who held up Alec Caldwell, of the Russell Coal Company of Clymer, Pa., today and escaped with $28,000 in cash being brought to Clymer for the semi-monthly pay.

Caldwell and George Askey, a guard, were bringing the payroll from the bank at Indiana, Pa., to Clymer on an interurban car when the five robbers boarded the car six miles from Indiana. A few minutes after they had placed themselves in different parts of the car, the men pulled revolvers at a signal and held up the few passengers and the coal company employes.

Caldwell said the men looked like Italians and probably were former employes at the company's mines.

Grabbing the money, the men jumped from the car and disappeared in the woods.

No trace of them has been found.

Another registered mail pouch also carried on the car was reported stolen, but the contents of this pouch have not been determined.

Padlock Injunctions In State Courts Are Urged

Washington, June 17 (INS.)—"Padlock" injunction suits in state as well as Federal courts to enforce the liquor laws will be employed through efforts of the Federal Prohibition unit, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes announced today.

Haynes said that briefs of law on the right to file injunction suits in the state courts aore being distributed to prosecuting attorneys in every state. Use of injunctions will take cases before judges instead of juries and therefore save time.

LOST LIFE WHEN HOME BURNED

Charleston, W. Va., June 15 (INS.)—Bennie Ehman, 18, son of Henry Ehman, prominent farmer, was burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Ehman home here today.

The youth was trapped when he went back into the blazing house from which the family had fled to get a wrap for his mother, who was thinly clad. The charred body was recovered several hours later.

OSCEOLA MAN HAS SKULL FRACTURE

Norman O'Brien, 20 years old, of Osceola Mills, suffered a possible fracture of the skull late Sunday afternoon when his automobile was struck by a Tyrone street car near Washington avenue and First street, Tyrone.

He was taken into Tyrone by a passing motorist and was later removed to the Altoona hospital where he was admitted and X-ray pictures of his injuries taken. His condition is reported to be fairly good.

According to the report of Motorman Mays, who operated the street car, O'Briren had backed his automobile directly into the path of the street car, O'Brien had backed his automocar was almost abreast of the automobile.

Three New Witnesses Testify At Ebensburg

Eensburg, Pa., June 17. (INS.)—Three new witnesses—two of them women—were injected today into the trial of William Monahan, Lilly, Pa., resident indicted on murder charges in conneceion with the fighting between Lilly men and Ku Klux Klansmen at Lilly during a klan demonstration there.

Esther Hanna and her sister Anna, young Lilly women, told how they were attarked by unmasked men after cheering the marching klansmen, and the yonuger girl, Anna, said she had received a broken ankle in the melee.

Formal testimony was offered mainly at today's court session, most of it being a recounting of previous testimony at the trial of Samuel Evans, a klansman who was acquitted of the murder charges in connection with three deaths during the riroting.

Rev. Alban, wife and daughter attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Thomas, Saturday, June 14.

SEEKING ALLEGED SLAYER OF BRIDE

Milwaukee, June 17. (INS.)—While George Cummings, who is sought in connection with the slaying of his bride of a week in the tourist camp at Wittenberg, was endeavoring to reach the Canadian border today, radio messages giving the most minute description of the man and pleading with authorities to "get him dead or alive" were being broadcast hourly from Minneapolis and Stevens Point, Wis.

And while the net to capture Cummings was being spread, the body of the vain, romantic woman of 62, who bobbed her hair and said she was 39, was prepared for shipment to her middle aged daughter, in Grand Rapids.

All last night, investigators combed and recombed the tourists camping grounds for additional clues which might lead to the solution of one of Wisconsin's strangest crimes. Near the place where the body of the woman lay, murdered some time Sunday, were also discovered her raincoat and other articles of feminine apparel.

The body was not in an actual grave. It had been pressed into a muddy ditch after being wrapped in a robe and army blanket. Stout cords bound it, in a sitting, cramped position.

No trace has been found of the 39-year-old husband who married the 62-year-old woman. Since he had a complete camping outfit with plenty of supplies, it is believed he will long remain in hiding. It is even believed that he will remain in the northern Wisconsin woods for several months until the "hysteria" dies down before making his dash for the Canadian border.

The "Elusive Lamb" Follows Mary Again

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 17 (INS.)—Thomas Lamb, with a record of many escapes from police stations and arresting officers, slipped thru a cordon of police at Center avenue, police station here today just before he was called for a hearing on a charge of larceny, and despite the efforts of the entire city police and detective forces, there is no single clue to his whereabouts.

The escaped prisoner who is known as "the elusive Lamb", was arrested at Steubenville, O., his alleged home yesterday, and brought here last night by City detective James Hoey. When arrested at Steubenville, Lamb broke away from the arresting officer, and ran two blocks for liberty before a pedestrian stopped him.

He was turned over to Detective headquarters last night, strapped to a chair and guarded by three men. Later in the night he was taken to the Center Ave., station, but is believed to have walked out of the cell room when drunken prisoners were arraigned this morning.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Orcutt have announced the marriage of their daughter, Nathalia Ernestine, to Charles B. Davis, Jr., of Danville, Pa., on May 12. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home in Danville after July 1.

COUNCIL HELPS TO MAKE CLEARFIELD BUSIEST OF TOWNS

WANT SIDEWALKS

There is more building and general improvement, both private and public, under way in Clearfield at the present time than in any other town anyway near our size in central or western Pennsyvania. The borough council, judging by the reports of its officers and the action taken at last evening's meeting, is going to continue its full share of improving for all summer long.

Chairman Beahan of the highway committee reported Cherry street paving about completed and that the work of paving Front street would be taken up tomorrow. He also recommended that Locust street be paved from Third to Fourth and council directed that an ordinance be prepared providing for this work.

Chairman Adams of the sewer committee announced that he was ready to start his sewer building crew on the big 24-inch surface water sewer on Market street and recommended the re-laying of Walnut street sewer between Third and Fourth.

Bids were also opened for the building of the stone retaining wall along the river bank from Walnut street south, a distance of 800 feet or as much of that as could be provided for this year, at least half the distance. This work will be under the personal direction of President of Council Rosser.

Much General Improvement.

In addition to these new construction propositions, much general repairs and improvements are also being made by Street Commissioner Graham under the direction of the highway department. These projects were touched upon in the report of Engineer Hess, who reported much activity in sidewalk building throughout the town, induced by council's campaign, with Councilman Poorman in charge, to compel the building of sidewalk wherever the need for same exists.

New Walks Asked For.

Notices to build sidewalks were ordered served on the following property owners:

Bigler avenue:—Charles Canlian, James Pellente, Joe Marino, John Sample, Lawrence Holt, Joe Cologi, Tony Cassamenta, John Molic, Walter Welch, Frank Vreviana, Harry Nearhood, John Mudoskey, Guy Resanic, Joseph Ortassic, Charles Gardner.

West Third avenue:—E. Russell Williams, Ed. L. Shirey.

South Second street:—Cecil F. Wilson, W. L. Dethloff.

Witmer street:—John M. Bain.

Want Route Changed.

The State Highway Department asked permission to paint telephone poles through the town to denote Lakes-to-the-Sea highway route and permission was given. The Highway Department was notified that council would like to have the highway routed down Cherry from Second to Third, now that that block has been concreted, as such a change would do away with traffic congestion at the corner of Second and Market and Market and Third streets, and be a most decided advantage.

Recommend Annexation.

Chairman McKee, of the committee to report on proposed annexation to the borough of several blocks of lots adjoining the Fargo and Thompson properties on Turnpike avenue, made a report and recommended that the property be annexed to the borough. This will be done at next meeting of Council.

West Third Avenue Sewer.

Alex Black presented petition of property owners asking for a sanitary sewer on West Third avenue. The matter of sewer extension permits was discussed and Borough Solicitor Urey directed to take the matter up with State Health Commissioner by telephone in order to get some action, as permit for Linden street sewer, asked for more than one year ago, has never been acted upon.

Want Licenses Collected.

Chairman Gulich of Finance Committee reported that licenses for jitney and other passenger carrying buses operating in town had not been collected as provided for and the burgess was directed to proceed at once with such collection.

STATE HEALTH CAMP AT MONT ALTO OPENS MONDAY, JUNE 23D

Public Health Workers From Every County In State Will Be Among Those Present.

IT IS EDUCATIONAL

Harrisburg, June 17.—Three hundred public health workers, representing every county in the state, will attend the annual health camp conducted under the auspices of the state health department which will open at the Mont Alto Sanitarium next Monday morning. County medical inspectors, health officers, memebrs of boards of health, nurses and lay health workers will be included in the delegation that will attend this years's camp.

Speakers of national and state wide reputation—authorities upon tuberculosis, sanitation and child health measures—will school the 300 delegates to the camp in the task of safeguarding the health of the people of their county. Every phase of health activity will be discussed during the stay of the health workers at the camp with particular stress being placed upon tuberculosis prevention, protection of the health of children and the county health administration.

Dr. Charles H. Miner, secretary of health, will be in charge of the camp and he will place before the assembled health workers plans of the department for legislative changes in the present field health activities of the state.

A small tented city has already been erected at Mont Alto to house the invading army of health workers. An entire week will be devoted to the task of better fitting the health workers in the tasks allotted to them. Two camps, each of three days' duration, will be conducted. The first camp, attended by 150 health workers will open on Monday, June 23 and will close two days later. The second detachment of the health workers will then arrive and the early work program will be repeated for their benefit.

One of the features of the health camp will be practical clinics conducted by experts that will serve to demonstrate to the health officers certain lessons in the care of the public health. The clinics for the most part will be conducted in the afternoons with the mornings and evenings being devoted to speeches, lectures and motion picture demonstrations.

Governor Pinchot will address the health camp on June 25. The outstanding speaker at the camp will be Dr. John H. Ferrell, director of the United States Rockefeller Foundation. Dr. Wilmer Krusen, director of health in Philadelphia; Dr. A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Hand, of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Stengel, of Philadelphia; Dr. Samuel Haythorn, of the University of Pittsburgh; Dr. George Norris, of Philadelphia; a representative of State College; Dr. H. T. Price, professor of pediatrics at the University of Pittsburgh and a number of other medical experts are included in the list of speakers.

In addition, the members of the state health department staff will participate in the week's program. The progress made in the betterment of health conditions in the state will be presented in a series of charts and tables prepared by Dr. Wilmer B[illegible], chief of the statistical bureau of the state department of health.

President Coolidge Will Be In Attendance

Philadelphia, June 17 (United Press)—President Coolidge and other high officials will be in Philadelphia September 26, to attend the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first meeting of the Continental Congress in Carpenter's Hall. A parade is planned for the day with the First City Troop acting as escort for the President.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Punxsutawney—Walter Bird, 18 who had a splinter of a bone removed from his heart at the Adrain Hospital is said to have a good chance to recover, by hospital authorities today. Bird fell, and the revolver he was said to have been carrying was discharged the bullet entering his left breast driving a piece of bone into his heart. He was operated on yesterday.

Erie—Morgan Caryl, 12, is in the St. Vincent Hospital here today in a serious condition having been accidentally shot at a picnic, through a lung.

Pittsburgh—Thomas Savers, 48, a Spanish war veteran and partially blind is in the AlleghenyGeneral Hospital today suffering from heat prostration, the first of its kind this year in Pittsburgh. Sayers collapsed yesterday enroute to a bank.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Mrs Marie Soudern, taken into custody by police last night in connection with the finding of the body of a three year old boy in a suit case here recently which was identified as that of her son, was released today when she produced her son, alive and well.

Fernwood—Joseph Vance, of Philadelphia, was near death today from injuries suffered when a Gulf Refining Company Gasoline filling station tank exploded here. He was making an inspection on the lower levels of the station when the explosion occurred.

Philadelphia income tax returns for the second quarter in 23 counties of Pennsylvania amounted to $18,000,000 Collector of Internal Revenue McCaughan announced today.

Mauch Chunk—Three boys were injured and an automobile was completely wrecked when it rolled over a bank on the Pocono Mountain here early today. Frank Binder, driver of the car, was the only one seriously hurt.

Chambersburg, Pa., June 17 (INS.)—When his car plunged 10 feet down the side of McConnellsburg Mountain, S. Marshall Jackson, a Fulton county farmer, was instantly killed. His daughter, Margaret and two school mates, Gladys Walter and Lulu Fletcher, escaped with minor injuries. Jackson was taking the girls to the Shippensburg State Normal for Commencement exercises.

Harrisburg, Pa.—A Coroner's inquest to formally fix the cause of Mrs Manbeck's death, an attractive widow, found dead in the office of Dr. C. M. Dadley, prominent physician on June 1, when the doctor himself was shot through the shoulder. He has been charged with the woman's murder.

Lancaster—A panic was narrowly averted here last night when the floor of an auditorium collapsed while 400 men and women were attending a meeting. The people filed out and the meeting was continued in a nearby grove.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Forty persons narrowly escaped serious injury and traffic was tied up for several hours when a car attached to a south-bound train on the New York Philadelphia and Norfolk division of the Pensylvania railroad was derailed in a tunnel west of here today.

Philadelphia, June 17 (INS.)—Nelly, a little black and white dog, the pet of Billy Link, early today saved thousands of dollars worth of property here from almost certain destruction by fire.

The dog awakened his master who followed the animal to a spot where a small blaze had started. Close by was a large building in which turpentine and other highly inflammable material was stored.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

A regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of Mrs. Baumgardner on Friday evening. Meeting was led by Mrs. Runk, who distributed small flags in honor of Flag Day. Meeting opened with singing. Quotations from Scripture were read by the members, after which the Lord's Prayer was said in unison.

A letter on Enforcement, from Mrs. Marion was read by the President, and one by Mrs. Chorpening, from the County Secretary, thanking her for flowers sent.

A poem, "The Flag", including 1812, 1845, 1861, 1898, evidently written before the late War, was read by Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Hile read some excerpts from arguments presented by State President Mrs. George at the Beer Bill hearing. She said among many things, "We heard the cry of the children, who were only half fed and half clothed. We heard the cry of the mothers who were suffering untold anguish because husbands were exercising their so-called 'personal liberty' by trampling on the rights of their families by carrying most of their earnings to saloons."

"Make Our Home Town Dry," was read by Mrs. Edmiston, the author asking the question, "Won't You Work for Law Enforcement to Make Your Home Town Dry?" Then more pathetically exclaiming—"You are your brother's keeper," etc.

Articles of interest by Mrs. Upton St. Clair, and Mrs. Catherine Davis were read by Mrs. Runk.

Mrs. Smith read testimony from the Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers who said, among other things, that ten years before the church began fighting liquor, the necessity of it was seen, to safely run the trains, that liquor drinking by employees must cease; and steps were taken in that direction.

During the social time excellent refreshments were served, and during discussion of the habits of the girls of this favored land, much wonder and regret was expressed at the too common habits of cigarette-smoking and drinking.

The July meeting will be a picnic, at which all members are requested to be present.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Children between the ages of four and thirteen, both girls and boys, grow faster and better during August and the following three months than any other period of the year, according to results of careful study into the question of child nutrition by the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Boys make 55.3 per cent. and girls 59.8 per cent. of the total yearly growth between Aug. 1 and Dec. 1. The period of maximum gain is in the late summer and early fall, and the period of minimum advancement falls in the late spring and early summer.

While the same tendency holds for both boys and girls, it is most marked among the girls.

The Results Tabulated

	Boys		Girls
Months	Av. Gain in lbs	% of Annual Gain	Av. Gain in lbs	% of Annual Gain
Jan	.67	9.9	.53	8.3
Feb.	.51	7.6	.43	6.7
March	.43	6.4	.36	5.6
April	.43	6.4	.34	5.3
May	.25	3.7	—.05	*—.8
June	.06	.9	.08	1.3
July	.26	3.9	.35	5.4

Sept.	1.01	15.0	1.06	16.6
Oct.	1.00	14.8	1.00	15.6
Nov.	.83	12.3	.99	15.3
Dec.	.51	7.6	.53	8.4
Total yearly	6.71	100.	6.41	100.
Avg monthly	.55	8.3	.53	8.3

*In May the girls showed an average loss of .05 pounds. This is equivalent to 0.8% of the total gain.

The report says:

"The rate of growth in both height and weight over a given period of time is quite as important, in judging a child's state of development, as his attained stature and weight at any given period. Physicians, teachers, school nurses, and nutrition workers must rely on the gains made during short periods of from three to six months to determine whether the child is doing well, for obviously all healthy children must be expected to gain steadily in both height and weight.

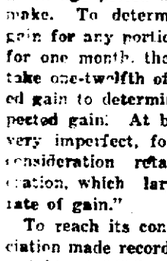
1,000 Children Tested

"The usual procedure has been to assume that the difference between the average height and weight of children of any age group and the average height and weight of children of the next group indicates the rate of gain which all children within the given age period may be expected to make. To determine the expected gain for any portion of the year, say for one month, the procedure is to take one-twelfth of the annual expected gain to determine the monthly expected gain. At best this method is very imperfect, for it leaves out of consideration retardation and acceleration, which largely determine the rate of gain."

To reach its conclusions the association made records of the successive weights of 1,000 children. This study is one of a series being carried on with funds given the association for the purpose of providing the basis of more effective public health and relief work by filling in the gaps in existing basic information. Whether climatic conditions affect this seasonal variation in growth is soon to be determined.

FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Mrs. Bradford Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound



Phoebus, Virginia.—"Having this opportunity I just cannot refrain from saying a word of praise for the Lydia E. Pinkham medicines. I have used them as occasion required for twenty years, and my three sisters have also used them, and always with the most gratifying results. During the Change of Life I had the usual distressing symptoms—hot flashes, insomnia, etc.,—and I am pleased to testify to the wonderful results I obtained from the Vegetable Compound. I heartily recommend it to any woman and I will be pleased to answer any inquiries that might be sent to me through the publication of my testimonial."—Mrs. H. L. BRADFORD, 169 Armistead Street, Phoebus, Virginia.

Consider carefully Mrs. Bradford's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She mentions the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, or if other annoying symptoms appear and you are blue at times, you should give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Mussolini Offers His Resignation To King

Rome, June 17 (INS.)—Following a lengthy conference between Premier Mussolini and King Victor Emmanuel at the Quirinal today it was rumored that Mussolini had offered his resignation as a result of political scandal over the kidnapping and slaying of the socialist deputy Giacomo Matteotti.

Al lthe members of the ministry offered their resignations to Premier Mussolini.

Important Government developments are expected within 24 hours.

ALICE ELNORA McLAUGHLIN

Alice Elnora Morrison McLaughlin daughter of the late James and Rebecca Morrison, was born May 10, 1862, in Goshen Township, and died May 25, 1924, aged 62 years and 15 days.

She was preceded to the grave by an infant brother and an adopted daughter, Mrs. J. E. Edwards, also a sister Mrs. Lillian Haney who died March, 14, 1924.

She leaves to mourn her death one son, Jas. A. McLaughlin, of Park Street, four sisters; Mrs. William Arthurs, Mrs. Hannah H. Shimmel, Mrs. Ben Dale and Mrs. Laura Gearhart, also two brothers Harvey and Ed Morrison.

Eleven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren also survive.

The services were held at the home of her son, May 29. The services were conducted by Rev. Armstrong with Leavy orclating.

MRS. McLAUGHLIN RECOVERS

Mrs. Clara McLaughlin of Fisher, Clarion County, who has been seriously ill at the home of her nephew, Jas A. McLaughlin of Park street, toured to her home on Sunday last.

The following children, who were called to her bedside during her illness have returned to their respective homes: Arthur of Sunhurst, N. C.; Floyd, of Pittsburgh, Chester of Ellet, Ohio; Harvey of Kane, Pa.; Mrs. Ed. Ransom and Mrs. Chas. Greyhil of Fisher.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. McLaughlin and family wish to thank the friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses during the sickness and death of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Alice McLaughlin.

How Jewfish Got Name

It is said that the largest ever caught in the Gulf of Mexico was five feet long, eight feet in circumference just back of the gills, and weighed 348 pounds. The principle jewfish is somewhat rare. The only explanation ever given by Dampier in his "Voyages," written in 1729. He wrote: "This fish is a very good fish, and is called by the English because it has scales and fins, therefore is reckoned by the Levitical law."

Mollusk Does Harm

A small mollusk known as a gribble has been reported to have caused extensive injury to the brickwork at the entrance to one of the dry docks at Calcutta. The creature eats its way into the bricks where the surface glaze has been destroyed. In this particular case they were destroyed after having penetrated to about half an inch, but scientists believe that except for that they would have destroyed all the brickwork.

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:

After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation . . . for more than twenty years . . . after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a specific for constipation.

. . . I deem it only justice that you should know what your product has done for me, and what it is able of doing for others."

The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestines in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.

If eaten regularly Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and krumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.

For those long summer runs

LONG non-stop runs subject the oil in your crank-case to a terrific punishment—a constant battering at high motor temperature. Low-heat-resisting oils change their physical characteristics under such conditions; they lose their "body"—their capacity to maintain a separating film between the friction surfaces of bearings, cylinders and pistons.

You know what that means!

Put your motor under the protection of high-heat-resisting Atlantic Motor Oil. It has the highest resistance to heat, pressure and impact—the greatest body-holding capacity—of any line of motor oils that has ever come from the Atlantic refineries.

Atlantic dealers have a chart carrying The Atlantic Refining Company's official recommendations as to the correct type of oil for your car or truck—Atlantic Medium, Heavy, Special Heavy or Polarine.

THE CANCER CURE

Hope was stirred in millions of despairing hearts when it was first announced that a Canadian physician had isolated the "cancer germ" and had developed a serum with which many cures had been made. The account of his work, published in a Philadelphia newspaper, has been challenged. It is said that the Journal of the American Medical Association in 1921 told of the investigation of an alleged cancer cure, claimed by a physician of the same name, and the conclusion that there was no value in it.

American physicians doubt whether any progress has been made since along the line in question. Dr. James Ewing of the Cornell Laboratory, New York City, addressing a group of the American Medical Association, says:

"Cancer is not a germ disease, and so a serum treatment would be worthless. The effective treatment of cancer is accomplished by surgery, the X-ray and radium in combination."

The public may safely take the word of the medical profession on this point until absolutely convincing evidence is shown to the contrary. Much progress has been made in cancer treatment along the lines mentioned, in recent years, and it is definitely stated by reputable physicians that most cases of cancer are curable by the knife, radium or X-ray if recognized and taken in time.

The thing for a patient to do in any case of suspicion is to go to his family physician and take that physician's advice. The medical profession is doubtless "getting warm" in its search for the basic cause of cancer, and sooner or later will announce it, and adopt preventive as well as remedial measures, but it will not do to anticipate that time with false hopes.

"MORAL INSANITY"

The defense of two bright young murderers in Chicago is to be "moral insanity". That is an interesting variation.

The boys evidently knew exactly what they were doing, planning it long in advance, carefully rehearsing their program and carrying it out with incredible coolness and precision. And during the whole period preceding and following the actual deed, they seem to have gone through all their normal activities, college work, family and social life, etc., without any evidence of mental or emotional aberration.

The defense will insist that this very fact proves the boys did not know right from wrong. Their brains may have been clear but their moral sense was not. Wherefore, it will be argued, they should not be punished for murder but merely be placed in some corrective institution.

This is a plausible theory. The boys' moral sense was certainly very dull. But a moralist, if not a lawyer, will want to ask how it happened to be so—whether the conscience of these lads was dull from birth, or whether they made it dull by deliberate, long-continued acts of selfish indulgence and brutality, steadily increasing in wickedness. Also whether, if escaping the gallows and going to some public institution, they will be released as morally "cured" after a year or two, to continue their experiments in sin.

"I BEQUEATH—"

Your full duty to those who look to you for financial protection is NOT done when you make your Will. Inherited money soon takes wings unless the way it is to be managed is also provided for.

Let this strong and responsible institution protect your dear ones when you no longer can. We will gladly advise with you as to ways and means.

ABOUT THIS TIME O' YEAR!

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL STAGE PICNIC

The Clearfield Commercial Club met last evening with Mine Host Jordan and a livey meeting was staged from the first rap of President Shillingford's impromptu gavel.

Following the committee reports it was decided to have a picnic to which the wives, sisters, daughters and friends of the members would be invited. The time, place and other details were put up to the entertainment committee.

It was decided to accept the invitation of the Rotary Club to meet with them in the near future to hear Supt. A. K. Johnson, of the Tyrone Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad who will speak on railroad matters pertaining to this region.

Three new members were elected to membership in the club, Albert F. Scheutte, manager of the A. W. Leonardson Co., Ralph A. Hunter, owner of the drug store formerly operated by Woodward & McPherson and Frank "Passy" Passmore, proprietor of the Leonard House.

Mr McGarry, Manager of the Dimeling Hotel, gave the club some interesting information relative to the amount of travel which will pass thru this city on the Lakes-toSea Highway, stating that he already had reservations booked far into the summer by tourists who would make Clearfield their over-night stopping place. And in this connection, the Publicity Committee of the Club has arranged to send to each one of these parties a list of the industries, the fraternal organizations and their meeting nights, the churches and the locations thereof so that these people passing thru our city will know that we are a friendly city and are glad to have the folks here.

Rev. A. Roy Hauser, pastor of the Lutheran church, gave the club a stirring talk on the example set by the older men for the younger generation and pleaded that the members of the club set such an honorable example for the youth of this city that the influences growing out of such examples would be for the betterment of the rising generation.

Antonio Moreno Gorman, newly elected Sargeant at arms was duly inducted into office with fitting ceremonies after which the club adjourned.

"OLD TIMER" HOME AGAIN

Dave Adams, an old-time Clearfield boy, who has been located at Los Angeles, California, for several years, but who first shook the dust of old Clearfield from his brogans nearly 20 years ago, is back home on a visit to his brothers Tommy and Bill and other relatives in this section.

Time has dealt gently with Dave and Dame Fortune also patted his head as she tilted her famous cornucopia of plenty and he is both looking and has a right to feel prosperous. He is being kept quite busy greeting old time friends and is enjoying his visit.

Dave has the Pacific coast perspective and before he had got through telling us how much improved and how much he enjoyed coming back to Clearfield, he was telling us just how much Los Angeles had increased since he went there and how much bigger his home city was than her rival San Francisco.

He also told us, and gloried in the telling, that he had helped carry California for Wilson in 1916, but cautioned us against telling brother Tommy about it until after he left Clearfield and was at least six miles away on his return journey. We promised.

Make Funnel From Eggshell.

When it is desired to fill narrow-necked bottles and a funnel is unavailable, one can be improvised from an eggshell. The shell should be quite dry, and a small opening made at the bottom. Stand the shell so that the hole is well over the opening of the container to be filled, and proceed as with a regular funnel.

WHERE SCIENCE STOPS

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"Science finds cancer germ!"

This is the startling news published last week in the newspapers.

One by one the strongholds of disease are being broken down.

The outlook for long life and happiness ought to grow better and better It won't be long before the last of the deadly diseases will be conquered by men of science and only the phenomenon of old age will baffle us. Even that secret, the scientists are claiming to have solved, and one investigator after another offers his rule for the prolongation of life.

And yet, though we baffle the enemies which attack our bodies, we cannot discover the magic serum of peace and happiness.

Wise men have failed to teach us that it is small gain to vanquish the enemies of disease, if we nurture the still more devastating enemies of greed and hatred and selfishness.

Finding the deadly cancer germ and learning the secret of vanquishing it spares a few lives from horrible suffering and lengthens the average span of life by just that much. But as long as hatieds thrive and wars threaten, the world moves but imperceptibly forward.

True enough, the scentists have done their bit. Small-pox and diphtheria and typhoid fever, and malaria, and now even diabetes were thought incurable have been mastered. Scientists even talk of a cure for that ages-old scourge of leprosy.

The riches of life seem to grow yearly better, but the chance for happiness and security somehow fail to increase proportionately.

The trouble for that is beyond the reach of doctors.

Perhaps it is instead, a job for mothers whose business it is to teach their children honesty and fair play, generosity and unselfishness.

Even with the ravages of cancer stopped, with tuberculosis almost conquered by the healing rays of the sun, with every lurking streptococci germ traced to its source of supply in some broken down tonsil or decrepit tooth, the human race only muddles along achieving little solid increase in happiness, except to the insurance companies, who like to see the life span lengthen.

But what boots it to live longer, if we may not live more happily?

It won't be long now before the last of the dread disease germs will have been isolated and conquered by the scientists.

But that won't help the human race such a lot, as long as no one isolates the selfishness germ, and finds a cure for national greed and ancient hatreds

In the Courts

While enroute to their stations at DuBois and Ridgway early Sunday morning, Corporals Barker and Pierce of the state police are said to have encountered Charles Lansberry, of Curwensville, in a car about the Drauckker's woods section, under the influence of liquor.

Lansberry was arrested by the state police and held in $1,000 bail for violation of the motor law by driving a car while intoxicated. Lansberry denies the charge and furnished the required bail for court.

Law and orderly proceedure must maintain even over in Huston township, where a factional quarrel has divided the school board into two warring factions. Several weeks ago the dominant faction on the board sought to ignore the election laws of the state, which provide for the election of certain officers, and decided to appoint one of their friends as collector of school taxes regardless of the fact that John Horning, one of the township's most substantial citizens, had been elected to the position, given the required bond and had acted most efficiently in the office for two years.

Mr. Horning got an injunction to restrain the "big three" on the school board from turning the duplicate over to their collector and Judge Chase fixed Monday morning for a hearing on the injunction application. It did not take long to convince the would-be law-makers of the error of their ways and all hands quickly agreed that Collector Horning under the law was entitled to and would receive the school tax duplicate for collection.

The hearing was then continued until July 21, at which time the matter of who is liable for the costs of the proceeding will be determined. Mr. Horning says he will not pay them, and contends that it is not an obligation of the taxpayers of the district but that the directors who sought to usurp his place are wholly to blame and should be made to pay the costs out of their own pocket.

Told of John Burroughs.

John Burroughs, the naturalist, was not interested in nature's larger aspects. Geysers and volcanoes bored him. His one exception was the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, which he called "the Divine Abyss." Despite his intentness on study when a boy, Burroughs was fond of girls and kept a systematic record of his engagements with them, writers on his life say.

Curwensville's Own Column

Mrs. Hurebrt Sharp, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Verne Wall, South Walnut street, for several weeks will return to her Philadelphia home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Robert McClure, Mrs. S. J. McKenrick and Mrs. Ed Moore are spending the week in Bellefonte with their neice, Mrs. J. L. Runkle.

The body of Alfred Borlin was brot to Curwensville yesterday from Jamestown, N. Y., where he died on Sunday. Undertaker Doverspike received the body and took it to Bloomington, where it will be interred this afternoon. He was a former resident of Glen Richey and conducted a butcher shop there at one time.

Word has been received by relatives announcing the marriage of Miss Pearl Borger, and her brother Pus Boroger, the ceremony being a double one. The marriages took place at Detroit, Mich., Rev. A. E. Gordon, a Methodist minister officiating. The lady was united with Willemore Stewart, of Nov Glasgow, Nova Scotia, and the brother to Genevieve Hansen of Milwaukee, Wis. The bridal pair are a brother and sister of Roy Borger of Curwensville.

Ai Mumma suffered a dislocated shoulder Sunday by falling from a high porch backwards.

Three cars met in a smashup on Bloomington hill Sunday night. None of the occupants, of which there were some half dozen, was injured to any extent, but two of the machines are good material for a junk pile.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams after a week's visit with relatives in [illegible] have returned to their New Bethlehem home.

Roy Strickland who moved to Curwensville about a year ago to take charge of a high-bred dog farm, will return to Curwensville shortly, he having had enough dog training to last him a life time.

Rolly Knepp is carrying his right arm in a sling all on account of having a hand underna car wheel. The hand and fingers were badly crushed and lacerated.

Guy Strickland, South Side, is nursing a smashed fore finger and it is not a very friendly pet at that.

Do not forget the fact that on next Friday evening the American Legion auxiliary will hold a carnival and dance in the Bartelle garage. There will be amusement and fun galore for everybody, to say nothing of the fine refreshments that are going to be on hand and dispensed at a small profit to the hungry. Proceeds for benefit of the Tablet Fund.

Funny, but true nevertheless, that no one has inaugurated a term of summer school in Curwensville this year. Usually some interested person in school affairs holds a private two or three week's session to better prepare the small student for advancement in the winter term. Perhaps it is because that people entertain an idea that a nine months term is sufficient for one year and the kiddies ought to have a few months of play and frolik. "All work and no play, makes Jack a dull boy."

STATE ORGANIZERS HERE

Edwin Charles and A. D. Miller, state organizers of the P. O. S. of A., were in Clearfield today on business in connection with their duties in this patriotic American order.

Mr. Charles is an old-time newspaper man, having been editor of the Middleburg (Pa.) Post for a number of years. He also served as register and recorder of Snyder county for two or three terms, and is a very genial gentleman. Both officials expressed themselves as being well pleased with the condition of the order in Clearfield county.

Camp "Cedar Pines" To Open June 26th

Camp "Cedar-Pines," the summer camp conducted by the Y. M. C. A. of Jersey Shore, Pa., is the open gate to the out-of-door life. The place for the boy and the girl to spend their vacation, living in the fresh air, near the woods, the creek and the fields. Place a boy and girl in this closeness to nature, among agreeable companions, good influence and under the care of capable leaders, and they will grow in body, mind and spirit.

This is the surrounding "Cedar-Pines" offers and upon which its success has been built during the past eight years. Careful attention is given to all activities of the boys and girls. This camp is an exclusive one where boys and girls are given individual attention.

Character training, combined with physical and mental developement is the chief aim of this popular camp.

The councilors at "Cedar-Pines" are keenly alive to their responsibilities for the safety and hapiness of the boys and girls entrusted to their care, and it is the kind of camp that parents may feel safe in sending their children to.

Every boy and girl has dreamed of the wonderful pleasures of camping and imagined living out under the blue skies by day and night sleeping under a coverlet of silent, twinkling stars. All have pictured the continuous moments of joy—hiking, cooking, breakfast, of the crackling fire—baseball, tennis, woodcraft, fishing, swimming, basketball, volleyball, minstrel, circus, stunt nights, camp emblem tests and swapping stories around the evening camp fire after dark.

A typical day's program at camp Cedar-Pines":

6:15	Reveille
6:50	Flag raising, setting-up exercises, morning dip.
7:30	Breakfast
7:45	Bungalows in order
7:50	Bungalow inspection
8:00	Bible study, morning assembly
8:30	Camp duties
9:15	Special institute groups
10:00	Sports, coached by leaders
10:45	Beginner's swimming lesson
11:00	Morning swim
1:00	Rest, letter writing, reading
2:00	Athletics, ball games, boating, hiking, etc.
4:15	Beginner's swim
4:30	Afternoon swim
6:00	Supper
7:00	Campus games, etc.
8:00	Camp fire, talks, special entertainments.
9:30	Tattoo
9:45	Taps, lights out, quiet

Every Day a Happy Day

There will be at least one hundred girls entering camp on Thursday, June 26, when the girl's camp begins. The girls' camp will continue for a period of three weeks. The boys' camp will open on July 24, and a capacity crowd is expected during this season which is the ninth consecutive season for this popular camp. Boys and girls were entered last season from five different states.

A camp booklet is issued and those interested may obtain one by communication with the Y. M. C. A. at Jersey Shore, Pa.

Benediction

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the sessions of this convention. It is becoming more and more apparent that it is of supreme importance to strongly support the greatest agency in modern times for the religious training of children and youth, and to keep our Sunday schools up to the highest standard.

Each one of the 19 schools of the district will elect two delegates. All pastors, Sunday school superintendents and teachers in the district are earnestly urged to be in attendance at the convention, as well as all Sunday school workers in the district.

Pastors and superintendents are requested to announce the convention and urge a large attendance from their respective congregation and schools.

Singing, conducted by H. L. Caldwell, will enliven all the sessions. Delegates will be entertained.

District No. 2 includes the Sunday schools of the following places: Curwensville, Grampian, Glen Richey, Lumber City, Pike township, and Penn Township.

PHILIPSBURG NOTES

The State Centre Game Fish and Forestry Association has been organized in Philipsburg, the object of which is to conserve the forests and streams and the wild life therein. Its purpose is to see that Centre and Clearfield counties get their allotment of fish and game from state and federal game reserves and hatcheries, and to see that the same is distributed in all sections of said counties where the association is represented.

Among other things the association is in favor of the hunter's license law; the dog law; of a state hatchery and game preserve for this section; the building of dams and lakes on our streams for the further protection of fish and game. The organization opposes the stocking of private waters and fisheries from publicly owned hatcheries with state owned fish, and to private hunting or fishing grounds where state game or fish is found. The members of the association promise to co-operate with the fire wardens to reduce the fire hazards.

The association is anxious to increase its membership and thereby aid in making hunting and fishing in this section more appealing and the streams and hunting grounds better places to spend their leisure hours. Applications for membership can be secured from A. G. Ericson, J. W. Beals, J. Frank Lephart, of Philipsburg, and Game Protector Wm. J. Davis, of Curwensville.

Philipsburg Children Lose Sight of Eye

Within the past four weeks three children residing in this section—two boys and a girl—through injuries have lost the sight of one of their eyes. The three were admitted to the Philipsburg State hospital, one having been struck in the eye from a burning coal from the stove; another received a blow in the eye from a stick while playing and the other received injuries during the explosion of a dynamite cap. The children, all youths, will now have to go through this world with a great handicap, but with the use of the other eye may be able to succeeed.

Died At Hospital Following Operation

Mrs. Joseph Graham, aged 40, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Chester Hill, passed away at the local State hospital following an operation for goitre. She had been admitted to the institution but 48 hrs. before, when her condition was critical. Her health had been failing for more than a year. Death relieved her of her sufferings early Friday morning.

Royal Bride

Princess Kuni, the lovely sister of the Princess Regent of Japan, recently married in Tokyo to the son of the abbott of a temple at Kyoto.

A Calico War.

One of the first Indian wars in the history of early Kansas is said to have originated because an agent sold some Indians a piece of calico with the stripes running the wrong way.

CALUMET

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

Wholesome—Clean—Dependable

Wholesome—because it contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Food Authorities.

Clean—because it is manufactured in the most sanitary baking powder factories in the world, equipped with specially designed machinery to prevent exposure and contamination. The materials in it are untouched by human hands from the start to the finish in the sealed can.

Dependable—because every possible precaution known to Baking Powder scientists—the combined knowledge of a staff of Baking Powder experts—35 years of practical experience in the manufacture of Baking Powder—is used in our efforts to make its keeping qualities perfect.

Dependable—because Calumet is the Baking Powder that contains a small amount of dried white of egg—the ingredient that makes possible the "Water Glass Test." This test is a simple but important and positive method that enables you or anyone to easily prove that Calumet has preserved its remarkable leavening power.

Our salesmen frequently test the Calumet Baking Powder they find on the grocers' shelves to make sure that it is up to the Calumet standard. That's why it reaches you in the same perfect condition as it leaves the factory.

The test is not a comparative test of the strength of different kinds of Baking Powders. The "Water Glass Test" does not show the strength of a Baking Powder that does not contain white of egg. It does, however, show the superiority of Calumet in other respects.

The "Water Glass Test" furnishes a guarantee of reliability. It is Baking Powder Insurance.

Let us send you free a "Big Story in a Little Book," which describes the Water Glass Test.

Calumet Baking Powder is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every particular, and to be as represented in every respect.

Truly the elephant has been named "The Children's Favorite", and not only do the kiddies love the big hulks but the grown-ups feed them peanuts and admire them also. Three immense herds of elephants are carried by the HAGENBECK-WALLACE Circus, which will exhibit in Clearfield on Monday, June 23d. Besides performing in the arenas the elephants work around the lot, hauling wagons to and from the lot.

Original Water Heater

The first water heater known dates back some two thousand years. This was the "abenum" of the Romans, a crude bronze kettle with a handle for swinging over an open fire. The "foculus," an apparently later device, was a metal container into which hot stones were put to heat the water surrounding them. This seems to have been the best water heater the early Romans were able to devise.

Woman

If a man is in grief, who cheers him? In trouble, who consoles him? In wrath, who soothes him? In joy, who makes him doubly happy? In prosperity, who rejoices? In disgrace, who backs him against the world, and dresses with gentle unguents and warm poultices the rankling wounds made by the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune? Who, but woman, if you please.—William Makepeace Thackeray.

Cat Mothers Fox Pups.

An Ontario reader writes that her cat fostered three fox pups since they were two weeks old. The pups were taken from the mother because it was feared they might chill. The cat had five kittens which were disposed of, and the foxes were promptly adopted in their place. The foxes are now over three months old and although larger than their foster mother, are still fond of her. They are kept now in a wire pen and kitty is quite content to remain with them all day long, enjoying an occasional frolic.

COMMUNISTS SHOW THIRD PARTY HEADS HOW TO RUN THINGS

By KENNETH CLARK

Convention Hall, St. Paul, June 17.—The bitter-show down fight that is brewing between the Communists and the more conservative Farm-Labor elements over the question of immediately forming a new independent third party was temporarily averted under an arrangement reached among the leaders shortly after the Farmers-Labor Progressive convention got break out openly on the floor at the off-set, the convention managers, by strategic movements, succeeded in having the fight referred again to committees, where the Communists are outranked.

Instead of permitting the battle to under way here today.

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

St. Paul, June 17.—A little band of ten men, all admitted dyed-in-the-wool Communists, today threatened to disrupt completely the Farmer-Labor-Progressive third party convention which met here in opening session.

Three days' work behind closed doors, during which the leaders of the new third party movement thought they had succeeded in curbing the Communists, the thorn in the side of this convention, was rendered virtually useless when the radical element, maneuvering for controlling position, pressed vigorously on the floor for full recognition and equal representation with all other groups in the meeting.

The Communists demanded not only official recognition of their party, but complete acceptance of their platform and plans for the immediate formation of a third party headed by an Independent ticket of candidates from which Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin, would be excluded.

Seldom has a political convention entered upon its work with such confusing problems and with so many cross currents of opinion.

With the single exception of routine organization not a major problem was settled when William Mahoney, temporary chairman, rapped the convention in order.

Until twelve hours ago it seemed that everything had been worked out satisfactorily. The program was to ignore the Communists in the make-up of the convention and then proceed immediately to endorse LaFollette for the Presidency, if he decides to run.

The leaders, confident that LaFollette's formal announcement was imminent, planned to have the convention to select an executive committee of 96 members two from each state, with power to confer endorsement of this Farmer-Labor group upon the militant Wisconsin progressive. Upon this committee the Communists demanded representation.

Then came the overnight change. Its suddenness was as dramatic as it was sensational.

Back of it all were the Communist delegates, ten men, five from the Workers party and five from the Federated Farmer-Labor party.

As the first step, the party managers, with Mahoney at the helm, receded from their previous stand to keep the Communists as a party organization out of the convention. It was first decided that they should come in as representatives of trade unions but not as members of the Communist party.

The Radicals, under the leadership of W. Z. Foster, C. E. Ruthenberg and Joseph Manley, claimed that when the call for the convention was sent out last November the Communists were included. So the managers relented, Mahoney announcing when the switch in plans was made that "it would be a breach of the Faith now not to admit the Communist party."

But this did not satisfy the Communists. They threatened even to balk the plans for the formation of the national executive committee of 96 members.

The Communists said flatly that they did not want any executive committee but demanded to proceed at once with the launching of an independent party with candidates of its own chosing and selection. This was aimed as a direct slap at LaFollette, who savagely attacked the Radicals in his recent letter to Herman Ekern, Attorney General of Wisconsin.

Mahoney and Lieutenants particularly Thomas Ayres, Farmer-Labor candidate for the senate in South Dakota and Walter Mills of the Farmer-Labor party of California, opposed the immediate formation of a third party, prefering first to perfect the State Famer-Labor parties and indorse LaFollette as the only step in national politics this year. They commanded a majority of the delegates, but even so their hands were tied by the Communists.

So completely, in fact, were Mahoney and his followers bound by the Communists that not a single committee was ready to report to the convention at the opening today, although all the major committees, platform, nominations and organization have been in almost constant session for three days.

Unless the Communists lines can be broken it seemed that the convention will be dragged out for the three day period that it was scheduled.

Though Mahoney claimed the largest following, the Communists went into the convention "holding the balance of power," for it was they, and they alone, who threatened to smash the plans that the party managers had so carefully laid, indorse LaFollette and deter the launching of a strongly centralized national third party of Farmers and Labors.

Want Col. Asher Miner To Head Disabled Vets

Wilkes Barre, June 17 (United Press)—The executive commitee of District No. 3, Disabled Veterans of the World War, comprising the states of Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland, has decided to nominate General Ashur Miner, of Wilkes Barre for National Commander at their convention in Salt Lake City, starting June 23, Bernard Delinski, state commander anounced here

A strong fight will be made for Miner as it is felt that a man from the East should be the next national commander, Delinski said. General Miner, who was wounded overseas during the world war, has long been prominent in affairs of the Pennsylvania National Guard. He is thoroughly familiar with the needs of the disabled war veterans.

A strong delegation from Pennsylvania will attend the national convention at which many important questions relating to the welfare of disabled soldiers will come up.

VARICOSE VEINS ARE QUICKLY REDUCED

No sensible person will continue to suffer from dangerous swollen veins or bunches when the new powerful, yet harmless germicide called Emerald Oil can readily be obtained at any well stocked drug store.

Ask for a two-ounce original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse substitutes. Use as directed and in a few days improvement will be noticed, then continue until the swollen veins are reduced to normal. It is guaranteed and is so powerful that it also reduces enlarged glands, goitres and wens.

UNDER THE DOME OF THE CAPITOL

Harrisburg, Pa., June 17 (INS)—The State Board of Pardons will start its June session on Tuesday afternoon June 24, when Philadelphia cases will be heard, and the following day will hear the other cases listed for the last hearings prior to the summer recess of the Board.

Two hundred and seventy salary increases were shown on the June 15 payrolls submitted to the State Treasury by the Game, Highway, Agriculture, Insurance, Labor and Industry, and Forestry Departments, running the total number of employes who have been granted more money to approximately 1,000 for the month.

The State Highway Department has filed a complaint with the Public Service Commission against the Reading Company, Carrol township and York county, alleging the dangerous condition of a bridge on State Highway Route 123 between Harrisburg and asking the commission to order replacement of the bridge.

The State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy, now a home for delinquent girls, may become a state reformatory for women prisoners of all kinds from the central counties under a plan discussed by boards of the trustees with Dr. Ellen C. Potter, secretary of Welfare. Dr. Potter, who has been making a special study of the general conditions under which women prisoners are kept, is very favorable to the plan, declaring that such an institution is very much needed.

Forty superintendents of dependent and delinquent children's institutions in the state are attending the summer institute which opened today at Thorn Hill School, Allegheny County.

The conference which will continue until Thursday June 19, is designed to enable the various institution managers to acquaint themselves with approved methods of handling the children entrusted to their care. A permanent organization to be known as the Pennsylvania Association of Institutional Workers will be formed before the meetings end.

To formulate a definite policy for handling the crippled children of the state, a special committee appointed by the Welfare Department, will meet here June 23. Members of the committee include:—Mrs. William Jennings, Dr. C. G. Turnbull, Dr. Francis H. Maxfield, Mrs. Mary S. Lownes, F. E. Brooks of Harrisburg, Mrs. Robert Mackintosh and Miss Rita Lord Sculler of Philadelphia, Miss Aluda Winkelman of Pittsburg, A. H. Standish of Williamsport, Allen F. Smith of Allentown, and Dr. E. E. Shifferstine of Coaldale.

Under authority of the latest legislature, Dr. Potter has issued an order defining the type of mental patients which the various State hospitals for mental diseases may accept, and the territory each will serve. The hospitals affected are those at Danville, Fairview, Harrisburg, Norristown, Warren, Wernersville, and Torrance.

America's Early Years

The story of the first years of American history was first told by Peter Martyr, in "The New World." Martyr was an Italian historian who went to Spain in 1487, and entered the service of Queen Isabella.

WAS HAPPY EVENT

A day ever to be remembered was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Thomas, South 4th street, Saturday, June 14, when friends from the Trainmen's Auxiliary, Altoona, and Dames of Malta, Clearfield met in honor of Mrs. Thomas' (?) birthday.

The friends from Altoona (a jolly bunch) were as much surprised as the Host and Hostess, when the Dames with their well filled baskets, came in at the noon hour.

The chicken dinner with all the trimmings was soon disposed of, and the afternoon was spent in music and jollification, not saying much about getting our faces "took" by Shull, the photographer.

One lady from Altoona made the remark that she was a Hair Dresser, and was kept busy making older ones look younger. The day soon drew to a close, the friends departing wishing Mrs. Thomas many more happy birthdays.

There were more than thirty present.

WILL OF MRS B. J. HAYWOOD

An estate estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Haywood, widow of the former State Treasurer Benjamin J. Haywood, who died at Sharon last week, is devised to charitable purposes. This will, drawn in November, 1920, was offered for probate at Mercer. The will provides a gift of $25,000 to the American Sunday School Union, an undenominational society. The spacious Haywood home in Sharon, together with its furnishings, is devised to the Presbyterian Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation as a home for superannuated ministers, and all of the remainder of the estate is given to support and maintain the institution.

Mrs. Curtis Brooks and son Curtis Brooks Jr. of Akron, Ohio, are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Nightingale on Nichols St.

HAD FINE TIME

The neighbors and friends of Mrs. P. E. McDowell, of Bradford township to the number of 21 gathered at their home on Saturday evening last and treated Mrs. McDowell to an old-fashioned surprise party. Saturday happened to be Mrs. McDowell's birthday and the good ladies of the neighborhood, enlisting the aid of her husband, had Perry bring her to town and keep her here until late in the evening.

When they arrived home at 8 p. m. they found the house filled with their friends and a real surprise and a very pleasant evening was the result. Delicious eats were served and Mrs. McDowell was handsomely remembered.

LOCAL MARINE ON DUTY IN HAITI

Washington, June 17.—Starting on a period of duty in the tropics, Charles Edward Hale, nephew of Mrs. Jessie McCracken of Tyler, Clearfield County, Pa., is now on duty with the U. S. Marines in Haiti, according to the official reports at Marine Corps headquarters here. He will proably remain in the West Indies a year or longer before returning to the United States.

A small force of Marines have been stationed in Haiti since 1915, when the soldiers of the sea landed in that country to restore order during a revolution. During their occupation of Haiti, the Marines have established school systems, aided in the building of roads and public works, and have encouraged agriculture and thrift among the natives.

Charles joined the Marine Corps at Pittsburgh in October, 1922, and spent several weeks at Parris Island, S. C., where he learned the various duties performed by marines. He left that station recently with a detachment of marines bound for Port au Prince, the picturesque capital of Haiti.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN DROWN

Christiana, Norway, June 17. (INS.)—Twenty women and children were drowned today when the mail steamers Haakon Jarl and King Harald collided in West Fiord off the Nordland coast.

The Haakon Jarl, a 900-ton Norwegian ship, sank immediately.
